AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th of December, 1793,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Articles of Capitulation, proposed by the Inhabitants of La Grande Anse, including the Quarter at Jeremie, in the Island of St. Domingo in the West Indies; and accepted by Major-General Williamson, His Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor of the Island of Jamaica; and also by Articles of Capitulation, proposed by the Garrison and Inhabitants of Cape Nicola Mole and it's Dependencies, in the said Island of St. Domingo, and accepted by Commodore Ford, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo have been surrendered to His Majesty, and are now in His Majesty's Possession, and the Inhabitants thereof are become Subjects of His Majesty: And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all traitorous Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to His Majesty's Enemies," all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under the Penalties of High Treason, during the Continuance of the present War between Great Britain and France, from supplying, to or for the Use of any Person or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons then exercising, or who might thereafter, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government in France, divers Articles specified in the said Act, without Licence from His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or by Proclamation, first had and obtained, specifying the Articles with respect to which the same shall be had and obtained; and also the Place and Places from which and to which the same shall be sent: His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful to and for all Persons residing or being in Great Britain to sell, supply and deliver from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, in or out of Europe, or in any Country in Amity with His Majesty, to such Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo as are or shall be in His Majesty's Possession, any of the Articles specified and enumerated in the before mentioned Act, subject nevertheless to such Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Trade in the said several Articles to any of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations is or shall be liable to by Law: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the Exportation from Great Britain, or from any other of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe, of any of the Articles aforesaid, which are or shall be prohibited to be exported otherwise than by the said Act.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and

and from such Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo as are or shall be in His Majesty's Possession, subject nevertheless to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations and Islands in the West Indies is or shall be subject by Law: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the Importation in American Bottoms of Provisions, Cattle, Grain and Wood of every Kind from the United States of America into such Parts of the said Island as aforesaid, so long as the same shall be allowed, in pursuance of and under the Terms and Conditions of the said Articles of Capitulation, or any other Privileges or Exemptions granted by the said Articles of Capitulation.

And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That all Commodities, being of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of such Parts of the said Island of St. Domingo as shall, at the Time of the Entry of such Commodities for Exportation from the said Island, be in the Possession of His Majesty, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to, coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations or Islands in the West Indies.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Whereas the Partnership between Albert Aubrey Baylis and James Lewis, of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, Mercers and Linen-Drapers, has this Day, by mutual Consent, been dissolved. All Persons who have any Demands on the said Partnership are desired to send their Accounts immediately to the said Albert Aubrey Baylis, that the same may be discharged; and those who are indebted to them on the Partnership Account are requested to pay their respective Debts to the said Albert Aubrey Baylis. Dated this 20th Day of August, 1793.

*Albert A. Baylis.
James Lewis.*

ALL Persons who have any Claims or Demands upon the Estate and Effects of John Durand, late of Carshalton in the County of Surry, Esq; deceased, are desired forthwith to send the Particulars of their respective Demands to Mr. Gregg, Junr Skinners Hall, Dowgate Hill.

ALL Persons that have any Claim or Demand upon the Estate of Mr. John Slaney, late of the King's Head, Ratcliffe, deceased, are desired to send immediately an Account thereof to Mr. Roads, No. 24, Well-Street, Cripplegate, the Solicitor for the Executors.

SAMUEL Bedford, of Droitwich in the County of Worcester, Innholder, having, in and by a certain Indenture of Assignment bearing Date the 23d of November, 1793, assigned over his Estate and Effects to George Bedford, of Droitwich aforesaid, Farmer, and William Warner, of the same Place, Innholder, in Trust for the Benefit of such Creditors only of the said Samuel Bedford who shall execute such Assignment within Two Months from the Day of the Date thereof; Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Assignment is left at the Office of Messrs. Penrice and Norbury, in Droitwich aforesaid, to receive the Signatures of such of the said Creditors who wish to take the Benefit thereof: And all Persons indebted to the said Samuel Bedford are hereby required to pay their respective Debts immediately to the said Assignees, or to the said Messrs. Penrice and Norbury, who are properly authorized to receive the same.

Whereas Dorothy Smith, late of Mile-End Old Town, in the County of Middlesex and Kingdom of England, Spinster, deceased, by her last Will and Testament bearing Date the 25th Day of January 1790, bequeathed to Martin Smith, Nephew of her late Father, 2000 l. 3 per Cent. Bank Annuities of the Year 1726, besides the Legacy left him by her late Father, for his Life, and then to go to the Heirs of his Body, Share and Share equally alike; and she desired her Executors to advertise for him or his Heirs Five Times in the New York Gazette: And in case the said Martin Smith was not heard of in Two Years after the said Testatrix's Decease, she then disposed of the said Sum as follows: The 2000 l. lawful Money left him by her late Father, she willed and desired her Executors to pay to the Guardians of the Asylum for Orphan Girls, at the Expiration of the before mentioned Term, if he or they are not heard of. She also desired her Executors to pay, out of the 2000 l. 3 per Cents. bequeathed to the said Martin Smith and his Heirs, in case of their not being heard of in the Time appointed, the Sum of 500 l. 3 per Cents. to the Governors of the Lying-in Hospital for Married Women; also 500 l. 3 per Cents. to the Charity for the Relief of Poor Blind Persons; also 500 l. 3 per Cents. to the Governors of St. Luke's Hospital; and 500 l. 3 per Cents. to the Governors of the London Hospital; which Sums to be duly paid by her Executors within Two Months after the Two Years before-mentioned, if he the said Martin Smith, or his Heirs, be not heard of in that Time; but should there be any Heir or Heirs of the Body of the said Martin Smith, then these Legacies to be void. And whereas the said Dorothy Smith departed this Life on the 13th Day of May 1792: Now the said Martin Smith, or the Heirs of his Body if there are any, are directed to apply to William Bridges, of the Bank of England, Gentleman, or to Gale Middleton, of Leadenhall-Street, London, in the Kingdom of England, Warehouseman, and to claim the said Legacy within Two Years from the 13th Day of May 1792, otherwise the same will, at the Expiration of the said Two Years, be disposed of, pursuant to the Directions of the Will of the said Dorothy Smith, in Exclusion of the said Martin Smith and the Heirs of his Body. The said Martin Smith was the Son of Richard and Susannah Smith, and born in the Parish of St. Thomas Southwark in the Year 1749. He was put Apprentice to Thomas Bennett, of Redcross-Street in the Park, Southwark, Cooper; in the Year 1766 or 1767 he went to America, and afterwards lived at Robert Alexander's Plantation in Augusta County, Virginia: The last Advice his Friends in England received from him was, that he then lived with Mr. David Lard, Merchant and Store-keeper, near Stent Town in Augusta County aforesaid. About Eleven or Twelve Years ago his Friends were informed, by a young Man, that he had seen him at Long Island, and that he told him he resided at New York, near Canva's Town, and carried on the Trade of a Cooper there. His Mother is now living in London.

Whoever will give Information to the said Mr. Bridges or Mr. Middleton, the Executors of the said Dorothy Smith, if the said Martin Smith, or any Heir of his Body, is living, and at what Place, or that he and his Issue are dead, and can bring sufficient Proof thereof, shall be handsomely rewarded for their Trouble.
