

Whitehall, May 24, 1794.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Night of the 8th Instant, the Cellar of the Dwelling-House belonging to the Reverend Luke Thompson, Vicar of Appleton le Street, near Malton, in the County of York, was burglariously broken open and entered by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, and that upwards of Four Dozen of Wine, in Bottles, were stolen thereout: That, about Four or Five Nights after, an Attempt was made to break into the Dairy of the aforesaid Premises, but without Effect; and that, on the 16th, another Attempt was made to break into the Butler's Pantry, upon which the Man Servant, hearing a Noise, got out of Bed, and in going from the said Pantry into the Kitchen was fired at by some Person on the Outside of the House, by which Firing the Hall Window was broken.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Burglary and Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the said Dwelling-House) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me

M. D. Robinson, Effex-Street.

Navy-Office, June 6, 1794.

Whereas Samuel Travers, Esq; long since deceased, by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 16th of July, 1724, after giving several pecuniary Legacies, devised the Residue of his Real and Personal Estates to his Executors therein named, upon Trust that they should, out of the Rents and Profits thereof, settle an Annuity of Sixty Pounds, to be paid to each of Seven Gentlemen, to be added to the Poor Knights of Windsor; and that a Building might be erected or purchased, in or near the Castle of Windsor, for an Habitation for the said Seven Gentlemen, who were to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English Men of War: And the said Testator desired that the Gentlemen so to be incorporated might be single Men, without Children, inclined to lead a virginal, studious and devout Life, to be removed if they gave Reason of Scandal; and that he would have them live in a Collegiate Manner, in order whereunto he would have Twenty-six Pounds per Annum deducted out of their several Allowances to keep a constant Table.

And whereas the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath, by Letter dated the 1st of last Month, signified to the Commissioners of the Navy His Majesty's Pleasure, that they should, pursuant to the said Will, and a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in that behalf, choose such a Number of superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of the Royal Navy as they should think proper, and return the Names of such Officers to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the Manner directed by the said Will, for the Purpose of carrying the same into Effect: The said Commissioners of the Navy do therefore hereby give Notice to such Lieutenants, as are desirous of accepting Appointments, under the abovementioned Provisions and Regulations, to make their Appearance at this Office on Wednesday the 1st Day of October next, and to bring with them Certificates and other Testimonials, to shew that they come within the Meaning of the said Will. And such Lieutenants as by Reason of their Residence being distant from this Office are not able to attend in Person, are desired to send a State of their Case, and the Testimonials abovementioned, on the said Day, in order that the said Commissioners may select a List of Twenty-one qualified Objects, to be by them transmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty, whereout their Lordships may choose Fourteen to be submitted to His Majesty, in order that, out of such reduced Number, His Majesty may be graciously pleased to nominate Seven, to be the Persons first appointed Poor Knights under the said Will.

Navy-Office, May 29, 1794.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that, in pursuance of an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, they will receive the Navy and Transport Bills which come within the Description of those lately ordered to be funded, as may be presented at this Office on or before the 1st Day of July next.

Vituallling-Office, May 29, 1794.

THE Commissioners for Vituallling His Majesty's Navy, do hereby give Notice, that, in pursuance of an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, they will receive such of the Vituallling Bills which come within the Description of those lately ordered to be funded, as may be presented at this Office on or before the 1st Day of July next.

General Post-Office, May 28, 1794.

THE Postmaster General having been pleased to order a more frequent and expeditious Delivery of Letters by the Penny Post, Notice is hereby given, that Letters are now delivered to all Parts of the Town Six Times a Day, and it is intended, as soon as the necessary Arrangements can be completed, to give Three Deliveries a Day to most Parts of the Country within the Circuit of the Penny Post.

The Hours by which Letters must be put in at the different Receiving Houses for each Delivery are the same in all Parts of the Town, viz. Eight, Ten and Twelve o'Clock in the Morning, and Two, Five and Eight in the Afternoon; and the Hours by which they must be put in for Places in the Country will be Eight in the Morning, and Two and Five in the Afternoon.

From most Parts of the Country within the Delivery of the Penny Post there will be Two Posts to London every Day, (Sundays excepted). The Hours of Dispatch will be specified in a Label affixed in the Office at each Place.

The Two Chief Penny Post Offices are in Abchurch-Lane, Lombard-Street, and Gerard-Street, Soho, the other Principal Offices being laid aside.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
