From Tuesday April 22, to Saturday April 26, 1794.

Whitehall, April 26.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, dated Cateau, April 22, 1794, was received on Thursday last by Mr. Secretary Dundas from His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

S I R,

ON Sunday Morning the Hereditary Prince of Orange made a general Attack upon the Posts which the Enemy still occupied in the Front of Landrecies, and succeeded in getting Possession of them all, and in taking by Storm their intrenched Camp, and a very strong Redoubt which they had thrown up at the Village of Eloques, within Six Hundred Yards of the Place. He took Advantage of this Redoubt to cover the Left Flank of the Trenches, which were opened the same Evening. Much Praise is given to the Behaviour of the Austrian and Dutch Troops upon that Occasion.

According to the original Plan, adopted before the Battle of the 17th, it was determined to withdraw the detached Corps of each Army as soon as the Position for the Investiture of Landrecies was properly secured; and, in consequence, the Orders were given the Night before last that these Corps should retire as this Morning.

But Yesterday the Enemy attacked Two detached Corps of the Prince of Cobourg's Army at Grand Blocus and Nouvion, under the Command of Major-General Bellegarde and Lieutenant-General Alvintzy. The Prince of Cobourg sent to desire me to support the former, and I marched immediately, with Five Battalions of Austrians and Major-General Sir Robert Lawrie's Brigade of British Cavalry. I did not, however, arrive till the Affair was over, General Bellegarde having repulsed the Enemy with great Slaughter, and having taken Four Pieces of Cannon and One Howitzer.

As the Enemy appeared in great Force on General Alvintzy's Front, the Prince of Cobourg did not think it proper to support a Post which was of no Importance to him, and which was at any Rate to be abandoned that Night: General Alvintzy was therefore ordered to retire to his Position in the Line, which he did in great Order, and with very considerable Loss, although exposed to the Enemy's Cannonade.

I this Morning received a Report from Lieutenant-General Wurmb, who commands a detached Corps of the Army at Denaing, that the Enemy attacked him in great Force on Saturday; that at first his Advanced Posts were obliged to retire, and that the Enemy had already got Possession of the Village of Abscon, and of One of the Redoubts on his Front; but, upon a Reinforcement coming up, the Enemy were completely driven back, with great Loss. The Hessians, however, suffered considerably, having lost Five Officers, and Seventy Men killed and wounded.

General Wurmb expresses himself highly satisfied with the Behaviour of the Division of the Austrian Hussars of Leopold and the Hessian Dragons de Corps.

I am, Sir, &c.

(Signed)

FREDERICK.
