Whitehall, November 5.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, was last Night received from Sir James Murray, Adjutant-General to the Forces under the Command of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, dated Camphin, November 1, 1793.

Some of the light Troops made Yesterday an Attack upon the French Posts at Ors and Catillon sur Sambre, in which, with very little Loss, they killed near 400 of the Enemy, took about 100 Prisoners, and Two Pieces of Cannon.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of October, 1793.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant October: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October to the Thirty-first Day of December next, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Dublin Castle, October 30, 1793.

Letters Patent have been passed, under the Great Seal of Ireland, granting the Dignity of a Baron of this Kingdom unto the Right Honorable John O'Neill, and the Heirs Male of his Body, lawfully begotten, by the Name, Style and Title of Baron O'Neill, of Shane's Castle, in the County of Antrim.

Petersburgh, October 11.

On Wednesday last was celebrated the Nuptials of His Imperial Highness the Great Duke Alexander Paulovich and Her Imperial Highness the Great Duchess Elizabeth Alexievna. At Ten o'Clock the Four First Classes of the Nobility and the Foreign Ministers assembled at the Palace, on the Signal of Five Guns from the Fortress, and soon after Eleven the Empress, with the Great Duke Alexander Paulovich and the Great Duchess Elizabeth Alexievna, proceeded to the Chapel, when the Marriage Ceremony

mony was performed by Her Imperial Majesty's Confessor. The Great Duke Conitantine held the Crown over the Head of the Great Duke his Brother, and Count Besborodko over that of the Great Dukes. On Account of the Length and Fatigue of the preceding Ceremony, the Empress did not receive the Compliments of Congratulation of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers, as was intended. Her Imperial Majesty dined on the Throne with the Imperial Family. Tables were spread in the same Saloon for the Four First Classes, and decorated in a very beautiful Manner with Orange Trees, contrived to pass from underneath the Tables. In the Evening there was a Ball at Court, and the Festivities of the Day were concluded by very magnificent Illuminations.

Yesterday Morning the Nobility and Foreign Ministers had the Honor of complimenting Their Imperial Highnesses in their Apartments, and in the Evening there was a Ball at Court and Supper for the Four First Classes and the Foreign Ministers.

ALL Persons having Debts or Demands against the Estate of Charles Boyd, late of the Island of Jamaica, and late a Major in His Majesty's 20th Regiment of Foot, but now deceased, are hereby required to send their Claims against the said Estate to the Office of the Undersigned, at No. 4, Nicholas-Lane, Lombard-Street, before the 1st Day of December now next ensuing: And Notice is hereby given, that all Claims against the said Estate, which shall not be sent to the said Office before the above mentioned Day, will be considered by the acting Executor of the Will of the said Deceased, as having been discharged, or as having never existed, and he will accordingly dispose of the Residue of the said Estate.

For the said Executor,
DUNBAR and DUFF.

ALL Persons who have any Claims or Demands on the Estate of the Reverend Seymour Love, deceased, late Fellow of All Souls College, Oxon, and Vicar of New Romney in Kent, are desired forthwith to send an Account thereof to Mr. Davis, No. 12, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn.

THE Trustees of the separate Estate of Mr. Harben, of Lewes, desire to inform his separate Creditors, that they shall be prepared to make a Dividend of 6s. 8d. in the Pound in the Course of the present Month; but as it will be necessary, before a Dividend can be made; to ascertain satisfactorily the clear Amount of the legal Demands of such separate Creditors, the Trustees earnestly request that every separate Creditor, who has not already sent a full Statement of his Claims to Mr. Langridge, Attorney at Law, in Lewes, will forthwith remit the same to the said Mr. Langridge.

THE Creditors of Howell Williams, late of Tumlook, in the Province of Bengal in the East Indies, who died on Board the Manchip East Indiaman on his Passage to England in March, 1792, are desired to send an Account of their Demands, together with the Nature of their respective Securities, immediately to Mrs. Margaret Williams, of Penisharwayn, in the County of Brecon, Widow, Mother and Administratrix of the Deceased, or to Mr. Walter Jones, Attorney, Brecon, that the same may be liquidated and paid, in order that an equal Distribution may be made of the Remainder of the Personal Estate of the said Deceased among his next of Kin according to Law; and all Persons in the East Indies indebted to the said Deceased are desired to pay their respective Debts to Mr. Edward Jones, at Fort St. Thome near Madras; and all Persons in Great Britain indebted to the said Deceased are desired to pay their respective Debts to the Administratrix, or to the said Mr. Walter Jones, at Brecon aforesaid, otherwise they will be sued. N. B. It has been surmised that the said Deceased sometime about the latter End of the Year 1791, or the Beginning of 1792, made a Will, and left the same in the Hands of some Friend at Tumlook or Calcutta; whoever has such Will, legally executed and attested, are requested to forward the same immediately to the said Mr. Edward Jones, at Fort St. Thome aforesaid.

WHEREAS William Snowden, of Manchester in the County of Lancaster, Grocer, did, on the 13th Day of June last, convey and assign to Trustees his separate Real and Personal Estate for the general Benefit of his separate Creditors: And whereas he hath been arrested and sent to the Castle of Lancaster by Persons who are as well Creditors upon his separate Estate, as upon the Partnership Estate of Howard and Snowden; and such Persons have agreed to liberate and discharge him and his separate Estate from their Demands for 200 l. and Costs, out of the separate Estate; therefore the separate Creditors are requested to meet the said Trustees upon Thursday the 7th Day of November instant, at Twelve o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Owen Griffiths, the Star Inn, in Manchester, to assent to or dissent from such Trustees paying the said 200 l. and Costs incurred in such Action out of the said separate Estate, and for defending any Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity instituted or to be instituted under the same Trust Deed, and for compounding, submitting to Arbitration, or agreeing any Matter or Thing relating thereto.

Notice is hereby given, that a Meeting of the Creditors of Thomas Walker and Ann Singleton, of Abchurch-Lane in the City of London, Drug-Merchants and Copartners, (Bankrupts) will be held at the Jamaica Coffee-House, Cornhill, on Friday next, at One o'Clock precisely, to take into Consideration and determine on the Proposals for an amicable Settlement with the Assignees of Mr. Samuel Garbutt.

Whereas John Clofe, of Paradise-Row, Chelsea, Upholterer, having assigned over his Effects to Trustees, for the Benefit of his Creditors, a Dividend will be made among such of the Creditors of the said John Clofe, who shall execute the Trust Deed on or before the 10th Day of December next. Creditors neglecting will be excluded the Benefit thereof. The Deed lies with Messrs. Herne and Pearce, Paternoster-Row, to whom all Persons indebted to the said John Clofe are requested forthwith to pay their respective Debts, otherwise they will be sued.
