SEVERAL Persons, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, on Behalf of themselves and others, being legal Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Town and Port of Seaford in the County of Sussex, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, that, upon the 19th Day of March 1792, the Select Committee, who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of Sir Godfrey Webster, Baronet, and John Tarleton, Esquire, against the Return of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Town and Port of Seaford, reported to the House that they determined, "That the Right of Election is in the Inhabitants, Housekeepers of the said Town and Port, paying Scot and Lot, and in such Inhabitants Housekeepers only." That the Petitioners are advised that the Right of Election, so determined by the said Select Committee mittee, is not the Right of Election for the said Town and Port; therefore, and to prevent the said Judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, pray that they may be admitted as Parties, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case lately made and provided, to oppose the said Right of Election in Favour of which the said Select Committee have reported as aforesaid, and that they may have such other Relief in the Premises as to the House shall seem meet, and the Nature of the Case may require. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Monday the Tenth Day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the Twenty-seventh Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-four.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Lisbon, January 11.

Accounts have been received here from the Headquarters at Bollou, dated December 23, that at Day-Break on the 21st the Allies attacked and carried all the Enemy's Advanced Lines and Batteries; which Success, together with the Capture of Port Vendre, Fort St. Teimo, and Collioure, determined the Enemy, whose Left and Rear Flanks were laid open, to quit, in the Course of that Night, all their Camps and Posts in Front of the Allies, and retire into Perpignan, leaving the Spaniards Masters of the Country to the very Gates of the Town.

Whitehall, January 28, 1794.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several Buildings and Haystacks, in the Parish of Stapanbill in the County of Derby, have lately been set on Fire, and that, previous thereto, anonymous Letters were received by the Owners thereof, signifying that they would be so; and that Sir Nigel Bowyer Gresley, Bart. One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, in the Month of December last, received Two anonymous incendiary Letters, of which the following are Copies, viz.

" Sir,

" We send you these few Lines, to let you no
" that we intend to set your Buildings in Fire, look
" to be shoor as you go to—We meant to have come
" on Thursday Night, but Mr. Rose one of the " Stapanhill Watchers put us by I will shoot him the " first Time I meet him he followed us along the " Road for you are a very great Rogue, i waited for
" you as you com from Langley, but you were too
" soon, so no more at present."

To Sir Nigel Gresley
Drakelsu

" Niger Dam you and to or thre or more shal di a

" the incant as you have done and put a man rong
" in prisen as incant as you damd horing roge"

For Niger Gresley
Drakelou

With Speed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons who were concerned in setting Fire to the above mentioned Buildings and Haystacks, and also in writing and sending the aforesaid inflammatory Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set on Fire the Buildings and Haystacks, and who actually wrote the said Letters) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, Mr. Orme, a Gentleman in the said Parish, whose Haystack was set on Fire, does hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, and Sir Nigel Bowyer Gresley, to whom the above mentioned Letters were addressed, does also hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.
