Whitehall, November 2.

BY Intelligence received from the Earl of Yarmouth, dated Brumt, Austrian Head Quarters, October 20, it appears, that on the Morning of the 17th General Wurmser, having received Information that Haguenau had surrendered to the Advanced Corps under General Mezaroos, he immediately put the Bulk of his Army into Motion, and arrived there that Night, a few Hours after it had been evacuated by the Enemy, who had made so precipitate a Retreat, as to neglect breaking down the wooden Bridges over which the Artillery was to pass. That, on the 18th, the French encamped on the Right Bank of the Zorn, a small River which runs through Brumt, but on perceiving some Interval between General Mezaroos' Advanced Corps, consisting of about 6,000 Men, and the other Columns of the Army, they crossed the River, and attacked him, with their whole Force, in the evident Expectation of turning his Flank, and cutting him off from the rest of the Army. The Action lasted Seven Hours; but upon perceiving the rest of the Austrian Army move forward, the French re-crossed the River, and evacuated the Heights and Town of Brumt, of which the Austrians took Possession. The Loss on the Part of the French is estimated at about 800 Men, and that of the Austrians nearly Half that Number, in killed and wounded. That the Prince of Waldeck had advanced with his Corps from Seltz, and marched along the Banks of the Rhine. That he had compelled the Surrender of Druzenheim, and, after having driven in the Garrison of Fort Louis, with some Loss, had invested the Place. That, in the Course of the Night, the French had abandoned their former Position on the Zorn, and retreated, under the Cannon of Strasbourg. That General Wurmser was at the Distance of Nine English Miles from that Place.

In Addition to the Accounts already published of the forcing the Lines of Weiffembourg and Lauterbourg it appears, that the Austrian Army had between Seven and Eight Hundred Men killed and wounded; and that the Loss of the French amounted to between Three and Four Thousand Men killed, from Five to Six Hundred Prisoners, and 26 Pieces of Cannon, with their Ammunition Waggons and Horses. The Retreat of the French, on this Occasion, was greatly favoured by a thick Fog.

Whitehall, November 2.

DISPATCHES from Sir James Murray, Adjutant-General to the Forces under the Command of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, of which the following are Extracts, were received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary for the Home Department, on Wednesday last.

Extract of a Letter from Sir James Murray, Bart. to Mr. Secretary Dundas, dated Tournai, October 24, 1793.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that the Enemy made, upon the 21st Instant, an Attack upon the Advanced Posts of the Camp at Menin, particularly those of Werwick and Halouin: They were every where repulsed; but the Day following they renewed the Attack with great Violence, and at last succeeded in gaining Possession of Werwick.

Menin being by this Means exposed, Lieutenant-General Erbach, who commanded there, found it necessary to evacuate the Town, and to retire with his Corps upon Courtray: This Corps was composed of Austrian and Hanoverian Troops. The Particulars of their Loss are not yet come to my Knowledge, but I understand that it amounts, in Killed and Wounded, to near 300 Men.

The

The Enemy likewise attacked the Troops posted at the Camp of Cisoing upon the 21st, 22d and 23d; but they were repulsed each Day with Loss; having had upon the 22d near 400 Men killed and taken. The Inniskilling's and the 16th Regiment of Light Dragoons behaved with great Spirit upon this Occasion. The Attacks of the Enemy were chiefly directed against the Posts of Nomain upon the Left, and Willem upon the Right, of both of which they at different Times gained Possession, but were again driven from them by Reinforcements sent from the Camp.

This Day the Enemy attacked the Post of Major-General Kray, at Orchies. No further Particulars are at present known, than that they have been repulsed with the Loss of Five Pieces of Cannon.

Extract of a Letter from Sir James Murray, dated Tournai, October 25, 1793.

ACCOUNTS have been received that the Enemy advanced upon the 22d upon Furnes, which was abandoned at their Approach. They then proceeded against Nieuport; but Recourse having been had to the Inundations, of which the Country near that Place is susceptible, they were obliged to retreat.

Lieutenant-General Wurmb, upon the Loss of Menin, left his Position by Dixmude and Fort Knocke, and is now posted at Thouroute, where he covers Bruges, and communicates with the Corps near Courtray.

It is His Royal Highness's Intention to attack the Enemy at Menin upon Monday next. General Walmoden will command the Troops employed upon this Service, which will be those under Lieutenant-General Wurmb, now at Thouroute, and the Corps which lately occupied the Camp at Menin. The rest of His Royal Highness's Forces will co-operate in different Ways towards this Attack; and should it be successful, there is Reason to hope that upon this Frontier every Thing may be re-established upon its former Footing.

Whitehall, November 2.

A Dispatch was last Night received from Sir James Murray, Adjutant-General to His Majesty's Forces, under the Command of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, of which the following is a Copy.

Cambrin, October 29, 1793.

S I R,

I Had the Honor of informing you, in my last Dispatch, of His Royal Highness's Intention to make every possible Effort for the Protection of Austrian Flanders, which seemed to be in imminent Danger from the Attempts of the Enemy upon the whole Frontier of that Province.

Consistent with this Intention His Royal Highness determined to attack the Enemy at Menin, upon the 28th Instant. General Walmoden, to whom the Execution of this Design was to be entrusted, went, upon the 26th, to Courtray, to take the Command of the Corps which had formerly occupied the Camp at Menin. Lieutenant-General Busche took the Command of that which had been posted at Mouscron, but which had fallen back to Warcoing. The Attack was to be made upon different Points by these Corps, in Conjunction with that of Lieutenant-General Wurmb, which lay at that Time in the Neighbourhood of Thouroute.

Upon the Morning of the 27th His Royal Highness marched with the Troops which were encamped before Tournai, to take up the Position he had formerly occupied between Baillieux and Cysoing, and which had been left some Days before. Different Posts, which the Enemy had established upon the Marque, were driven back. A Piquet of Six Officers and 150 Men, which had been posted at the Village of Saingain, retreated across the Plain towards Lezenne; they had nearly reached the last mentioned Village when a Squadron of the 2d Dragoon Guards, led on by Major Craufurd, Aide de Camp to His Royal Highness, advancing with Rapidity, gained their Right Flank, and charged them with so much Vigour and Success that not a single Man escaped; 104 Prisoners were taken, and the rest killed upon the Spot. The Squadron of the 2d Dragoon Guards had only Two Men killed and One Man wounded. The other Squadron of the Queen's Dragoon Guards, Two Squadrons of the Royals, and a Division of Austrian Light Dragoons, came up in the Pursuit.

In the mean Time the Enemy had made Progress in another Part of the Country. They had attacked Nieuport, and passed, though only with a small Body, the Canal of Ypres at Shoreback. In consequence of this Lieutenant-General Wurmb had fallen back upon Ghistel, in order to cover Bruges and Ostend.

This Change of General Wurmb's Position rendered abortive the Plan which had been formed for the Attack of Menin upon the 28th. His Royal Highness therefore, still keeping that important Object in View, sent a Reinforcement of Three Battalions to Lieutenant-General Busche, who had by this Time advanced again with his Corps to Mouscron, and dislodged the Enemy from that Post, of which they had taken Possession; and it was determined that the Attack of Menin should be made on the 29th, by the Corps of General Walmoden and General Busche; the former advancing directly upon the Town of Menin, the latter upon the Right Bank of the Lys, against the Village and Heights of Hallouin.

In order to favour this Enterprize, by drawing the Attention of the Enemy to another Quarter, His Royal Highness sent, upon the Evening of the 28th, Two Battalions of Austrian Infantry, and some some Companies of Light Troops, with Two Twelve-Pounders and Two Howitzers, under the Command of Major-General Werneck, and Two Battalions of British Infantry, (the Flank Battalion and that of the 3d Regiment of Guards) with One Squadron of the 7th and One of the 15th Light Dragoons, with Two Twelve-Pounders and Two Howitzers likewise, to attack Lannoy, which the Enemy had entrenched, and occupied with 1500 Men.

Major-General Abercrombie commanded this Detachment; and he had Orders to expose the Troops as little as possible, but to confine the Attack to a Cannonade, until the Enemy should be driven from their Post. This Plan had the desired Success. After resisting some Time the heavy and well-directed Fire of the British and Austrian Artillery, which was gradually advanced to within a very small Distance of the Town, the French gave Way, retiring in great Disorder, Part of them towards Lille, and Part towards Roubay. They were pursued with great Spirit by Lieutenant-Colonel Churchill, at the Head of the Two Squadrons of Light Dragoons, who killed and wounded near 100 of them, and took 59 Prisoners. Several others were killed and taken by a Party of Austrian Infantry, who entered the Town. There were taken in all about 150 Prisoners, and Five Pieces of Cannon, besides several Tumbrils and Baggage Waggons. The Killed are supposed to have amounted to between Two and Three Hundred.

In Point of Numbers the Loss upon our Side has been very inconsiderable; but unfortunately Captain Sutherland, of the Royal Engineers, an Officer of acknowledged Merit, was killed upon this Occasion. Though not called upon to be present at the Attack, he had been induced by his Zeal to accompany the Detachment. I am sorry to add, that Lieutenant Thornton, of the Artillery, has lost his Arm. The Austrians had Eight or Ten Men killed and wounded.

About the Conclusion of this Affair, Accounts were received from General Walmoden, that the Enemy had evacuated Men in the preceding Night, and that they had the Appearance of intending to give up their Attack upon Ypres.

The March of His Royal Highness from Englesfontaine, and the subsequent Movements of the Troops under his Command, seem to have induced the Enemy to abandon the Enterprizes in which they had engaged upon this Side of Austrian Flanders, and in which they had been, to a certain Degree, successful.

By Accounts from Nieuport of the 28th, the French had summoned that Town, and upon Lieutenant-Colonel de Wurmb's Refusal to surrender, they had erected Batteries against it. There seemed, however, to be reasonable Grounds to expect that the Place would hold out understand that the Attack made there upon the 24th was a very severe one; the 53d Regiment having had Lieutenant Latham and Ten Men killed, and Captain Ferguson and Eighteen wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THE following Dispatches from General Sir Charles Grey, K. B. and Rear-Admiral Macbride were Yesterday Evening received at the Office of the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Ostend, October 29, 1793, Three o'Clock, P. M.

S I R,

I HAD the Honor of writing to you Yesterday Morning from Deal, to inform you of my Arrival there, and of my Intention immediately to embark for this Place. We got under Way between Ten and Eleven o'Clock, and about Half past Seven in the Evening came to an Anchor in Nieuport Roads. In consequence of the Accounts I received there from Captain Murray of the State of that Place, and the Force brought against it by the French, I judged it necessary immediately to dispatch Major-General Dundas to Ostend, with Orders to take under his Command the 42d Regiment and Four Companies of Light Infantry, and to march, with all possible Expedition, to the Support of the Garrison; at the same Time sending Colonel Symes to Nieuport, to give the Commander Notice of my Arrival, and of the intended Reinforcement.

The Enemy kept up a constant Fire during the greatest Part of the Night, which was answered by by the Garrison, and distinctly seen from the Quebec. At about Two this Morning, it became more violent, and continued with great Briskness on both Sides. When we passed Nieuport, about Ten, we saw Major-General Dundas on his March, within Two Miles of the Place, and I have this Instant received a Letter from him, announcing his Arrival. He says, he finds every Thing as well as he could expect; that the Enemy threatened much, kept up a constant Fire, and had last Night carried one of the Towers, within 1700 Yards of the Place. He has made a Requisition of several Articles necessary to the Defence of the Place, which I have ordered to be forwarded to him immediately. With the Force now on Foot, assisted by the Inundation, I hope it may be preserved, and the further Progress of the French on this Side checked. Notwithstanding the constant Fire kept up by the Enemy, I am happy to inform you that the Loss of the Garrison has hitherto been inconsiderable, but I have yet received no regular Returns.

The Service has derived the greatest Benefit from the Zeal and Activity of Rear-Admiral Macbride, Captain Murray, and the Naval Officers under his Command.

A Supply of Ammunition, of which the Garrison was much in Want, was this Morning sent from the Fleet, and about 100 Seamen, under Captain Rogers, have been landed, to assist in working at the Batteries. Every Commendation is due to the gallant Defence made by Colonel Wurmb and the Garrison under his Command.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. G R E Y.

Wednesday Morning, Seven o'Clock.

THE Departure of the Cutter, which will carry this Dispatch, having been delayed, I have an Opportunity of adding, that I have received Accounts from Major General Dundas, dated Ten o'Clock last Night. The Fire from the Enemy had been violent during the the whole Day, but had ceased for near Three Hours. The Garrison still maintained all their Posts, and the Troops remained all Night under Arms on the Ramparts.

I am just setting off for Nieuport, in order to judge myself, on the Spot, of the farther Measures which it may be necessary to take for it's Defence.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas.

S I R,

MY last Dispatch announced to you the Situation of the Garrison of Nieuport, as far as I was informed of it, to the Time of my Departure for that Place this Morning. On my Road thither I was met by several Persons, with the agreeable Intelligence, that the French were retiring, which was confirmed on my Arrival. They began their Retreat in the Night, and a Part only of the Rear Guard was visible at Day-break this Morning. They returned along the Road to Dunkirk, setting Fire to every Thing in their Way.

I went with Major-General Dundas to visit the Posts which they occupied, and, from the Extent of their Encampment, I should imagine that their Numbers could not have been less than was represented to us, about 8,000. What Loss they may have sustained during the Siege I have no Means of estimating: Our's, as I have already had the Pleasure of informing you, was very inconsiderable. I now inclose you a regular Return of that of the 42d and 53d Regiments; that of the Hessians I have not been able to learn accurately, but it is not greater in Proportion. The French have left behind them Four Twenty-four Pounders and Two Mortars, as well as a great Number of Shot, Shells, and Intrenching Tools. The Whole were secured, and a great Part brought into the Town before I left it. I have already spoken in Commendation of the gallant Behaviour of Colonel de Wurmb and the Garrison under his Command; I cannot, however, help adding, upon a more exact Knowledge of their Situation, when first attacked, that the Safety of Nieuport is owing to their Courage and Perseverance in it's Defence, with Means very disproportionate to the Force brought against them. The Artillery, under Captain Bothwick, with the 53d Regiment, whose Loss has been the greatest, have been very much distinguished; and I think it only an Act of Justice to mention, in Terms of the highest Approbation, Major Mathews, whose long Services and particular Exertions on this Occasion will, I hope, recommend him to His Majesty's Notice. I feel also that much is due to the Zeal and Intelligence with which Major-General Dundas undertook and executed the Service entrusted to him after his Arrival at Nieuport, as well as to Colonel Symes and Captain Rogers, and the Officers, Marines and Seamen from the Fleet.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. G R E Y.

P. S. The Hessian Return of their Loss I have received since I wrote this Dispatch, which I inclose.

Appelius, Aide de Camp.

Quebec, Oct. 31, off Nieuport.

S I R,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that I sailed from the Downs on Monday, at Eleven, P. M. and the following Evening anchored off Nieuport between Seven and Eight. The Enemy were firing upon the Town from their Guns and Mortars. I found Captain Murray with the Squadron I had detached to their Assistance; from him I learnt that the Garrison stood in great Need of Artillery, Powder and Ammunition, and were very weak in Point of Artillery Men; 60 Seamen were sent from the Ships, under the Command of Mr. Thomas Gibbs, Acting Lieutenant of the Triton, whose Conduct has been highly meritorious; a Party of 40 Seamen and Marines from the Quebec, with a large Supply of Powder and Ammunition, was sent on Shore in the Morning under the Direction of Captain Rogers, who requested to command the Naval Detachment; to his active Zeal and Ability the Service is much indebted. Lieutenant Clements, who at present commands the Albion armed Ship, was kept in Readiness to force their Way into the Harbour, which was in Possession of the Enemy, when that Measure was deemed necessary. The Detachment from Ostend were seen marching along the Strand in the Morning, and soon entered Nieuport. The Enemy, however, rendered our Intentions useless, for they abandoned their Enterprize in the Night. I refer to Sir Charles Grey's Letter for the Detail of the Military Operations, respecting the Security of this important Post. Mr. Gibbs is the Bearer of this Dispatch, to whom I refer you for Particulars.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN MACBRIDE.

P. S. I have the Pleasure to add, the Austrians have driven the French out of Furnes this Morning.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of October, 1793.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service; should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant October: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October to the Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

IF John Fage, Brother to George Fage, late of Waresley in the County of Huntingdon, Yeoman, deceased, and also Brother to Thomas Fage and Henry Fage, will apply to Mr. Joseph Hinson, Attorney, at Potton in the County of Bedford, or to Mess. Ailens, Solicitors, in Furnival's Inn, London, he will hear of something very considerably to his Advantage. The said John Fage was, in the Year 1765, a Soldier in His Majesty's 51st Regiment of Foot, and in the same Year was discharged on Account of his ill State of Health, and soon afterwards embarked from Londonderry in Ireland, and arrived at Philadelphia in America. In case of the Death of the said John Fage, any Person producing a Certificate of his Burial either to the said Joseph Hinson or Mess. Ailens, will be handsomely rewarded.

London, October 25, 1793.

ALL Persons having Debts or Demands against the Estate of Charles Boyd, late of the Island of Jamaica, and late a Major in His Majesty's 20th Regiment of Foot, but now deceased, are hereby required to send their Claims against the said Estate to the Office of the Underigned, at No. 4, Nicholas-

Lane, Lombard-Street, before the 1st Day of December now next ensuing: And Notice is hereby given, that all Claims against the said Estate, which shall not be sent to the said Office before the above mentioned Day, will be considered by the acting Executor of the Will of the said Deceased, as having been discharged, or as having never existed, and he will accordingly dispose of the Residue of the said Estate.

For the said Executor,

DUNBAR and DUFF.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Barker against Barker, the Creditors of John Barker, late of Dawlish in the County of Devon, Esq; are, on or before the 30th Day of December next, to come in and prove their Debts before John Eames, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
