DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, were Yesterday received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, from Vice-Admiral Lord Hood and Lieutenant-General David Dundas.

Victory, St. Fiorenzo, Feb. 22, 1794.

SIR,

HAVING received repeated Information how much the French were straitened for Provisions in Corsica, I had, for a considerable Time past, kept Ships constantly cruising between Cape Corse and Calvi, and, after my leaving the Road of Toulon, I judged it more necessary to prevent Succours being thrown in as much as possible, my Mind being impressed with the Importance the Island must be of to the French, in the State the Ships and Arsenal of Toulon were, and that it was very much so to Great Britain, as it contained several Ports, and that of St. Fiorenzo a very good one, for the Reception of His Majesty's Fleet in this Part of the Mediterranean. I therefore determined to make an Attempt to drive the French out of it, so soon as I could get a sufficient Supply of Provisions and Wine, being in daily Expectation of the former from Gibraltar and the latter from Port Mahon and Alicant; and in the mean Time I signified to General Dundas my Intention of sending Lieutenant-Colonel Moore and Major Kockler to Corsica, and requested he would give them proper Instructions for informing themselves of General Paoli's real Situation and that of the French; and when they had been there a Week I received, in the Afternoon of the 23d of last Month, a very encouraging Report, and at the same Time certain Information that the French had actually embarked at Nice 8000 Troops which were, at all Risque, to push for the Island, under Convoy of Two Frigates, a Corvette, Zebbeck, and other Armed Vessels. That same Evening I detached Three more Frigates to the Senior Officer, the more effectually to line the Coast, and to guard Bastia also; at the same Time I ordered the Ardent and a Sloop off Villa Franca, and, in case he found the French Frigates there, Captain

Sutton was directed to call to him the Diadem and other Cruizers from before Genoa, and cruize from Villa Franca to Antibes; but if he found the French Frigates sailed, he was to proceed, and join me off St. Fiorenzo, as I intended to put to Sea the next Morning. I could not, however, get away until the Afternoon, for Want of Wind. At Four o'Clock I weighed Anchor, accompanied by Sixty Sail of Ships and Vessels, including Army Victuallers, Horse Transports, and others, having 1800 unfortunate Toulonese on board, and the Victory and Prince's Royal had 400 more. I gave the Convoy in Charge of the Gorgon, with Three Gun Boats to bring up the Rear. Just at Sun-set next Evening I was within Three Miles of Isle Rousse, where Lieutenant-Colonel Moore was waiting, but having no Frigate or Cutter with me, I was unable to send for him; but observing the Juno at some little Distance, I made her Captain's Signal, and directed him to stand in, and fetch the Colonel off in the Night, which he fortunately effected. Towards Day-Light it blew very strong, and before Ten o'Clock quite a Storm, which made it prudent for me to bear up for Porto Ferrara, which I had a fair Prospect of getting to before Night; but in the Afternoon, when we were within Five Leagues of Elba, the Weather was so extremely thick, that the Pilot declined the Charge of the Ship; consequently I was driven to Leeward of the Island, where I passed Three very disagreeable Nights, having had Two Main Topails blown to Rags, and the Topail Yard rendered totally unserviceable. However we got safe to Porto Ferrara on the 29th; and having got all the Ships set to rights, and sent for Bread and Wine from Leghorn, I put to Sea again on the 6th Instant: Commodore Linzee, with most of the Transports, got out the Evening before. On the 7th the Commodore, having the Direction of disembarking the Troops at the Time and in the Manner Lieutenant-General Dundas should desire, anchored in a Bay to the Westward of Mortella Point, with the several Ships and Transports under his Command. The Troops were mostly landed that Evening, and Possession taken of a Height which overlooks the Tower of Mortella. The next Day the General and Commodore being of Opinion that

[ Price Sixteen-pence. ]

It was advisable to attack the Tower from the Bay, the Fortitude and Juno were ordered against it, without making the least Impression by a continued Cannonade of Two Hours and a Half; and the former Ship being very much damaged by red-hot Shot, both hauled off. The Walls of the Tower were of a prodigious Thickness, and the Parapet, where there were Two Eighteen-Pounders, was lined with Basins Five Feet from the Walls, and filled up with Sand; and, although it was cannonaded from the Height for Two Days, within 150 Yards, and appeared in a very shattered State, the Enemy still held out; but a few hot Shot setting Fire to the Basins, made them call for Quarter. The Number of Men in the Tower were Thirty-three; only Two were wounded, and those mortally.

On the 11th I was again forced from the Gulph by a strong westerly Gale, and took Shelter under Cape Corfe; and, upon the Wind abating, it fell at once calm, which prevented my Return off St. Fiorenzo until the Morning of the 17th. At Nine that Evening the Enemy's Works were stormed and taken, with inconsiderable Loss on the Part of His Majesty, but the French suffered much; and on the 19th in the Evening the empty Town of Fiorenzo was taken Possession of, the Whole of the Garrison having gone off towards Bastia in the Two preceding Days. I herewith transmit you the Copy of a Letter from Commodore Linzee to me, and one from Captain Young to him, with the State of His Majesty's Ship Fortitude under his Command; and an Account of the Killed and Wounded.

The cool and intrepid Conduct of Captain Young cannot be too much admired, or that of Captain Woodley of the Alcide, who, from having a correct Knowledge of the Bay, nobly offered his Service to place the Fortitude, which he did with the greatest Judgment; and the handsome Testimony Captain Young bears of it, makes it unnecessary for me to say a Word in his Praise; but I felt it very much my Duty to write Commodore Linzee the Letter I also herewith transmit a Copy of, as well as Copies of Letters the Commodore and I have been honoured with from Lieutenant-General Dundas, which will shew that Exertions were not wanting in the Officers and Seamen of His Majesty's Navy.

I should be wanting in Gratitude as well as Justice to Lieutenant-Colonel Moore and Major Koehler was I to omit acquainting you how much I feel myself indebted for their very great Zeal and Exertion in informing themselves of the State of the Country in the Neighbourhood of Fornelli, and cannot help attributing much to both for our Success. With respect to their Conduct in the Field, I leave Lieutenant-General Dundas to speak of it, but I understand it has been highly meritorious, as has that of the Whole of the Troops. Captain Woodley will be the Bearer of this Letter, to whom I beg to refer you for such Particulars as you wish to be informed of, as he is perfectly well acquainted with every Transaction from the Landing of the Troops to this Hour.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Alcide, in the Bay to the Westward of Mortella, February 9, 1794.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that it being the Opinion of Lieutenant-General Dundas, as well as my own, that an Attack, both by Sea and Land, should be made as speedily as possible on the Tower of Mortella, in order to secure the Anchorage in that Bay for His Majesty's Ships, and to have easy Communication with the Troops on Shore, I immediately directed His Majesty's Ships Fortitude and Juno for that Service. The Land Wind in the Morning was too faint for them to weigh; at One o'Clock P. M. the Sea Breeze came in, and they immediately got under Sail, and both Ships (with the Assistance of Captain Woodley, who, with great Zeal and Activity, voluntarily undertook to assist Captain Young in placing the Ships against the Tower, he having a very good Knowledge of the Bay, and which he executed with great Skill and Judgment) when a very severe and well-directed Fire was kept up by both Ships for Two Hours and a Half. Captain Young, whose cool, steady and gallant Conduct was very conspicuous, deserves the highest Encomiums, as by his Exertion the Flames, which at several Times broke out by the red hot Shot lodged in the Ship's Side, were extinguished, which would otherwise have inevitably destroyed her: His Officers and Ship's Company have their Share of Merit on the Occasion.

Captain Hood of the Juno, who fortunately received no Damage, did every Thing that his Situation could admit of, and conducted himself like an experienced and good Officer.

I herewith transmit, for your Lordship's Information, Captain Young's Report of the Damages sustained on board the Fortitude; also the Report of the Carpenters who have been ordered to survey her.

I have the Honor, &c.

ROBERT LINZEE.

Fortitude, Feb. 9, 1794.

IN Obedience to your Orders, I went Yesterday in His Majesty's Ship Fortitude, which I command, against the Tower of Mortella, where I remained Two Hours and a Half; when finding that neither the Fire of the Fortitude nor that of the Juno (who was extremely well placed to batter the Tower) had made any material Impression; and the Main-Mast of the Ship being much wounded, many of the Shrouds cut away, Three of the Lower Deck Guns dismounted, several hot Shot in the Hull, and a great many Men blown up by the Explosion of Powder from a Powder-Box that was struck by a hot Shot; and being so near the Tower and the Rocks, that if the Wind should die away it would be difficult, and if it should change so as to blow on Shore it might be impossible, to get away, I thought it prudent to haul off. Soon after I had done so, the Ship was perceived to be on Fire from the Main Deck to the upper Part of the Quick Work on the Quarter Deck, occasioned by a hot Shot that had lodged in the Side; but after cutting out the Shot, and opening the Side in different Places, the Fire was extinguished without having done any material Damage.

I had infinite Pleasure in observing, during the whole of the Action, the most cool, intrepid Courage in all the Officers and Men of the Fortitude; and I am particularly pleased to have this Opportunity of doing them Justice, by saying, that I do not think any Men could do their Duty better; and I have only to regret, with them, that their Exertions were not attended with better Success.

And if Captain Woodley will allow me, I shall be happy also in having this Opportunity of thanking him for the very great Assistance I received in placing the Ship, from his Knowledge of the Place, and from the Coolness and Clearness with which he gave his Directions, as well as for the Advantages I reaped from from his Skill and Presence of Mind during the whole of the Action.

I inclose a Report of the State of the Ship, and of the Killed and Wounded, and am,

S I R, &c.

WILLIAM YOUNG.

Commodore Robert Linzee.

Victory, off St. Fiorenzo, Feb. 9, 1794.

S I R,

I Have received your Letter of this Day's Date, accompanied by one from Captain Young to you, with an Account of the Fortitude's Defects, and of the Killed and Wounded in the Attack of Mortello Tower Yesterday.

I desire you will express to Captain Young, and, through him, to his Officers and Ship's Company, the very high Satisfaction their cool and intrepid Conduct has given me, and request they will accept my warmest Thanks. You will be pleased also to make my grateful Acknowledgments to Captain Woodley for placing the Fortitude with so much Judgment, as well as for the very able Assistance he gave to Captain Young: And I cannot omit to desire you will signify to Captain Hood how much I was delighted to see the Juno so judiciously stationed; and I was no less so, in observing the Ships withdrawn in so Officer-like a Manner, for one would not have imagined that either had received the smallest Damage, which must clearly manifest the strictest Attention of the Officers and Men to the Orders of their Captains.

The General has made a further Demand for Sand Bags; you will therefore direct the respective Captains with you to have as many made as they can, out of any unserviceable Sails they may have on board, and also supply any Planks they can spare for Platforms.

I am, &c.

H O O D.

Commodore Linzee.

Mortello Bay, February 8, 1794.

MY LORD,

I Now have the Honor to inform you, that after establishing Batteries on the rocky Mountains that overlook the Enemy's Posts at Fornelli, and, after a severe Cannonading for Two Days, which dismounted Guns and greatly damaged his Works, we last Night, just at the Rising of the Moon, made a combined Attack, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Moore. Our Loss was moderate; that of the Enemy considerable. We were completely successful; gained all the Heights and Posts of Fornelli, and have thereby secured the undisturbed Possession of Mortello Bay, and of this Side of the Gulph of Fiorenzo.

Without the wonderful Efforts of the Officers and Men of Commodore Linzee's Squadron, we had no reasonable Prospect of Success; and my best Acknowledgments are due to Captain Dickson, Captain Cook, Captain Young, Captain Wolfeley, Captain Hood and Captain Woodley, and to all other Officers and Sailors who acted under them, and whose Zeal, Ability and Exertions I shall always with Gratitude recollect and acknowledge.

I am, &c.

DAVID DUNDAS.

Mortello Bay, Feb. 18, 1794.

DEAR SIR,

I Beg Leave to congratulate you on the Success with which our united Efforts were crowned last Night in the Attack on the Enemy's advanced and principal Work, and on the subsequent Evacuation of the Posts of Fornelli, and the Retreat of the Enemy to Fiorenzo, which perfectly secures to us the undisturbed Possession of Mortello Bay.

Accept my warmest Acknowledgments for the effectual and unlimited Aid you have on every Occasion given us. Without the wonderful Efforts of the Officers and Men under your Command, we had no reasonable Prospect of Success; and I am to beg, through you, to offer my best Thanks to Captain Dickson, Captain Cook, Captain Young, Captain Wolfeley, Captain Hood, and Captain Woodley, and to all the Officers and Sailors who acted under them, and whose Zeal, Ability and Exertion, I shall always, with Surprise and Gratitude, recollect and acknowledge.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

DAVID DUNDAS.

Commodore Linzee.

St. Fiorenzo, February 21, 1794.

S I R,

I Had the Honor of informing you from Porto Ferrara, on the 4th Instant, of our Intention to sail for the Gulph of St. Fiorenzo in Corsica. The dislodging of the French from Bastia, St. Fiorenzo and Calvi, the Three principal Posts they held in Corsica, and the attaining of so secure a Harbour as St. Fiorenzo for our own Fleet, appeared so important an Object, that although our Military Force was but small, deficient in many of the most essential Points of Equipment, and the Season of the Year was far from encouraging, I was induced to acquiesce in any Attempt that should appear to promise the most distant Hopes of Success. Two intelligent and experienced Officers were sent to confer with General Paoli, to examine local Situations, and to report on the whole of Circumstances, which they did favourably; the Fleet therefore sailed from the Bay of Hierax (where we had lain since the 19th of December) on the 24th of January, and proceeded towards St. Fiorenzo; but the following Day a very violent Gale of Wind (which lasted for Three Days) dispersed and endangered the Fleet, and obliged us, with great Difficulty, to gain Porto Ferrara, in the River Elba, where we remained some Days making Preparation.

On the 5th of February we again failed; but as the Three-Decked Ships were not so well qualified for these narrow Seas and dangerous Coasts at this Season

Season of the Year, Commodore Linzee, with Three Ships of the Line and Two Frigates, was detached with the Troops in Transports, and on the 7th in the Morning we anchored in an open and exposed Bay adjoining to that of Mortella, which we wished to occupy, as it affords the best Anchorage in the Gulph of Fiorenzo. The same Evening the Troops were landed, consisting of the Second Battalion of the Royals, 11th, 25th, 30th, 50th, 51st and 69th Regiments, amounting to about 1400 Men bearing Arms.

As the Enemy, beside the Town of Fiorenzo, possessed several Heights and Points, in order to command the Anchorage of the West Side of the Gulph, it was necessary to dislodge them, before the Squadron could anchor in Security; and these Points in Succession, on entering the Gulph, were the Tower of Mortella, the Redoubt and Batteries of the Convention, and the Tower of Fornelli, with Two considerable Sea Batteries dependent upon it.

Expecting little Opposition from Mortella Tower, and trusting from Intelligence that we could approach near enough to that of Fornelli to attack it with light Artillery, Lieutenant-Colonel Moore was detached on the 8th with the Royal and 51st Regiments, a small Howitzer and a Six Pounder, to effect this Purpose; but after a March of Seven or Eight Miles, through a rocky, desert and mountainous Country, destitute of Roads, and where the Artillery was carried by a Detachment of Sailors, under Captain Cook, he arrived on the Heights immediately above Fornelli, and then found that the Distance was too great to hope for any Effect from his Small Guns. The same Day we began from a commanding Height, within 150 Yards, to batter the Tower of Mortella; but it was not till the 10th, after the Attack made by the Fortitude and Juno, and after establishing an Eighteen Pounder, Two Nine Pounders, and a Caronade against it, that we were enabled to reduce it, and take an Officer and Thirty-two Men Prisoners.

During this Time, having been enabled to examine the Mountains that skirted the Western Part of the Gulph, and which overlooked the Enemy's Posts, (particularly the principal one, the Redoubt of the Convention, which originally was, and by us was expected to be found, an open Battery, but which, by indefatigable Labour, they had now converted into a close Work, mounted with Twenty-one Pieces of heavy Ordnance, and which, from intercepted Letters, they considered as the Key of the Whole, and of great Strength) it appeared, that if heavy Cannon could be established on Points where the Enemy had deemed it impossible to place them, that their Works might be ruined, and then attacked to Advantage.

This Operation the Officers of the Navy cheerfully undertook; and, by the most surprizing Exertions of Science and Labour from the 12th to the 16th, placed Four Eighteen-Pounders, a large Howitzer, and a Ten-Inch Mortar in Battery, on Ground elevated at least 700 Feet above the Sea, and where every Difficulty of Ascent and Surface had opposed the Undertaking.

On the 16th in the Morning we opened with Two Batteries of Three Pieces of Artillery each. One of these, at the Distance of 1000 Yards, enfiladed the Redoubt of the Convention, and the other, at the Distance of 800 Yards, took it in Reverse. The Redoubt itself was of a long narrow Form, occupying the Summit of a detached Height, and about 250 Feet above the Sea.

Our Fire was heavy and unremitting during the 16th and 17th; and, notwithstanding the Gallantry of the Enemy, both in serving their Guns and in repairing their Works, their Fire was nearly overpowered. On the Evening of the 17th a Fifth Eighteen-Pounder was brought up by the Scamers, and a Sixth was also placed on an advanced Point near the Shore, to prevent the Two French Frigates in the Bay from placing themselves in a Situation to enfilade our proposed Attack.

On the 17th, Measures having been concerted, the Second Battalion of the Royals, 25th, 50th, and 51st Regiments, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Moore, were destined for the Attempt, while the 11th, 30th, and 69th, remained in Reserve. The Troops marched in Three Columns, and having nearly equal Distances to go over, moved at the same Hour, (Half past Eight o'Clock) in order to arrive at the Enemy's Works a little after the Rising of the Moon. Lieutenant-Colonel Moore, on the Right, with the Second Battalion of the Royals, commanded by Captain M'Kenzie, and the 51st Regiment, came down on the advanced Point of the Redoubt; Lieutenant-Colonel Wauchop, with the 50th, advanced towards its Center; and Captain Stewart, with the 25th, keeping close to the Sea Shore, was directed to enter on the Left and most commanding Part of the Work.

Notwithstanding the whole of the Ground over which the Troops marched was rocky, rough and covered with thick Myrtle Bushes, they approached the Redoubt without the Enemy being certain of their Progress, and, under a very heavy Fire, they arrived nearly at the same Time at their Points, rushed into their Works, prevented more than Two or Three Discharges of Cannon being given, and, with their Bayonets, drove the Enemy down the steep Hill which formed the Rear of the Work.

The judicious Fire kept up from our Batteries by Captain Wilkes and Lieutenant Duncan, jun. of the Royal Artillery, till the very Moment of the Attack, facilitated much the Approach of the Troops; and a false Attack made by the Corsicans on Lieutenant-Colonel Moore's Right, served also to engage and distract the Attention of the Enemy, who were not aware of the Extent of their Danger.

The Loss of the Enemy on the 16th and 17th amount to upwards of 100 Men killed and wounded, and 10 Officers (amongst whom was the Commandant) and 60 Men made Prisoners, out of 550 Men that occupied the Work.

The Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Moore, of the several Commanding Officers, and of all the Officers and Soldiers under his Orders, was firm and judicious, and merits every Commendation.

The Enemy being now reduced to their last Posts on the Height of Fornelli, at about 400 Yards Distance, from which we were separated by a strong and deep Ravine, fearing that their Retreat would be cut off, abandoned them about Midnight, crossed over to Fiorenzo, hauled off their Frigates, and left us in Possession of the Tower and Batteries of Fornelli, against which we otherwise must have placed Cannon, and, in a Delay of Two or Three Days, probably have lost a Number of Men.

On the 18th the Squadron anchored in perfect Security in Mortella Bay.

On the 19th, after taking Measures for the March of the Troops to the other Side of the Town, to cut off the Enemy's Communication with Bastia, a Summons was sent to Fiorenzo to surrender. In the Afternoon a negative Answer was received; but during the Day strong Symptoms of a speedy Evacuation were perceived.

One of the Frigates having been sunk by our Shot, the other was set on Fire about Four in the Afternoon, when a Boat came off to announce that the Enemy had quitted the Town. It was immediately taken Possession of.

On the 20th, by a Party sent out, we found that the Enemy had evacuated several strong Posts with Cannon, which kept up their Communication with Bastia, towards which Place they have retired as far as the Tower of Tichime, on a very high Mountain, half Way to that Place, under which the Road passes, and where they have Cannon.

In this Manner are we now Masters of the Fortrefs and Gulph of Fiorenzo, which is the most important Station in Cortica; divides the French Posts, affords a safe Harbour for a numerous Fleet, and, from it's commanding Situation, with respect to the Coast of France and Italy, is at this Moment of peculiar Importance. The Weather during the whole Time has been most remarkably propitious; had it been otherwise, we could not have accomplished our Undertaking.

The Perseverance, Spirit and Gallantry of the Officers and Men of every Denomination merit the highest Praise. Unprovided as we are with many necessary Articles of Preparation, the Service, at this Season of the Year, has been severe, but undergone with the greatest Chearfulness and Good-Will. To Sir James S. Erskine, and all the Officers of the Staff, I am much indebted.

On this Occasion Success has crowned the joint Endeavors of the British Arms. From the Navy we have received the most effectual and essential Assistance; their Exertions have been wonderful and unparalleled. Commodore Linzee afforded us every Support, and to the Captains Dickson, Young, Wolfelley, Hood, Woodley, and Cook, and to the Officers and Men who so zealously acted under their Command, we feel every Sense of their efficacious Aid.

In the Course of the Service we have derived essential Assistance from the Corsicans assembled near us by General Paoli, to the Number of about 1200. They have occupied advanced Posts, and covered our Flanks.

I have the Honor to inclose Returns of the Killed and Wounded; (the Loss has fallen chiefly on the brave Grenadiers and Light Infantry of the Royal and 51st Regiment, who were the first that entered the Enemy's Works,) and also Returns of the Ordnance and Stores taken in the Town and several Out-Posts.

This Letter will be delivered by Captain Hislop, Deputy Adjutant-General; an Officer from whom I have received the most essential Assistance, and whom I humbly beg Leave to recommend as peculiarly deserving of any Mark of the Royal Favor which His Majesty may be graciously pleased to confer upon him. I have the Honor to remain, &c.

Admiralty-Office, March 15.

THE following is an Extract of a Letter, received on Thursday last, from Commodore Ford, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships at Jamaica, to Mr. Stephens, dated Mole St. Nicholas, the 22d of January, 1794.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Parishes of Jean Rabel, St. Marc, Arcahaye and Boucassin, on the North, and Leogane on the South Side of the Bight, are in our Possession, by Capitulation, and the British Flag flying therein; and, as our Post at Boucassin is within Twelve or Fourteen Miles of Port-au-Prince, I proceeded, without Loss of Time, with the Squadron under my Command, to the Neighbourhood thereof, in order to give Countenance and Protection, according to the Exigency of the Case; and finding, on my Arrival there, that the Spaniards had taken Possession of Borgne, Gonahives, Petite Riviere and Verrette, I proceeded off Port-au-Prince, in order to induce a Capitulation to the King my Master; and accordingly sent Captain Rowley of the Penelope, on the 2d Instant, with a Flag of Truce, to the Civil Commissary Santhonax, offering the same Capitulation which the Inhabitants of St. Marc had voluntarily accepted, but which he refused in toto. As I found that Intreaty had no Effect, I determined to establish a Blockade, which has continued ever since, and not a Vessel of any Description entered.

Copenhagen, March 1.

On Wednesday Evening, about Five o'Clock, a dreadful Fire broke out in the Royal Palace of Christiansbourg, which communicating from the Hereditary Prince's Apartments, where it began, to the rest of the Building, in the Space of Seven or Eight Hours reduced the Whole to a Heap of Ashes. The Royal Family have happily escaped without Accident, but the greater Part of their valuable Effects have been a Prey to the Flames. It is not yet known what Number of Lives have been lost, but it is to be hoped, considering the Rapidity of the Conflagration, which was increased by a very strong Wind, that the Number is not great. This Palace, one of the most commodious and most sumptuously furnished in Europe, was built in the Reign of Christian the Sixth, and is said to have cost (in building only) considerably above a Million Sterling: It seems therefore not an exorbitant Calculation to suppose that, with the Loss sustained by the Hundreds of Individuals by whom it was inhabited, the whole Damage may amount to Two Millions Sterling. It is some Consolation, in so great a Disaster, that the Royal Library, consisting of between Two and Three Hundred Thousand Volumes, which stood detached from the principal Pile, has been fortunately saved. During the whole of this distressful Scene the Garrison and the Citizens were under Arms, and every Effort was made, both by the Military and the Sailors, to prevent Disorder and Pillage.

His Danish Majesty is lodged for the present in an Apartment at Count Bernstorff's, and the rest of the Royal Family are dispersed in different Quarters of the Town, where they will remain till Houses proper for their Reception can be got ready.
