Whitehall, June 10.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was received on Sunday last, from His Royal Highness the Duke of York, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

S I R, Tournay, June 6, 1794.

I Have the Pleasure to inform you, that, on the 3d Instant, the Combined Army, under the Command of the Hereditary Prince of Orange, attacked the Enemy, who was posted at Fontaine l'Eveque, in order to cover a Part of their Forces, which was besieging Charleroi, and compelled them to raise the Siege and return across the Sambre, where they now remain.

I am, &c.

Whitehall, June 10.

THE Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, was received on Sunday last from Admiral Lord Hood, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

S I R, Victory, off Bastia, May 24, 1794.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Town and Citadel of Bastia, with the several Posts upon the Heights, surrendered to the Arms of His Majesty on the 22d. On the 19th I received a Message, that the Garrison was desirous of capitulating upon honorable Terms; in consequence of which I sent the inclosed Note on Shore. This brought on Board the Victory Three Officers, who informed me that Gentili, the Commandant, would assemble the Officers of the several Corps, and of the Municipality, if a Truce took Place, which I agreed to, a little before Sun-set. The next Day I received a Note from Gentili, which I also inclose, and sent Captain Young on Shore, on the Morning of the 21st, who soon returned to the Victory, with Two Officers and Two of the Administrative Bodies, which, with Vice-Admiral Goodall, Captain Young, Captain Inglefield, and my Secretary, Mr. M<sup>r</sup> Arthur, settled the Articles of Capitulation, which were signed the following Morning, when His Majesty's Troops took Possession of all the Posts above the Town, the Troops in each retiring to the Citadel, from whence they marched to the Mole Head, where they grounded their Arms, and were embarked. You will receive herewith the Articles of Capitulation, which I hope His Majesty will approve.

I am unable to give due Praise to the unremitting Zeal, Exertion and judicious Conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Villotres, who had the Honor of commanding His Majesty's Troops; never was either more conspicuous. Major Brereton, and every Officer and Soldier under the Lieutenant-Colonel's Orders, are justly entitled to my warmest Acknowledgments; their persevering Ardour and Desire to distinguish themselves cannot be too highly spoken of, and which it will be my Pride to remember to the latest Period of my Life.

Captain Nelson, of His Majesty's Ship Agamemnon, who had the Command and Directions of the Seamen, in landing the Guns, Mortars and Stores; and Captain Hunt, who commanded at the Batteries, very ably assisted by Captain Buller and Captain Serocold, and the Lieutenants Gore, Hotham, Stiles, Andrews and Brisbane, have an equal Claim to my Gratitude, as the Seamen under their Management worked the Guns with great Judgment and Alacrity. Never was an higher Spirit or greater Perseverance exhibited, and I am happy to say, that no other Contention was at any Time known, than who should be most forward and indefatigable for promoting His Majesty's Service; for, although the Difficulties they had had to struggle with were many and various, the perfect Harmony and good Humour that universally prevailed throughout the Siege overcame them all.

I cannot but express, in the strongest Terms, the meritorious Conduct of Captain Duncan and Lieutenant Alexander Duncan, of the Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant De Butts, of the Royal Engineers; but my Obligation is particularly great to Captain Duncan, as more Zeal, Ability and Judgment was never shewn by any Officer than were displayed by him; and I take the Liberty of mentioning him as an Officer highly entitled to His Majesty's Notice.

I feel myself very much indebted for the Vigilance and Attention of Captain Wolsley, of the Impeieuse, and of Captain Hallowell, who became a Volunteer wherever he could be useful, after being superfluous in the Command of the Courageux by Captain Waldegrave. The former kept a diligent Watch upon the Island of Capraia, where the Enemy have Magazines of Provisions and Stores, and the latter did the same, by guarding the Harbour's Mouth of Bastia with Gun-Boats and Launches well armed, the whole of every Night, whilst the smaller Boats were very judiciously placed in the Intervals between, and rather without the Ships (which were moored in a Crescent just out of Reach of the Enemy's Guns) by Captain Young, of the Fortitude, the Center Ship, on Board of which every Boat assembled at Sun-set for Orders; and the Cheerfulness with which the Officers and Men performed this nightly Duty is very much to be admired, and afforded me the most heartfelt Satisfaction and Pleasure.

The very great and effectual Assistance I received from Vice-Admiral Goodall, Captain Inglefield and Captain Knight, as well as from every Captain and Officer of His Majesty's Ships under my Command, have a just Claim to my most particular Thanks, not only in carrying into Execution my Orders afloat, but in attending to and supplying the Wants of the little Army on Shore: It is to the very cordial and decided Support alone I had the Honour to receive from the Whole, that the innumerable Difficulties we had to contend with were so happily surmounted.

Major Smith and Ensign Vigoureux, of the 25th Regiment, and Captain Radcliffe and Lieutenant St. George of the 11th, not embarking with their respective Regiments, having Civil Employments on Shore; it is to their Honor I mention, that they relinquished those Employments, and joined their Corps, soon after the Troops were landed.

It is very much my Duty to inform you, that I am extremely obliged to General Petrecono, Mr. Frediani, and all the Officers of the Corsicans, serving with the Army, for their great Zeal, Ardour and Attention, in forwarding the Reduction of Bastia by every Means in their Power, who were of infinite Service by preserving good Order in the Troops.

I transmit an Account of the Loss on the Part of His Majesty, in Killed and Wounded, which, I am happy to say, is inconsiderable; but the Enemy suffered much, their Hospitals being full.

At the Commencement of the Siege, the Number of the Enemy bearing Arms was 3000.

By the first Ship that sails for England, I shall have the Honor of sending, to be laid at His Majesty's Feet, the several Stand of Colours taken at Bastia.

Captain Hunt, who was on Shore in the Command of the Batteries from the Hour the Troops landed to the Surrender of the Town, will be the Bearer of this Dispatch, and can give any further Information you may wish to know respecting the Siege:

I have the Honor, &c.

H O O D.

His Britannick Majesty's Ship Victory, off Bastia, May 19, 1794.

IN Consideration of the very gallant Defence the Garrison of Bastia has made, and from the Principles of Humanity which ever govern British Officers, I am disposed to give you Terms; and if you will send on Board Two or Three Officers, properly authorized to treat, I trust a Capitulation will be soon settled, as honorable to the Inhabitants as can in any Reason be expected.

Bastia, the 2d Prereal, 2d Year of the French Republic, One and Indivisible.

The General of Division, Commander in Chief of the Army of the French Republic in Corsica, to Admiral Hood, Commander in Chief of the Squadron of the King of Great Britain, before Bastia.

MY LORD,

IN consequence of the Proposal which you did me the Honour of making in your Dispatch of the 18th May, (Old Style,) I have the Honour of sending to you Two Adjutant Generals of the Army and Two Members of the Administrative Corps of this Town, who are commissioned to present to you the Plan of a Capitulation between the Garrison and Inhabitants of Bastia, and you, My Lord, in the Name of the King of Great Britain.

These Four Commissioners, who equally possess my Confidence, and that of the Garrison and of the Citizens, have Instructions to arrange, with you, the Settlement of all Matters relative to this Capitulation. I hope that you will be satisfied, and that they will enable you to fulfil the Views you have signified to me, of putting an End to the unavoidable Consequences of the Calamities of War. Captain Young has had a long Conference with me: I was of Opinion that a reciprocal Understanding might co-operate in the Success of the Negotiation which occupied our Attention, and I have requested him to acquaint you with my ingenuous and loyal Intentions.

Greeting or Health,

Extract of a Letter from Francis Laforey, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Carysfort of 28 Guns, to Mr. Stephens, dated in Plymouth Sound, the 7th Instant.

ON the 29th of last Month, being in Latitude 46 deg. 38 min. North, Longitude 9 deg. 40 min. West, His Majesty's Ship fell in with, and, after an Action of an Hour and Fifteen Minutes, captured a French Frigate (late His Majesty's Ship the Castor) commanded by Mons. L'Huillier, mounting 32 Guns, and manned with 200 Men.

She had parted Company from the French Squadron on the 24th in Chace of a Dutch Brig, which she had in Tow when we first discovered her, and which, upon our coming up, was enabled to effect her Escape.

I have the Satisfaction of reporting to their Lordships the uniform good Conduct of the Officers and Crew of His Majesty's Ship I have the Honor to command; and I feel myself indebted to Lieutenants Worsely and Sayer for the spirited Example they set to a new Ship's Company.

Herewith I transmit a Return of the Loss sustained by His Majesty's Ship in Killed and Wounded, with as accurate a one as we have been able to obtain of that of the Enemy.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter was received, on the 7th Instant, by Mr. Moses Lara, Merchant, in Little Alie-Street, Goodmans Fields, of which Letter the following is a Copy.

Pity but your race were extirpated from the face of the creation—they are a disgrace to human nature—a hord of Swindlers—but your obstinacy shall avail nought—actions or indictments we are not to be intimidated by & if by this day ten-night you do not afford us an opportunity of entering your Warehouse, before midsummer day you shall behold your Warehouse and the Goods therein an heap of ashes and your claim on the Fire office shall be attached—have we got you now you thought no one as deep as yourself and your Lawyer—but you find the property can be got out of your hands & should we even be foiled there you shall not long revel in the produce of your Swindle—if a well loaded pistol or good tempered Steel can end your existance now judge for yourself we are prepared and such engines are at work as will defy discovery—men who delight in Blood and whose chief pleasure is Villainy—such are procured and such shall act for us
