

Navy-Office, January 24, 1794.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that they are ready to contract with any Persons who may be capable of manufacturing Cordage for His Majesty's Service, to be delivered, free of Expence, at either of the Dock Yards, viz. Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham; Sheerness, Portsmouth and Plymouth.

The said Cordage to be made as usual, under the Inspection of an Overseer, to have the King's Mark, and to be in every Respect the same as has been heretofore required for the King's Service.

Further Particulars, and the Conditions of the Contract at large, may be seen in the Lobby here, or may be known by enquiring of the Regulating Captains at the several Ports where such Officers are stationed.

To be paid for in Navy Bills, with the Discount added.

Navy-Office, January 22, 1794.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the 11th of next Month, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to supply Petersburg and Riga Hemp for the Use of His Majesty's Navy; to be delivered at Woolwich, Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth Yards.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock, nor any noticed unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.
