Whitehall, February 11.

ON Sunday the 9th Instant the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, received Dispatches from the Lieutenant-Governor of Jamaica, dated the 15th of December, 1793, containing Intelligence, that Major Grant, Commandant at Cape Nichola Mole, had accepted the Surrender of the Parishes of St. Marc and Genaives, in St. Domingo, to His Majesty, upon the same Terms and Conditions which have been granted to Cape Nichola Mole and the Quarter of Jeremie; and that the British Flag was, in consequence, flying on all the Forts and Batteries in the above-mentioned Parishes.

Admiralty-Office, February 11, 1794.

ON Sunday the 9th Instant a Letter was received from Commodore Ford, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships at Jamaica, addressed to Mr. Stephens, dated the 7th of December, 1793, of which the following is an Extract; with Copy of the Letter to which it refers.

I Request you will be pleased to inform the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that since my Letter of the 24th of November last, by the Antelope Packet, nothing material has happened to the Squadron under my Command, except the Capture of the Inconstant French Frigate, by the Penelope and Iphigenia, the Particulars whereof are stated in Captain Rowley's Letter to me herein inclosed; and to which I shall add, (in Justice to the commendable Zeal, Activity and Enterprize of those Officers on all Occasions, the high Condition and Discipline of their Ships) that in my Opinion, either of them alone would have accomplished what fell to their united Efforts.

*Penelope, Port Royal Harbour, Jamaica,
November 30, 1793.*

S I R,

I Beg leave to acquaint you, that I sailed from Mole St. Nicholas on the 20th Instant, having received Intelligence that the Inconstant Frigate was expected to leave Port au Prince, to convoy a large Armed Merchantman. On the Day following I fell in with His Majesty's Ship Iphigenia, Captain Sinclair, to whom I gave Orders to keep Company, and was proceeding to Port au Prince, when I was informed from Leoganne that the Inconstant had sailed with Two small Vessels for Petit Trou, but was daily expected back.

I immediately made Sail, with Intention of trying to take or destroy her in the Harbour; but on the Night of the 25th we had the good Fortune to fall in with her, and, after exchanging a few Broadfides, she struck her Colours to the Frigates.

The Penelope had One Man killed and Seven wounded; amongst the latter is Mr. John Allen, Midshipman. The Inconstant had Six killed, amongst whom was the First Lieutenant; and the Captain and Twenty wounded, Three of whom are since dead.

From the gallant Behaviour of Lieutenant Malcolm, the Officers, and Ship's Company, I have every Reason to flatter myself, that had either of His Majesty's Frigates been single, they would have been equally fortunate in capturing her.

I beg Leave to add, that Captain Sinclair's very favorable Report of the Conduct of his Officers and Ship's Company is such as does them the greatest Honor.

I remain, Sir,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
B. S. ROWLEY.
