THE following DECLARATION has been sent, by His Majesty's Command, to the Commanders of His Majesty's Fleets and Armies employed against France; and to His Majesty's Ministers residing at Foreign Courts.

LES Circonstances d'après lesquelles Sa Majesté Britannique s'est vuë engagée dans une Guerre Defensive contre la France sont déjà connues de toute l'Europe. Les Objets que Sa Majesté s'est proposé dès le Commencement de cette Guerre ne sont pas moins. De repousser une Aggression injuste, de contribuer à la Défense immédiate de Ses Alliés, de Leur procurer, ainsi qu'à Elle même, une juste Indemnification, et de pourvoir, autant que les Circonstances le permettront, à la Sûreté future de Ses Sujets, et à celle de toutes les autres Nations de l'Europe; ce sont là les Points pour lesquels Sa Majesté a jugé qu'Elle devoit employer tous les Moyens que Lui fournissent les Ressources de Ses Etats, le Zèle et l'Amour de Son Peuple, et la Justice incontestable de Sa Cause.

THE Circumstances, in consequence of which His Majesty has found Himself engaged in a Defensive War against France, are known already to all Europe. The Objects which His Majesty has proposed to Himself from the Commencement of the War are of equal Notoriety. To repel an unprovoked Aggression, to contribute to the immediate Defence of His Allies, to obtain for Them and for Himself a just Indemnification, and to provide, as far as Circumstances will allow, for the future Security of His own Subjects, and of all the other Nations of Europe; these are the Points for which His Majesty has felt it incumbent on Him to employ all the Means which He derives from the Resources of His Dominions, from the Zeal and Affection of His People, and from the unquestionable Justice of His Cause.

Mais il est devenu de jour en jour plus évident combien l'Etat intérieur de la France s'oppose à la Conclusion d'un Traité solide et permanent, seul Moyen de remplir les Vuës justes et salutaires de Sa Majesté, en assurant l'Accomplissement de ces Objets importants, et en rendant la Tranquillité à l'Europe entière. Sa Majesté voit donc, avec le plus grand Plaisir, des Circonstances qui Lui donnent l'Espoir de pouvoir accélérer le Rétablissement de la Paix, en exposant plus particulièrement à la Partie saine de

But it has become daily more and more evident how much the internal Situation of France obstructs the Conclusion of a solid and permanent Treaty, which can alone fulfil His Majesty's just and salutary Views for the Accomplishment of these important Objects, and for restoring the general Tranquillity of Europe: His Majesty sees, therefore, with the utmost Satisfaction, the Prospect, which the present Circumstances afford Him, of accelerating the Return of Peace, by making to the well-disposed Part of the People of France, a Nation Françoisé les Principes qui L'animent, les Vuës qu'Elle Se propose, et la Conduite qu'Elle veut suivre, par rapport à la Situation actuelle des Affaires. Les Evénemens de la Guerre, la Confiance que Lui à temoignée une des Villes Françoises les plus considérables, et surtout le Voeu qui se manifeste dans presque toutes les Parties de la France, pour trouver un Appui contre la Tyrannie qui les écrase, Lui font de cette Explication un Devoir pressant et indispensable; Elle s'y prête avec d'autant plus de Satisfaction qu'Elle espère de rencontrer dans les Puissances qui font Cause commune avec Elle des Sentimens et des Vuës parfaitement analogues aux Siens.

Depuis la première Epoque où Sa Majesté Très Chrétienne le Roi Louis XVI. avoit appelé son Peuple autour de Lui pour travailler de concert à leur Bonheur commun, Sa Majesté a toujours démontré par Sa Conduite la Sincérité des Voeux qu'Elle avoit formés pour la Réussite de cette Entreprise, si difficile mais si intéressante. Elle a été profondément affligée de tous les Malheurs qui l'ont suivi, mais surtout quand Elle a senti de plus en plus que des Mesures, dont Elle ne pouvoit se dissimuler les Suites, la forceroient à se départir de Sa Conduite amicale et pacifique. Le Moment arriva enfin où Elle vit qu'il falloit non seulement défendre Ses Droits, et ceux de Ses Alliés, non seulement repousser l'Aggression injuste qu'Elle venoit d'éprouver, mais que tous les Intérêts les plus précieux de Son Peuple Lui imosoient un Devoir encore plus important, celui de travailler au Maintien de la Société civile, telle qu'elle est heureusement établie parmi les Nations de l'Europe.

Les Deseins annoncés de réformer les Abus du Gouvernement François, d'établir sur des Bases solides la Liberté personnelle, et le Droit des Propriétés, d'assurer à un Peuple nombreux une sage Législation, et une Administration des Loix juste et modérée; toutes ces Vuës salutaires ont malheureusement disparu. Elles ont fait Place à un Système destructeur de tout Ordre Public, soutenu par des Proscriptions, des Exils, des Confiscations sans Nombre, par des Emprisonnemens arbitraires, par des Massacres, dont le Souvenir seul fait frémir, et enfin par le Meurtre exécrable d'un Souverain juste et bienfaisant, et de l'Auguste Princesse, qui avec une Fermeté inébranlable a partagé tous les Malheurs de Son Illustre Epoux, Ses longues Souffrances, Sa dure Captivité, Sa Mort indigne. Les Habitans de ce malheureux País, si long tems trompés par des Promesses de Bonheur, toujours renouvelées à l'Epoque de chaque France, a more particular Declaration of the Principles which animate Him, of the Objects to which His Views are directed, and of the Conduct which it is His Intention to pursue. With respect to the present Situation of Affairs, the Events of the War, the Confidence reposed in Him by one of the most considerable Cities of France, and, above all, the Wish which is manifested almost universally in that Country, to find a Refuge from the Tyranny by which it is now overwhelmed, render this Explanation on His Majesty's Part a pressing and indispensable Duty: And His Majesty feels additional Satisfaction in making such a Declaration, from the Hope of finding, in the other Powers engaged with Him in the common Cause, Sentiments and Views perfectly conformable to His own.

From the first Period when His Most Christian Majesty Louis the XVIth had called his People around him, to join in concerting Measures for their common Happiness, the King has uniformly shewn by His Conduct the Sincerity of His Wishes for the Success of so difficult, but, at the same Time, so interesting an Undertaking. His Majesty was deeply afflicted with all the Misfortunes which ensued, but particularly when He perceived more and more evidently that Measures, the Consequences of which He could not disguise from Himself, must finally compel Him to relinquish the friendly and pacific System which He had adopted. The Moment at length arrived when His Majesty saw that it was necessary for Him not only to defend His own Rights and those of his Allies, not only to repel the unjust Aggression which He had recently experienced, but that all the dearest Interests of His People imposed upon Him a Duty still more important, that of exerting His Efforts for the Preservation of Civil Society itself, as happily established among the Nations of Europe.

The Designs which had been professed of reforming the Abuses of the Government of France, of establishing personal Liberty and the Rights of Property on a solid Foundation, of securing to an extensive and populous Country the Benefit of a wise Legislation, and an equitable and mild Administration of its Laws; all these salutary Views have unfortunately vanished. In their Place has succeeded a System destructive of all Public Order, maintained by Proscriptions, Exiles, and Confiscations without Number, by arbitrary Imprisonments, by Massacres, which cannot even be remembered without Horror, and at length, by the execrable Murder of a just and beneficent Sovereign, and of the Illustrious Princess, who, with an unshaken Firmness, has shared all the Misfortunes of Her Royal Consort, His protracted Sufferings, His cruel Captivity, His ignominious Death. The Inhabitants of that unfortunate Country, so long flattered nouveau Crime, se sont vus plongés dans un Abîme de Calamités sans Exemple; et ses Voisins, au lieu de trouver dans l'Établissement d'un Gouvernement sage et modéré, une nouvelle Sûreté pour le Maintien de la Tranquillité générale, ont été exposés aux Attaques multipliées d'un Anarchie féroce, Ennemie naturelle et nécessaire de tout Ordre Public. Ils en ont éprouvé des Aggressions sans Prétexte, des Violations ouvertes de tous les Traités, des Déclarations de Guerre non provoquées; enfin, tout ce que pouvoient faire la Corruption, les Intrigues, et la Violence, pour effectuer le Dessein si hautement avoué de détruire partout toutes les Institutions sociales, et d'étendre à tous les Peuples de l'Europe le Bouleverfement qui a fait le Malheur de la France.

Cet État de Choses ne peut subsister en France, sans impliquer dans un Danger commun toutes les Puissances qui l'avoisinent, sans Leur donner le Droit, sans Leur imposer le Devoir d'arrêter les Progrès d'un Mal qui n'existe que par la Violation successive de toutes les Lois, et de toutes les Propriétés, et par la Subversion des Principes fondamentaux qui réunissent les Hommes dans les Liens de la Vie sociale. Sa Majesté ne veut certainement pas contester à la France le Droit de réformer ses Lois. Elle n'auroit jamais désiré d'influer par la Force extérieure sur les Formes du Gouvernement d'un Etat indépendant. Elle ne le desire actuellement qu'autant que cet Objet est devenu essentiel au Repos et à la Sûreté des autres Puissances. Dans ces Circonstances, Elle demande à la France, et Elle lui demande à juste Titre, de faire cesser enfin un Système anarchique, qui n'a de Force que pour le Mal, incapable de remplir envers les François le premier Devoir des Gouvernemens, de réprimer les Troubles, de punir les Crimes, qui se multiplient journellement dans l'Intérieur du País; mais disposant arbitrairement de leurs Propriétés et de leur Sang, pour troubler le Repos des autres Nations, et pour faire de toute l'Europe le Théâtre des mêmes Crimes et des mêmes Malheurs. Elle lui demande d'établir un Gouvernement légitime et stable, fondé sur les Principes reconnus de Justice universelle, et propre à entretenir avec les autres Nations les Relations usitées d'Union et de Paix. Sa Majesté souhaite avec Ardeur de pouvoir traiter pour le Rétablissement de la Tranquillité générale, avec un pareil Gouvernement, exerçant une Autorité légale et permanente, ayant le Desir du Repos Public, et le Pouvoir de faire observer ses Engagemens. Le Roi ne proposeroit que des Conditions équitables et modérées, non pas telles que les Frais, les Risques, et les Sacrifices de la Guerre, pourroient autoriser, mais telles que Sa Majesté se croit dans la Nécessité indispensable de demander d'après ces Considérations, flattered by Promises of Happiness, renewed at the Period of every fresh Crime, have found themselves plunged into an Abyss of unexampled Calamities; and neighbouring Nations, instead of deriving a new Security for the Maintenance of general Tranquillity from the Establishment of a wise and moderate Government, have been exposed to the repeated Attacks of a ferocious Anarchy, the natural and necessary Enemy of all Public Order. They have had to encounter Acts of Aggression without Pretext, open Violations of all Treaties, unprovoked Declarations of War; in a Word, whatever Corruption, Intrigue or Violence could effect for the Purpose so openly avowed of subverting all the Institutions of Society, and of extending over all the Nations of Europe that Confusion which has produced the Misery of France.

This State of Things cannot exist in France without involving all the surrounding Powers in one common Danger, without giving them the Right, without imposing it upon them as a Duty, to stop the Progress of an Evil which exists only by the successive Violation of all Law and all Property, and which attacks the fundamental Principles by which Mankind is united in the Bonds of Civil Society. His Majesty by no Means disputes the Right of France to reform it's Laws. It never would have been His Wish to employ the Influence of external Force with respect to the particular Forms of Government to be established in an independent Country. Neither has He now that Wish, except in so far as such Interference is become essential to the Security and Repose of other Powers. Under these Circumstances, He demands from France, and He demands with Justice, the Termination of a System of Anarchy, which has no Force but for the Purposes of Mischief, unable to discharge the primary Duty of all Government, to repress the Disorders, or to punish the Crimes which are daily increasing in the Interior of the Country, but disposing arbitrarily of the Property and Blood of the Inhabitants of France, in order to disturb the Tranquillity of other Nations, and to render all Europe the Theatre of the same Crimes and of the same Misfortunes. The King demands that some legitimate and stable Government should be established, founded on the acknowledged Principles of universal Justice, and capable of maintaining with other Powers the accustomed Relations of Union and of Peace. His Majesty wishes ardently to be enabled to treat for the Re-establishment of general Tranquillity with such a Government, exercising a legal and permanent Authority, animated with the Wish for general Tranquillity, and possessing Power to enforce the Observance of it's Engagements. The King would propose none other than equitable and moderate Conditions, not such as the Expences, the Risques, and the Sacrifices of the War might justify, et plus encore d'après celle de Sa propre Sûreté, et de la Tranquillité future de l'Europe. Sa Majesté ne desire rien plus sincèrement, que de voir terminer de cette Manière une Guerre qu'il n'a pas tenu à Elle d'éviter, et dont toutes les Calamités qui en résultent à la France ne sont dûes qu'à l'Ambition, la Perfidie, et la Violence de ceux, dont les Crimes ont fait le Malheur de leur Patrie, et l'Opprobre de toutes les Nations civilisées.

Obligée jusqu'ici de faire la Guerre à la France entière, de traiter en Enemis tous ceux dont les Propriétés et le Sang sont prodigués pour soutenir une Aggression injuste, Sa Majesté se verra avec une Satisfaction infinie, dans le Cas de faire des Exceptions en faveur des Habitans bien intentionnés des autres Parties de la France, comme Elle l'a déjà fait à l'égard de ceux de Toulon. Le Roi leur promet d'avance de Sa Part Suspension d'Hostilités, Amitié, et (autant que les Evenemens le permettront, dont la Volonté humaine ne peut disposer) Sûreté et Protection à tous ceux qui, en se déclarant pour un Gouvernement Monarchique, se soustrairont au Despotisme d'une Anarchie sanglante; de cette Anarchie, qui a rompu tous les Liens les plus sacrés de la Société, brisé tous les Rapports de la Vie civile, violé tous les Droits, confondu tous les Devoirs; se servant du Nom de la Liberté pour exercer la Tyrannie la plus cruelle, pour anéantir toutes les Propriétés, pour s'emparer de toutes les Fortunes, fondant son Pouvoir sur le Consentement prétendu du Peuple, et mettant elle même à Feu et à Sang des Provinces entières, pour avoir réclamé leurs Lois, leur Religion, et leur Souverain légitime.

C'est donc pour se délivrer de cette Oppression mortelle, pour détruire ce Système de Crimes sans Exemple, et pour rendre enfin la Tranquillité à la France, et la Sûreté à toute l'Europe, que Sa Majesté appelle tous les François à co-opérer avec Elle. C'est pour ces Objets qu'Elle les invite à se rallier à l'Etendard d'une Monarchie héréditaire, non pas pour décider dans ce Moment de Trouble, de Calamité, et de Danger Public, sur toutes les Modifications dont cette Forme de Gouvernement pourra dans la Suite être susceptible, mais pour se réunir encore sous l'Empire des Lois, de la Morale, et de la Religion, et pour assurer enfin à leur Patrie la Paix avec ses Voisins, la Tranquillité intérieure, une juste et vraie Liberté, un Gouvernement sage, modéré, et bienfaisant, et la Jouissance non interrompue de tous les Avantages qui peuvent rendre heureuse et florissante une grande et puissante Nation.

but such as His Majesty thinks Himself under the indispensable Necessity of requiring with a View to these Considerations, and still more to that of His own Security, and of the future Tranquillity of Europe. His Majesty desires nothing more sincerely than thus to terminate a War which He in vain endeavoured to avoid, and all the Calamities of which, as now experienced by France, are to be attributed only to the Ambition, the Perfidy, and the Violence of those, whose Crimes have involved their own Country in Misery, and disgraced all civilized Nations.

As His Majesty has hitherto been compelled to carry on War against the People of France collectively, to treat as Enemies all those who suffer their Property and Blood to be lavished in Support of an unjust Aggression, His Majesty would see with infinite Satisfaction the Opportunity of making Exceptions in Favour of the well-disposed Inhabitants of other Parts of France, as He has already done with respect to those of Toulon. The King promises, on His Part, the Suspension of Hostilities, Friendship, and (as far as the Course of Events will allow, of which the Will of Man cannot dispose) Security and Protection to all those who, by declaring for a Monarchical Government, shall shake off the Yoke of a sanguinary Anarchy, of that Anarchy which has broken all the most sacred Bonds of Society, dissolved all the Relations of civil Life, violated every Right, confounded every Duty, which uses the Name of Liberty to exercise the most cruel Tyranny, to annihilate all Property, to seize on all Possessions, which founds its Power on the pretended Consent of the People, and itself carries Fire and Sword through extensive Provinces, for having demanded their Laws, their Religion, and their lawful Sovereign.

It is then in order to deliver themselves from this unheard of Oppression, to put an End to a System of unparalleled Crimes, and to restore at length Tranquillity to France, and Security to all Europe, that His Majesty invites the Co-operation of the People of France. It is for these Objects that He calls upon them to join the Standard of an hereditary Monarchy, not for the Purpose of deciding, in this Moment of Disorder, Calamity, and Public Danger, on all the Modifications of which this Form of Government may hereafter be susceptible, but in order to unite themselves once more under the Empire of Law, of Morality, and of Religion; and to secure at length to their own Country, external Peace, domestic Tranquillity, a real and genuine Liberty, a wise, moderate, and beneficent Government, and the uninterrupted Enjoyment of all the Advantages which can contribute to the Happiness and Prosperity of a great and powerful Nation.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of October, 1793.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should fo enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant October: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October to the Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.
