Grantbam, December 3, 1793.

WHereas, in pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing Date the 1st Day of July, 1766, made in a Cause Wride and others against Clark, Advertisements were inserted in the London Gazette for the Creditors of John Clark, late of Hedon in Holderness in the County of York, Doctor in Divinity, deceased, to come before Mr. Edwards, one of the then Masters of the said Court, and prove their Debts: And whereas, in consequence of the said Advertisements, several Persons did bring in before the said Master their Charges upon the said Doctor Clark's Estate, many of which were allowed, but no Report was ever made in the said Cause; and from the great Length of Time that has elapsed since the said Charges were so brought into the Master's Office, many of them were either lost or mislaid; and as the Cause, after divers Abatements, is now revived, and intended to be prosecuted without Delay, it is thought expedient to give this public Notice to the Creditors of the said Doctor Clark, whose Names are hereunder mentioned, or such other Creditors as may not have brought in any Charges of their Debts, to apply forthwith, by themselves or their Solicitors, to the Office of William Weller Pepys, Esq; the Master to whom the said Cause has been transferred, in Symond's-Inn, Chancery-Lane; Mr. Loundes or Mess^r. Philpot and Geldard, of Re.-Lion Square, London; Mr. Ramiey, of Beverley, or Mr. Iveson, of Hedon, the present Solicitors in the Cause, in order that their Debts may be proved and allowed, and included in the Report which is now preparing, or they will be excluded from all Benefit of the said Decree.

The following Creditors appear to have proved their Debts.

John Courtney, of Beverley.
John Moser, of Hull.
Thomas Mussendine.
Ann Wride.
Walter Wride.
Thomas Tresslove.
Joseph Williams, of Hedon, Gentleman.

The following Creditors have brought in Charges, but it does not appear that the same have been allowed.
