Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 15, to Tuesday February 18, 1794.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of February, 1794.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and contagious Fever of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, and in certain Towns of the State of New Jersey, in the United States of America, has totally ceased; His Majesty taking the same into Consideration; and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine laid, by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Sixth Day of November, 1793, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandize, arriving or to arrive from any of the Ports of the State of Pennsylvania, or of the State of Delaware, or of the State of New Jersey, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the Sixth Day of November, 1793, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding:— And the Right Honorable the Lords

Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

Whitehall, February 18.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any
