In the Matter of BANKRUPTCY.

LORD CHANCELLOR.

March 8, 1794.

Whereas by the Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled, An Act to prevent the committing of Frauds by Bankrupts, it is enacted, "that before the Creditors shall proceed to the Choice of an Assignee or Assignees of any Bankrupt's Estate, the major Part in Value of the said Bankrupt's Creditors then present shall, if they think fit, direct in what Manner, how, and with whom, and where the Monies arising by and to be received, from Time to Time, out of the Bankrupt's Estate, shall be paid in and remain until the same should be divided among all the Creditors": And whereas it hath been found, that, for Want of such Direction being given under all Commissions of Bankrupt, large Sums of Money remain in the Hands of Assignees, and that they delay the dividing thereof to the great Prejudice of the Bankrupts Creditors: For Remedy whereof, I do HEREBY ORDER, that in every Commission of Bankrupt, in which the major Part in Value of the Bankrupt's Creditors present at the Choice of an Assignee or Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate shall not give the Direction so specified in the said Act, the Assignee or Assignees shall, from Time to Time, pay into the Bank of England all Monies which shall be got in and received from the Bankrupt's Estate, as often as the same shall amount to One Hundred Pounds, there to remain until the same should be divided amongst the Bankrupt's Creditors; and that, in the Assignment to be made by the Commissioners to the Assignee or Assignees to be chosen under every Commission of Bankrupt, a Covenant be inserted, on the Part of such Assignee or Assignees, to pay the same conformably, either to the Direction of the Creditors under the said Act of Parliament, or to this my Order, as the Case may be. And whereas by the same Act a First Dividend is directed to be made of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, after the Expiration of Four Months, and within Twelve Months from the Time of issuing the Commission; and a Second Dividend is by the same Act directed to be made within Eighteen Months next after the issuing of the Commission: And whereas Assignees under Commissions of Bankrupt do frequently neglect to comply with such the Directions of the said Act, to the great Injury of the Creditors of Bankrupts; I do therefore ORDER, that, in all Cases where it shall appear to the Commissioners that the Directions of the said Act have not been complied with, they do cause due Notice to be given in the London Gazette, and in such other of the Public Papers as the Commissioners shall think fit, of a Time and Place for the Assignee or Assignees under such Commission to attend, to shew Cause why a Dividend has not been made agreeably to the Directions of the said Act: And if such Assignee or Assignees shall not then and there shew Cause, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, why a Dividend has not been made agreeably to the Directions of the said Act, I do Order that the Commissioners present at such Meeting do then and there appoint the Time and Place when and where they will meet to make such Dividend, and that they do cause due Notice to be given of such Meeting.
