From Tuesday May 20, to Saturday May 24, 1794.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th Day of May, 1794.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto," it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That His Majesty might, by Proclamation or Order in Council when He should see Cause, and for such Time as should be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting or carrying Coastwise, or the attempting to export or carry Coastwise, any Pot or Pearl-Ash, or other Articles, which should be judged by His Majesty to be capable of being converted into Naval or Military Stores, or made useful in increasing Naval or Military Stores; and it was thereby provided that His Majesty might, by special Licence under His Sign Manual, or in such Order in Council or Proclamation, make such Exception with respect to the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of any Pot or Pearl-Ash, or other Articles as aforesaid, and such Regulations concerning the Manner of exporting or carrying the same Coastwise, as to Him; with the Advice of His Privy Council, should appear to be proper, specifying the said Articles, and also the Place and Places to and from which the same should or might be so exported or carried Coastwise: And His Majesty, judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, doth therefore; with the Advice of His Privy Council, under the Authority of the said Act, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months from the Date of this Order in Council, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty; or His Privy Council; upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by the aforementioned Act: But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man; or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena; or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies;

[Price Sixteen-pence.]

Indies, the Exporters of the said Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkeney.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of May, 1794.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Island of Martinique in the West Indies has been conquered by His Majesty's Forces, under the Command of General Sir Charles Grey and Vice-Admiral Sir John Jervis, and the said Island is now in His Majesty's Possession: And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all traitorous Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to His Majesty's Enemies," all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under the Penalties of High Treason, during the Continuance of the present War between Great Britain and France, from supplying, to or for the Use of any Person or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons then exercising, or who might thereafter, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government in France, divers Articles specified in the said Act, without Licence from His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or by Proclamation first had and obtained, specifying the Articles with respect to which the same shall be had and obtained, and also the Place and Places from which and to which the same shall be sent: His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful to and for all Persons, residing or being in Great Britain, to sell, supply and deliver from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe, or in any Country in Amity with His Majesty, to the said Island of Martinique, being in His Majesty's Possession, any of the Articles specified and enumerated in the before mentioned Act, subject, nevertheless, to such Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures as the Trade, in the said several Articles to any of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations is or shall be liable to by Law; but it is His Majesty's Pleasure that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the Exportation from Great Britain, or from any other of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe, of any of the Articles aforesaid, which are or shall be prohibited to be exported otherwise than by the said Act.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Island of Martinique, subject, nevertheless, to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations and Islands in the West Indies, is or shall be subject by Law.

And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities, being of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the said Island of Martinique, being in His Majesty's Possession, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to, coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations or Islands in the West Indies.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or dispense with any of the Provisions contained in His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date this Day, prohibiting the Resort of Aliens to the said Island without Licence for that Purpose.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkeney.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of May, 1794.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is highly important to the internal Tranquillity and future Security of the Islands, or Territories, Parts of Islands; in the West Indies, which, since the Commencement of the present War, have been conquered by His Majesty's Arms, or surrendered to His Majesty, to prevent, during the Continuance of the said War, too great a Resort to such Islands, or Parts of Islands, of Persons not Subjects to His Majesty, and particularly of such as are Enemies to His Majesty; His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That no Person, being an Alien, who shall have been a Subject of His late Most Christian Majesty, or shall be under the Government of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, shall resort or go to such Parts of the Island of St. Domingo as are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, or to the Island of Martinique, or to any other Islands or Parts of Islands in the West Indies, Part of the Dominions of His late Most Christian Majesty, which are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, during the said War, without special Licence first had and obtained from His Majesty, or from the Governor appointed by His Majesty, or, in his Absence, the Lieutenant-Governor so appointed, or the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at Jamaica or the Leeward Islands respectively, or some Persons or Person authorized to grant such Licence by His Majesty, or by such Commander in Chief at Jamaica or the Leeward Islands respectively: And it is further ordered, that no such Alien shall be permitted to land in any of the said Islands, or Parts of Islands, so in the Possession of His Majesty, without such Licence as aforesaid: But nevertheless His Majesty is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed or taken in any Manner to affect any Treaty or Capitulation made or entered into upon the Conquest or Surrender of such Islands or Parts of Islands respectively, or any Article or Thing in any such Treaty or Capitulation contained. And the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors so appointed by His Majesty in the said Islands and Parts of Islands, and the Commanders in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at Jamaica and the Leeward Islands respectively, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint William Shaw Lord Cathcart to be Lord Lieutenant of the Shire of Clackmannan in North Britain, His Lordship this Day took and subscribed the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and also subscribed the Assurance, conformably to what is required by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of May,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Island of St. Lucia, and the Island of Guadaloupe, with Marie Galante and its other Dependencies, in the West Indies, have been conquered by His Majesty's Forces under the Command of General Sir Charles Grey and Vice-Admiral Sir John Jervis, and the same are now in His Majesty's Possession: And whereas by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all Traitorous Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to, His Majesty's Enemies," all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under the Penalties of High Treason, during the Continuance of the present War between Great Britain and France, from supplying, to or for the Use of any Person or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons then exercising, or who might thereafter, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government in France, divers Articles specified in the said Act, without Licence from His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or by Proclamation, first had and obtained, specifying the Articles with respect to which the same shall be had and obtained, and also the Place and Places from which and to which the same shall be sent. His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful to and for all Persons residing or being in Great Britain, to sell, supply and deliver from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe, or in any Country in Amity with His Majesty, to the said

Island.

Island of St. Lucia, and also to the said Island of Guadeloupe, Marie Galante, and it's other Dependencies, being in His Majesty's Possession, any of the Articles specified and enumerated in the before mentioned Act, subject, nevertheless, to such Duties, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Trade in the said several Articles, to any of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations, is or shall be liable to by Law: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the Exportation from Great Britain, or from any other of His Majesty's Dominions in or out of Europe, of any of the Articles aforesaid, which are or shall be prohibited to be exported otherwise than by the said Act.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that all His loving Subjects may lawfully trade to and from the said Island of St. Lucia, and also to and from the said Island of Guadeloupe, Marie Galante, and it's other Dependencies, subject, nevertheless, to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations Conditions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures to which the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations and Islands in the West Indies is or shall be subject by Law.

And His Majesty is further pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that all Commodities, being of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the said Island of St. Lucia, and also of the said Island of Guadeloupe, Marie Galante, and it's other Dependencies, shall be permitted to be imported into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in British Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, subject to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as Articles of the like Sort are subject to coming from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations or Islands in the West Indies.

And His Majesty is pleased further to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to effect or dispense with any of the Provisions contained in His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 7th Day of this Instant, prohibiting the Resort of Aliens to such Parts of the Island of St. Domingo, as were or might be in the Possession of His Majesty, or to the Island of Martinique, or to any other Islands, or Parts of Islands, in the West Indies, Part of the Dominions of His late Most Christian Majesty, which were or might be in the Possession of His Majesty during the present War, without Licence for that Purpose.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkes.

Whitehall, May 23.

The King has been pleased to appoint Henry Hamilton, Esq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Island of Dominica, in the room of Sir John Orde, Bart.

Whitehall, May 24.

The following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Earl of Leven, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary for State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE received with the utmost Respect and Gratitude the gracious Letter with which your Majesty hath been pleased to honour this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. It affords us the highest Satisfaction to be assured that our unalterable Attachment to your Person and Government, and our Attention to the important Objects of our Meeting have, on former Occasions, made so favourable an Impression on your Royal Mind. We regard your Majesty's Commendation as a most pleasing Recompence for our past Services, and a most animating Inducement to persevere in that faithful Discharge of our Duty which your Majesty has graciously declared will insure to us the Continuance of your undiminished Confidence and Affection.

Anxious to justify that firm Reliance on our Wisdom and Discretion, which your Majesty hath been pleased to express, we feel ourselves powerfully called upon to obey your Majesty's paternal Admonition by redoubling our common Efforts to check that prevalent Spirit of licentious Innovation by which the present Times are so unhappily distinguished, and which threaten to fill the whole Christian World with Violence and Confusion: By so doing we are sensible that we shall most effectually contribute to promote the important Ends for which we are assembled, the Maintenance of true Religion and Virtue, the Prosperity of our established Church, and the Security of those invaluable Blessings which we have derived from our happy Constitution.

The Choice which your Majesty has been pleased to make of the Earl of Leven to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly, we consider as an additional Instance of your Majesty's Favour: The approved Fidelity and Loyalty of this noble Lord, that sincere Attachment to the Church of Scotland by which he and his Ancestors have so long been distinguished, his amiable Character in private Life, and the happy Experience of former Assemblies, render your Majesty's Nomination of him most acceptable to us.

We beg Leave to offer our humble and grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty for your Attention to the Propagation of the Protestant Religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland; and it shall be our Care, by a proper Application of the Sum with which your Majesty hath entrusted us for that Purpose, to promote the pious Design for which it is bestowed.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall endeavour to proceed in the Business before us with that Unanimity, Charity and brotherly Love which become us as the Servants of the Prince of Peace, and without which we are convinced that no real Dignity or Utility can attend our Deliberations. Such Conduct we hope will induce your Majesty to continue to us that Countenance with which you have hitherto been pleased to honor our Meetings; and we rely with entire Confidence on your gracious Determination to maintain the Church of Scotland in the perfect Enjoyment of all its just Rights and Privileges.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may direct your Majesty's Councils, and prosper the Administration of your Government; that he may bless our gracious Queen, His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all your Royal Family; that he may preserve you long to reign in Wisdom and Felicity over a free, loyal, and a virtuous People, and bestow on you hereafter that Crown of Righteousness which fadeth not away, are the Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this
National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Robert Arnot, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 17, 1794.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere Sentiments of Attachment to your Person and Government.

In the interesting Situation of the Affairs of Europe at the present Juncture, we are thankful to Divine Providence for those Pledges of Security to the British Nation which we enjoy in your Majesty's Paternal Care, and in the Wisdom and Vigour of your Councils.

When the Rulers of the People of France avowed their Hostility to all existing Governments, and by an unprovoked Declaration of War against this Country obliged your Majesty to draw the Sword in Defence of the Constitution; we your faithful Subjects, with full Approbation of this necessary Exertion of the public Force, offered up our Prayers to Heaven, for the Protection of our Country, and have since without ceasing continued to implore Success to your Majesty's Arms. Fully convinced that our Religion, our Liberty, our Laws, and all that is dear to us as Men, and as Christians, are now at Stake, we consider the War with France as the most important Contest in which this Nation has ever been engaged. Happy in the Experience of those high Blessings we have long enjoyed, we look up with Gratitude to our Sovereign when he adopts the most effective Measures to repel any Force which threatens to endanger or to overthrow our unequalled Constitution.

Under these Impressions, we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success which has attended your Arms, and more of your Allies in Europe, and on the Conquests which have been achieved by your Majesty's Forces in the East and West Indies; and we look forward with good Hope to such further Advantages as may enable your Majesty to bring the War to a Termination, which shall ensure Safety to Britain, and Protection from Anarchy to other Nations.

We cannot without Sorrow reflect that any Instances of Disaffection should have occurred among our People to deserve the just Reprehension of the Laws: But from what we know of the general Spirit of the Country, it affords us the greatest Satisfaction to be able to assure your Majesty, that the sound Principles of Loyalty, and of Attachment to the Constitution in Church and State, are fixed in the Hearts of the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects in Scotland. These Principles it shall be our most zealous Care to cherish and to promote.

Our Prayers and Intercessions are offered up to God for our King and Country. May He who rules among the Nations give Success to the Means which are employed for resisting the Progress of Disorder, and the Spirit of Impiety and Anarchy which has gone forth in a neighbouring Country. May the Divine Blessing attend your Fleets and your Armies, and lead them to Victory in every Quarter. May your Majesty be long preserved to reign over this Nation; and may your Descendants, to latest Posterity, fill the British Throne, and ever prove the faithful Guardians of Religion, of Liberty, of Law, and of the Constitution. These are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this
National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Robert Arnot, Moderator.

Published by Authority of Parliament,

JOHN JAMES CATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns.

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 21st Day of May, 1794.

is Forty-three Shillings and Ten Pence Farthing
per HUNDRED WEIGHT,

Exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon, on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
May 24, 1794.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Whitehall, May 13, 1794.

WHereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that in the Evening of the 23d Day of December last a large Smuggling Cutter being observed cruising off the Coast nearly opposite to the Town of Shoreham in the County of Sussex, the Galley belonging to the Swallow Cutter, in the Service of the Customs, was immediately manned by several of the Crew of the said Ship, and rowed out of the Harbour of New Shoreham, in Pursuit of her: That, as soon as they came along side of the Smuggling Cutter, which was about a Mile distant from the Shore, some Persons on Board the said Cutter called out, "Keep off," and immediately a Carriage Gun, loaded with Shot, was fired from her Stern, and another was directly afterwards fired from her Bow, and several Musquets and Blunderbusses were fired from the Midships of the said Cutter, by Means whereof Richard Blair, one of the Seamen on Board the Galley belonging to the Swallow Cutter, received a mortal Wound in his Left Side, of which said Wound the said Richard Blair, after languishing for a few Days, on the 29th of the said Month of December died.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders who shall discover his, her or their Accomplices therein, (except the Master or Commander on Board the said Cutter and the Persons who actually fired) so that any One or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, on Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,
James Hume, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, May 16, 1794.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich and Sheerness, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply, by Letter, to Mr. Thomas Kite, at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information.
