Whitehall, October 29, 1793.

THE following DECLARATION has been sent; by His Majesty's Command, to the Commanders of His Majesty's Fleets and Armies employed against France; and to His Majesty's Ministers residing at Foreign Courts.

LES Circonstances d'après lesquelles Sa Majesté Britannique s'est vuë engagée dans une Guerre Défensive contre la France sont déjà connues de toute l'Europe. Les Objets que Sa Majesté s'est proposé dès le Commencement de cette Guerre ne le sont pas moins. De repousser une Aggression injuste, de contribuer à la Défense immédiate de Ses Alliés, de Leur procurer, ainsi qu'à Elle-même, une juste Indemnification, et de pourvoir, autant que les Circonstances le permettront, à la Sûreté future de Ses Sujets, et à celle de toutes les autres Nations de l'Europe; ce sont là les Points pour lesquels Sa Majesté a jugé qu'Elle devoit employer tous les Moyens que Lui fournissoient les Ressources de Ses Etats, le Zèle et l'Amour de Son Peuple, et la Justice incontestable de Sa Cause.

Mais il est devenu de jour en jour plus évident combien l'Etat intérieur de la France s'oppose à la Conclusion d'un Traité solide et permanent, seul Moyen de remplir les Vues justes et salutaires de Sa Majesté, en assurant l'Accomplissement de ces Objets importans, et en rendant la Tranquillité à l'Europe entière. Sa Majesté voit donc, avec le plus grand Plaisir, des Circonstances qui Lui donnent l'Espoir de pouvoir accélérer le Rétablissement de la Paix, en exposant plus particulièrement à la Partie saine de

But it has become daily more and more evident how much the internal Situation of France obstructs the Conclusion of a solid and permanent Treaty, which can alone fulfil His Majesty's just and salutary Views for the Accomplishment of these important Objects, and for restoring the general Tranquillity of Europe. His Majesty sees, therefore, with the utmost Satisfaction, the Prospect, which the present Circumstances afford Him, of accelerating the Return of Peace, by making to the well-disposed Part of the People of France,
