AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th of December, 1793,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Articles of Capitulation, proposed by the Inhabitants of La Grande Anse, including the Quarter at Jeremie, in the Island of St. Domingo in the West Indies, and accepted by Major-General Williamson, His Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor of the Island of Jamaica; and also by Articles of Capitulation, proposed by the Garrison and Inhabitants of Cape Nicola Mole and its Dependencies, in the said Island of St. Domingo, and accepted by Commodore Ford, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo have been surrendered to His Majesty, and are now in His Majesty's Possession, and the Inhabitants thereof are become Subjects of His Majesty: And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all traitorous Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to His Majesty's Enemies," all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under the Penalties of High Treason, during the Continuance of the present War between Great Britain and France, from supplying, to or for the Use of any Person or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town,

Territory, Port or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons then exercising; or who might thereafter, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government in France, divers Articles specified in the said Act, without Licence from His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or by Proclamation, first had and obtained, specifying the Articles with respect to which the same shall be had and obtained; and also the Place and Places from which and to which the same shall be sent: His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration; is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful to and for all Persons residing or being in Great Britain to sell, supply and deliver from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, in or out of Europe, or in any Country in Amity with His Majesty, to such Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo as are or shall be in His Majesty's Possession, any of the Articles specified and enumerated in the before mentioned Act, subject nevertheless to such Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Trade in the said several Articles to any of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations is or shall be liable to by Law: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the Exportation from Great Britain, or from any other of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe,

[Price Eight-pence.]

Europe, of any of the Articles aforesaid, which are or shall be prohibited to be exported otherwise than by the said Act.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and from such Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo as are or shall be in His Majesty's Possession, subject nevertheless to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations and Islands in the West Indies is or shall be subject by Law: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Importation in American Bottoms of Provisions, Cattle, Grain and Wood of every Kind from the United States of America into such Parts of the said Island as aforesaid, so long as the same shall be allowed, in pursuance of and under the Terms and Conditions of the said Articles of Capitulation, or any other Privileges or Exemptions granted by the said Articles of Capitulation.

And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That all Commodities, being of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of such Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo as shall, at the Time of the Entry of such Commodities for Exportation from the said Island, be in the Possession of His Majesty, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to, coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations or Islands in the West Indies.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th of December, 1793,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February last, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this Instant December: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this Instant December to the Twenty-eighth Day of February 1794, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th of November, 1793,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 14th of June last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwife, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of December next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should continue for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of December next, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwife, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwife, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwife of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS James Bye, of Newmarket in the County of Suffolk, Taylor, did some Time since assign over all his personal Estate and Effects to James Baddison and Edward Harling, Two of his Creditors, for the Benefit of themselves and all his other Creditors as should execute the said Deed, in equal Proportion, according to the Quantum of their respective Debts, in full Satisfaction of the same; such of the Creditors, therefore, of the said James Bye, as intend to execute the said Deed, are requested to give Notice to Mr. Cooper, Attorney, in the Petty Curry, Cambridge, and send an Account of their respective Debts, on or before the 5th Day of January, 1794; those who do not will be excluded the Benefit of the Dividend arising from the said Deed of Assignment.

WHEREAS James Lewis Des Granges, late of Sharp's-Alley, near West Smithfield, London, Soap-Boiler, and of Streatham in the Parish of Mitcham, Surry, Farmer, did some Time since assign his Estate and Effects to Trustees, for the equal Benefit of his Creditors who should execute such Assignment, and make Proof of their respective Debts if required by the Trustees; this is therefore to give Notice, that a Final Dividend of such Estate and Effects will be made by Mr. Shelton, at his Office, Sessions-House, Old-Bailey, on Tuesday the 7th Day of January, 1794; and all Persons who shall not come in and execute such Assignment, which is at the said Mr. Shelton's, before that Day, will be entirely excluded the Benefit thereof.

WHEREAS Dorothy Smith, late of Mile-End Old Town, in the County of Middlesex and Kingdom of England, Spinster, deceased, by her last Will and Testament bearing Date the 25th Day of January 1790, bequeathed to Martin Smith, Nephew of her late Father, 2000l. 3 per Cent. Bank Annuities of the Year 1726, besides the Legacy left him by her late Father, for his Life, and then to go to the Heirs of his Body, Share and Share equally alike; and she desired her Executors to advertise for him or his Heirs Five Times in the New York Gazette: And in case the said Martin Smith was not heard of in Two Years after the said Testatrix's Decease, she then disposed of the said Sum as follows: The 200l. lawful Money left him by her late Father, she willed and desired her Executors to pay to the Guardians of the Asylum for Orphan Girls, at the Expiration of the before mentioned Term, if he or they are not heard of. She also desired her Executors to pay, out of the 2000l. 3 per Cents. bequeathed to the said Martin Smith and his Heirs, in case of their not being heard of in the Time appointed, the Sum of 500l. 3 per Cents. to the Governors of the Lying-in Hospital for Married Women; also 500l. 3 per Cents. to the Charity for the Relief of Poor Blind Persons; also 500l. 3 per Cents. to the Governors of St. Luke's Hospital; and 500l. 3 per Cents. to the Governors of the London Hospital; which Sums to be duly paid by her Executors within Two Months after the Two Years before-mentioned, if he the said Martin Smith, or his Heirs, be not heard of in that Time; but should there be any Heir or Heirs of the Body of the said

Martin

Martin Smith, then these Legacies to be void. And whereas the said Dorothy Smith departed this Life on the 13th Day of May 1792: Now the said Martin Smith, or the Heirs of his Body if there are any, are directed to apply to William Bridges, of the Bank of England, Gentleman, or to Gale Middleton, of Leadenhall-Street, London, in the Kingdom of England, Warehouseman, and to claim the said Legacy within Two Years from the 13th Day of May 1792, otherwise the same will, at the Expiration of the said Two Years, be disposed of, pursuant to the Directions of the Will of the said Dorothy Smith, in Exclusion of the said Martin Smith and the Heirs of his Body. The said Martin Smith was the Son of Richard and Susannah Smith, and born in the Parish of St. Thomas Southwark in the Year 1749. He was put Apprentice to Thomas Bennett, of Redcross-Street in the Park, Southwark, Cooper; in the Year 1766 or 1767 he went to America, and afterwards lived at Robert Alexander's Plantation in Augusta County, Virginia: The last Advices his Friends in England received from him was, that he then lived with Mr. David Lard, Merchant and Store-keeper, near Stent-Town in Augusta County aforesaid. About Eleven or Twelve Years ago his Friends were informed, by a young Man, that he had seen him at Long Island, and that he told him he resided at New York, near Canvass Town, and carried on the Trade of a Cooper there. His Mother is now living in London.

Whoever will give Information to the said Mr. Bridges or Mr. Middleton, the Executors of the said Dorothy Smith, if the said Martin Smith, or any Heir of his Body, is living, and at what Place, or that he and his Issue are dead, and can bring sufficient Proof thereof, shall be handsomely rewarded for their Trouble.
