Dublin-Castle, January 21, 1794.

This Day His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, a Message was sent from His Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Excellency was pleased to make the following Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Have His Majesty's Commands to meet you in Parliament. You must have felt, with the highest Satisfaction, that, by the Success of His Majesty's Arms and those of His Allies, the Hopes of France, in their unprovoked Declaration of War, to impair the Stability or shake the Constitution of Great Britain and Ireland, have been utterly disappointed.

The Forces of His Majesty and His Allies are in Possession of many important Fortresses, which belonged to the French, and many of their oppressive and unjust Conquests have been wrested from them; and, whilst the Trade of the Empire has been generally protected, the Resources which our Enemies derived from their wealthy Settlements and extensive Commerce have been almost entirely cut off.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that the Spirit of Insurrection, which was for some Time prevalent among the lower Orders of People, is in general suppressed. No Exertion shall be wanting, on my Part, to bring them to a due Sense of Order and Subordination, and to prevent and punish the Machinations of those who may aim to seduce them from their accustomed Loyalty into Acts of Sedition and Outrage.

The Law for rendering a Militia in this Kingdom effectual has been carried successfully into Execution. I am happy to find that the People are at length fully reconciled to this Institution, which has already been attended by the most beneficial Consequences, in producing internal Tranquillity, and contributing to the general Strength and Force of the Empire.

I am commanded to acquaint you, that His Majesty has appointed a Commission under the Great Seal, to execute the Office of Lord High Treasurer of this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil List granted to His Majesty, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to distinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain, as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the National Accounts to be laid before you, as well as Estimates for the Service of the ensuing Year. It is painful to me to observe, that the Exigencies of the Times will require a large Supply and additional Resources; but when you consider that this is a War of absolute Necessity, and that you are contending for your Liberty, Property, and Religion, I doubt not that you will cheerfully contribute to support the Honor of His Majesty's Crown, and the essential Interests of the Kingdom.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, the Protestant Charter Schools, and various other Institutions of Public Utility, have so constantly received the Benefit of your Care and Liberality, that I need not particularly, at this Time, inculcate their Importance.

His Majesty has the fullest Reliance upon the Loyalty and Attachment of His People of Ireland. You are now, by the unjust Aggression of France, involved in a Contest for your Religion, for your Constitution, and for the Preservation of every Principle which upholds social Order, or gives Security to your Persons or Properties. In such a Cause, His Majesty has no Doubt of being cordially supported, by the Efforts of all His Subjects, in resisting the desperate Designs of Men, who are endeavouring to erect their own Power and Dominion on the Ruins of Law and Order, and to involve every Government of Europe in a general Scene of Confusion and Anarchy.

His Majesty's Object is Peace; and He will exert Himself, in Conjunction with His Allies, whenever an Occasion shall present itself, for obtaining this desirable End, without surrendering the Honor of His Crown, or sacrificing the present or future Security of His People and of the Rest of Europe.

You may depend upon my faithful Representations of your Services to His Majesty; and I will zealously co-operate with your Exertions for the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland.

Madrid, January 1.

Intelligence has been received from Barcelona, That on the 20th Ultimo the Spanish Troops, which were at Banuls de Mar, attacked the Town of Port Vendre, and the Entrenchments on the Heights behind the Place, and carried them, after an obstinate and bloody Action, taking Six Pieces of Cannon: That General Cuesta afterwards directed a sudden Attack upon Fort St. Elmo, where the French had retired from Port Vendre, and, notwithstanding the incessant Fire kept up by the Garrison, Two Battalions of Walloons and some other Corps gained the almost inaccessible Heights by which the Place is commanded, and obliged the Garrison to surrender Prisoners of War: That the Guns of the Fort of St. Elmo were immediately turned upon the Town of Colliure, which was given up at Discretion the next Morning: That, on the 21st, the Marquis de las Amarillas, at the Head of Three Columns, attacked the Flank of the Batteries and Entrenchments in the Front of the Spanish Van Guard at Bolo, carried Three Batteries, and obliged the French to retreat to Banuls de Aspres: That a false Attack was, at the same Time, made on the Right of the Enemy's Camp by a Column from Ceret, commanded by the Portuguese General Forbes, and another, on the Left by General Hurrigaray, who fell in with a Column of 2000 Men, on their March from Perpignan to the Camp at Banuls de Aspres, which they charged, killed 500 Men on the Spot and in the Pursuit, took 200 Prisoners, and Two Baggage Waggons, with very inconsiderable Loss. It is computed that, in these several Actions, the Spaniards have taken 70 Pieces of heavy Artillery, a great Quantity of Cloathing and Ammunition, and Six Months Provisions for 10,000 Men.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
John Wiglesworth,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniencies have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as is now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.
