

The London Gazette

EXTRAORDINARY.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1794.

Whitehall, June 20.

THE Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, was this Morning received from His Royal Highness the Duke of York by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Tournay, June 17, 1794.

S I R,

IT is with the greatest Satisfaction that I have the Pleasure to inform you, that an Officer is arrived this Evening from the Hereditary Prince of Orange, with the Account that he Yesterday attacked and defeated the French Army, which had again passed the Sambre, and taken up a Position near Josselies, in order to cover the Siege of Charleroi, before which they had already begun to open Trenches.

The Enemy's Loss is computed at above Seven Thousand Men, as well as Twenty-two Pieces of Cannon, Thirty-five Ammunition Waggons, and a considerable Number of Horses and Baggage. They retreated in the greatest Confusion across the Sambre.

I am, &c.

FREDERICK.

*Right Hon. Henry Dundas,
&c. &c. &c.*

