Whiteball, May 19, 1794.

A Dispatch, dated Pointe à Petre, Guadeloupe, April 12, 1794, of which the following is an Extract, was this Day received from General Sir Charles Grey, K. B. by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

IN my Di patch of the 4th Instant, I had the Honor to acquaint you with the Success of His Majesty's Arms in the Conquest of the Island of St. Lucia.

Having left Colonel Sir Charles Gordon to command in that Island, I re-embarked the same Day, and returned to Martinico the 5th Instant, where we shifted the Troops from the King's Ships back to the Transports, took on Board, during the 6th and 7th, the heavy Ordnance and Stores, Provisions, &c. and sailed again in the Morning of the 8th following: The Admiral detaching Captain Rogers with the Quebec, Captain Faulkner with the Blanche, Captain Inledon with the Ceres, and Captain Scott with the Rose, to attack the small Islands called the Saints, which they executed with infinite Gallantry and good Conduct, having landed Part of their Seamen and Marines, and carried them early in the Morning without Loss. The Boyne, in which I sailed with the Admiral, and the Veteran, anchored off this Place about Noon the 10th Instant; and some more of the Fleet in the Course of that Afternoon; but a fresh Wind and Lee Current prevented most of the Transports from getting in till Yesterday, and some of them until this Day.

Without waiting, however, for the Arrival of all the Troops, I made a Landing at Gosier-Bay, at One o'Clock in the Morning of the 11th Instant, under the Fire of Fort Gosier and Fort Fleur d'Epée, with Part of the 1st and 2d Battalions of Grenadiers, One Company of the 43d Regiment, and 500 Seamen and Marines, detached by the Admiral, under the Command of Captain George Grey, of the Boyne; the Whole under the Conduct and Command of that able and vigilant Officer Colonel Symes, who had infinite Merit in the Execution of it; and the Land-
