

Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods before-mentioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

Whitehall, January 9, 1794.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Monday the 23d Day of December last, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, Mr. Benjamin Hart, Master of the Ship Tavern on the Parade in the Borough of Plymouth, was wilfully and maliciously shot at in his own House, by some Person or Persons unknown, who discharged a Gun or Pistol loaded with a Ball, which, passing through his Hat, and grazing his Head, was found lodged in the Wall beyond him.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in wilfully and maliciously shooting at the said Benjamin Hart, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually shot at the said Benjamin Hart) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person (except as before excepted) who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

HENRY DUNDAS.

East India House, January 8, 1794.

Whereas sundry Lots of Bengal and China Raw Silk, and some Lots of Bengal Piece Goods, also various Articles in private Trade, have lain in Seven Years and upwards in the East India Company's Warehouses since the Commencement of the several Sales at which they were respectively sold; and whereas by the 10th Article of the Company's Preamble of Sale, all Goods falling under such Description are liable to be sold upon giving One Month's Notice of the same in the London Gazette; The Court of Directors of the said Company do hereby give Notice, that if the said Goods are not, on or before the 12th of February next, cleared and taken out of the said Company's Warehouses, the same will be resold at the Company's Candle, on Friday the 28th of February next.

The Court do likewise give Notice, that the said Goods may be inspected by any Person requiring the same, by applying at the Company's Warehouses in New-Street, Bishopsgate-Street, and the private Trade Warehouses in Billiter-Lane, any working Day previous to the said 12th of February: And the Court of Directors of the said Company also further give Notice, that the Buyers of all such Goods as shall be resold on the 28th of February, are to make a Deposit of 10l. per Cent. upon the computed Value of each Lot, within Three Days after the Purchase of the same; and if not cleared and taken out of the Company's Warehouses within Six Months after, then the Deposit shall be forfeited and the Goods be again resold, and that every Buyer, who shall fail of making such Deposit within the said Time, shall be forbid the Company's Candle.

And whereas there are also lying in the Baggage Warehouse sundry old clearing Stores, Baggage, &c. which have remained there unclaimed between the Years 1781 and 1791, Notice is hereby given, that unless the respective Proprietors claim and take away the same, on or before the said 12th of February, they will be sold on Thursday the 13th.

N. B. Catalogues will be ready for Delivery on the 1st of February at the said Warehouses.

London, January 11, 1794.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, Sir Richard John Strachan, Bart. Commander, that they will be paid their Shares of the Hull and Cargo of La Pauline French East India Ship, on Board the Phoenix, at Spithead, on the 20th Instant; and the Shares not then demanded will be recalled at No. 16, Essex-Street, or No. 20, Arundel-Street, London, on the First Thursday in every Month for Three Years to come.
