A Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, dated Tournai, May 30, 1794, was Yesterday received from His Royal Highness the Duke of York by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

AN Officer arrived this Evening, from Field-Marshal Mollendorf, with the News that, on the 23d, he completely surprized and surrounded the French Camp at Kayfers Lautern, killed above One Thousand Men and took Two Thousand Prisoners, besides Eighteen Pieces of Cannon, and all the Camp Equipage.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of May, 1794.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is highly important to the internal Tranquillity and future Security of the Islands, or Territories, Parts of Islands, in the West Indies, which, since the Commencement of the present War, have been conquered by His Majesty's Arms, or surrendered to His Majesty, to prevent, during the Continuance of the said War, too great a Resort to such Islands, or Parts of Islands, of Persons not Subjects to His Majesty, and particularly of such as are Enemies to His Majesty; His Majesty, taking the Premises into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That no Person, being an Alien, who shall have been a Subject of His late Most Christian Majesty, or shall be under the Government of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, shall resort or go to such Parts of the Island of St. Domingo as are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, or to the Island of Martinique, or to any other Islands or Parts of Islands in the West Indies, Part of the Dominions of His late Most Christian Majesty, which are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, during the said War, without special Licence first had and obtained from His Majesty, or from the Governor appointed by His Majesty, or, in his Absence, the Lieutenant-Governor so appointed, or the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at Jamaica or the Leeward Islands respectively, or some Persons or Person authorized to grant such Licence by His Majesty, or by such Commander in Chief at Jamaica or the Leeward Islands respectively: And it is further ordered, that no such Alien shall be permitted to land in any of the said Islands, or Parts of Islands, so in the Possession of His Majesty, without such Licence as aforesaid: But nevertheless His Majesty is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby further ordered and declared, that nothing in this Order contained shall be construed or taken in any Manner to affect any Treaty or Capitulation made or entered into upon the Conquest or Surrender of such Islands or Parts of Islands respectively, or any Article or Thing in any such Treaty or Capitulation contained. And the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors so appointed by His Majesty in the said Islands and Parts of Islands, and the Commanders in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at Jamaica and the Leeward Islands respectively, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Bayona, May 26.

Marechall Mollendorff, on the 24th Instant, surprized the French in their Entrenchments in the Neighbourhood of Kellmestern, and defeated them with great Loss. The Force of the French consisted of about Twelve Thousand Men. They were posted behind the Ditches of Otterbach, Hagelbach, and the Lanter. The Whole of this Country was covered with Redoubts and Entrenchments; several Dykes had been cut, and the Bridges were every where destroyed; while Three strong Positions were prepared, to facilitate their Retreat in case of Accidents. The Loss of the French amounts to One Thousand killed, more than Two Thousand Prisoners, Eighteen Pieces of Cannon, and Two Howitzers. After the Engagement, Marechall Mollendorff established his Head Quarters at Winnweiler, and the Prince of Hohenloe Inspringen took Possession of Neustadt. The advanced Posts of the Prussian Army extend as far as Deux Pons and Carlsberg.

Whitchall, May 24, 1794.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Night of the 8th Instant, the Cellar of the Dwelling-House belonging to the Reverend Luke Thompson, Vicar of Appleton in Street, near Malton, in the County of York, was burglariously broken open and entered by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, and that upwards of Four Dozen of Wine, in Bottles, were stolen thereout: That, about Four or Five Nights after, an Attempt was made to break into the Dairy of the aforesaid Premises, but without Effect; and that, on the 16th, another Attempt was made to break into the Butler's Pantry, upon which the Man Servant, bearing a Knife, got out of Bed, and in going from the said Pantry into the Kitchen was fired at by some Person on the Outside of the House, by which Firing the Hall Window was broken.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Burglary and Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the said Dwelling-House) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me

M. D. Robinson, Essex-Street.
