

the Thirtieth Day of November then ensuing, it should be lawful to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats, or Oatmeal; and also import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Barley, Pease, Oats and Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other.

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the Twenty-seventh Day of November last, it was ordered, that the said Prohibition to export Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any other Meal-Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England; and also the said Prohibition to export Pease, Beans or Oats, or any Meal-Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibitions in the said Order mentioned and referred to, should be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of March, 1794; and also that the said Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats or Oatmeal, and the said Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Pease, Oats and Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, in the said Order contained, should be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of March, 1794.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Week ending the Fifteenth Day of February, 1794, that the General Average Prices of Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, in that Part of Great Britain called England, are above the Prices at which Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and every Provision respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order mentioned and referred to, shall be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of June, 1794.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Month immediately preceding the Fifteenth Day of February, 1794, that the General Average Price of Oats, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is above the Price at which Foreign Oats are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Oats from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order mentioned and referred to, shall be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of June, 1794. And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats or Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other, in the said Order contained, shall be and continue in Force until the Fourth Day of June, 1794.

It appears by Dispatches which were received Yesterday by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, from Vice-Admiral Lord Hood and Lieutenant-General David Dundas, dated St. Fiorenzo in the Island of Corsica, the 21st and 22d of February, 1794, that the Tower and Garrison of Mortella surrendered on the 10th of that Month; that the strong Redoubt and Batteries of the Convention were taken by Storm on the 17th, after a severe Cannonading of Two Days; that the same Night the Enemy abandoned the Tower of Forneli and Two considerable Sea Batteries dependent upon it; that on the 19th they retreated from St. Fiorenzo to Bastia; that previous to their Retreat One of their Frigates was sunk, and another burnt in the Gulph; and that the Town, Forts and Port were taken Possession of the same Day by His Majesty's Land and Sea Forces.

The Loss of the British consists of Thirteen killed and Thirty-nine wounded, besides Six Sailors of the Fortitude killed and Fifty-six wounded, from the Fire of the Fort of Mortella.

Copies of the Dispatches will be published in the Gazette of Saturday next.
