WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for preventing Money or Effects, in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposeable by Persons resident in France, being applied to the Use of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, and for preserving the Property thereof for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof," all Persons, residing or being in Great Britain, are forbidden, under the Penalties of High Treason, during the present War, to pay, send, supply or deliver, or cause to be paid, sent, supplied or delivered, either in Great Britain or France, or in any other Country, either by Payment or Remittance of any Bill of Exchange, Note, Draught, Obligation, or Order for Money, or in any other Manner whatsoever, any Money to or for the Use of the Persons exercising, or who should exercise, the Powers of Government in France, or to or for the Use of any Persons or Person who, on the First Day of January, 1794, were or are, or, at any Time since, have or has been, or who, at the Time of such Act done, should be within any of the Dominions of France, or any Country, Territory or Place which was, on the 1st Day of January, 1794, or which should be, during the said War, and at the Time of such Act done, under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who should exercise, the Powers of Government in France:—And all Persons, residing or being in Great Britain, are also prohibited, under the Pains and Penalties of the Statute of Provisiion and Præmunire, during the said War, to send, supply or deliver, or cause or procure to be sent, supplied or delivered, either in Great Britain, or in any other Country or Place whatsoever, to or for the Use of the Persons exercising, or who should exercise, the Powers of Government in France, or to or for the Use of any Persons or Person who, on the said First Day of January, 1794, were or was, or at any Time since had been, or, at the Time of such Act done, should be, within any of the Dominions of France, or in any Country, Territory or Place which was, on the said 1st Day of January, 1794, or which should, during the said War, and at the Time of such Act done, be under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who should exercise, the Powers of Government in France: And all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under Penalties and Forfeitures specified in the said Act, to pay or satisfy in any Manner, during the said War, any Bill of Exchange, Note, Draught, Obligation or Order for Money, in Part or in the Whole, which, since the said First Day of January, 1794, has been, or, at any Time during the said War, shall be, drawn or accepted, or indorsed, or in any Manner negotiated in, or in any Manner sent from any Part of the Dominions of France, or any Country, Territory or Place which was, on the said First Day of January, 1794, or at any Time during the said War, and at the Time of such Act done, shall be under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who should exercise the Powers of Government in France, or drawn, accepted or indorsed, or in any Manner negotiated by, or for the Use of, or upon the Credit of, or upon the Credit of the Effects of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, or of any Persons or Person who, on the said First Day of January, 1794, were or was, or at any Time since have or has been, or who, at the Time of such Act done, shall be, in any of the Dominions of France, or in any such Country, Territory or Place as aforesaid: And all Persons residing or being in Great Britain are prohibited, under the Penalties and Forfeitures specified in the said Act, to pay or otherwise satisfy, deliver or part with, any Money, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Draughts, Obligations or Orders for Money, Securities for Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes or Effects whatsoever, of or belonging to the Persons exercising, or who should exercise, the Powers of Government in France, or to any Persons or Person who, on the said First Day of January, 1794, were or was, or at any Time since have or has been, or who, at the Time of such Act done, shall be, in any of the Dominions of France, or in any Country, Territory or Place which was, on the said First Day of January, 1794, or at any Time during the said War, and at the Time of such Act done, shall be, under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who should exercise, the Powers of Government in France. And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, that many Persons, who are Subjects of the United States of North America, and engaged in Houses of Trade established there, may have been, on and since the First Day of January, 1794, within the Dominions of France or other the Countries, Territories or Places then under the Government of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, while the Firms of such respective Houses have remained in North America, and transacted their ordinary Commercial Business with other Countries, and therefore the Commercial Intercourse between His Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain and the Subjects of the said United States, may be embarrassed by the Restrictions contained in the said Act, unless His Majesty shall, in pursuance of the Powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, give His Royal Licence and Authority to enable Persons in Great Britain to do such Acts as shall be necessary for carrying on such Commercial Intercourse with North America, notwithstanding the Restrictions contained in the said Act, so far as may be consistent with the general Intent and Purposes of the said Act. said War, and at the Time of such Act done, under the Government of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France: Provided such Bill shall have been so drawn for the Purpose only of some Commercial Transaction bonâ fide between such House of Trade so established in North America and some House of Trade in Great Britain, or in some other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, or in some Country in Amity with His Majesty, or for the Purpose of some Commercial Transaction with France, relative to Articles not prohibited to be exported from this Kingdom to France, and shall not have been drawn for the Purpose, directly or indirectly, of carrying on any Commerce, other than as aforesaid, with, or making or providing any Remittance to France, or any Country, Territory or Place which now is, or, at the Time of such Act done, shall be, under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall exercise, the Powers of Government in France:—And His Majesty is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, residing or being in Great Britain, to send, supply, or deliver, and cause or procure to be sent, supplied or delivered, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, to, for, or on Account of any House of Trade in North America, notwithstanding any One or more Person or Persons, engaged in such House of Trade, shall have been, or shall be within any of the Dominions of France, or any Country, Territory or Place, which was, on the 1st Day of January, 1794, or which since has been, or which shall be, during the said War, and at the Time of such Act done, under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall exercise, the Powers of Government in France.

Provided such Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be so sent, supplied or delivered, bonâ fide for the sole Use and Benefit of such House of Trade in North America, and not for the Purpose, directly or indirectly, of carrying any Commerce with, or making or providing any Remittance to France, or any Country, Territory or Place which now is, or at the Time of such Act done, shall be, under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall exercise, the Powers of Government in France.

Provided also, that all and every Person and Persons who shall take the Benefit of such Licence hereby granted, shall so take the same, upon Condition that in case of any Proceeding, Criminal or Civil, under the Provisions of the said Act of Parliament, for any Thing alledged to have been done contrary thereto, any Question shall arise whether the Thing so done was authorized by the Licence hereby given, the Proof that such Thing was done under the particular Circumstances, according to the special Terms and Conditions required by this Order, shall lie on the Persons claiming the Benefit of such Licence.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
June 14, 1794.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Navy-Office, June 6, 1794.

Whereas Samuel Travers, Esq; long since deceased, by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 16th of July, 1724, after giving several pecuniary Legacies, devised the Residue of his Real and Personal Estates to his Executors therein named, upon Trust that they should, out of the Rents and Profits thereof, settle an Annuity of Sixty Pounds, to be paid to each of Seven Gentlemen, to be added to the Poor Knights of Windsor, and that a Building might be erected or purchased, in or near the Castle of Windsor, for an Habitation for the said Seven Gentlemen, who were to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English Men of War: And the said Testator desired that the Gentlemen so to be incorporated might be single Men, without Children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious and devout Life, to be removed if they gave Reason of Scandal, and that he would have them live in a Collegiate Manner, in order whereunto he would have Twenty-six Pounds per Annum deducted out of their several Allowances, to keep a constant Table.

And whereas the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath, by Letter dated the 1st of last Month, signified to the Commissioners of the Navy His Majesty's Pleasure, that they should, pursuant to the said Will, and a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in that Behalf, choose such a Number of superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of the Royal Navy as they should think proper, and return the Names of such Officers to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the Manner directed by the said Will, for the Purpose of carrying the same into Effect: The said Commissioners of the Navy do therefore hereby give Notice to such Lieutenants, as are desirous of accepting Appointments, under the abovementioned Provisions and Regulations, to make their Appearance at this Office on Wednesday the 1st Day of October next, and to bring with them Certificates and other Testimonials, to shew that they come within the Meaning of the said Will. And such Lieutenants as by Reason of their Residence being distant from this Office are not able to attend in Person, are desired to send a State of their Case, and the Testimonials abovementioned, on the said Day, in order that the said Commissioners may select a List of Twenty-one qualified Objects, to be by them transmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty, whereout their Lordships may choose Fourteen to be submitted to His Majesty, in order that, out of such reduced Number, His Majesty may be graciously pleased to nominate Seven, to be the Persons first appointed Poor Knights, under the said Will.

Plymouth, May 27, 1794.

Notice hereby given, that an Account of Sales of the French National Brig La Trompeuse and her Stores, captured by His Majesty's Frigate Sphynx, Richard Lucas, Esq; Commander, will be deposited in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty, agreeable to Act of Parliament.

John Hawker, for E. Vidal and Geo. Parker, Esqrs. Agents for His Majesty's Ship Sphynx.
