Whitehall, June 24.

THE following Address has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable Sir George Yonge, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Rector and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Honiton.

SIRE!

TO Minds possessing Sentiments of Generosity, a Communication of Pleasure will ever add a Reason to the Enjoyment. In a more eminent Degree are the Sensations of a free and loyal Nation heightened, by opening their Hearts and pouring their Effusions of their Joy before the Throne of a beloved Sovereign and the Father of his People.

During the present War we have contemplated, with true Satisfaction, on the Conduct of our brave Countrymen. We have beheld them led on by the Royal Sons of our Gracious Sovereign, who have shared in their Toils and participated their Dangers; and we have viewed with Delight the Character of Britain illustrated, by their Courage, their Firmness, their Fortitude and their Humanity.

If "the Empire of the Sea has always given those have enjoyed it a natural Pride," and if it hath led them to "imagine that their Power is as boundless as the Ocean," this favored Isle, long the Arbitress of the World, must have felt some Anxiety and Concern at the Attempt of any other People to wrest this Laurel from her Brow, this Glory from her Navy.

When therefore the Superiority of the British Arms is manifested, and our Navy rides triumphant o'er the Main; when the Hopes of our Enemies are baffled, and Disappointment and Disgrace are the only Result of their Efforts, every true Briton must feel the Exultation; and we naturally approach our King, whom we venerate, and our Father, whom we love, to offer our warmest Congratulations, and to express our heartfelt Gratitude on so auspicious an Event: And we devoutly trust that the same Almighty Power, whose outstretched Arm and whose holy Hand hath hitherto protected us against all our Enemies, will still bless our Arms with Success, and will secure to us a firm and an honorable Peace; and may the same Divine Providence long preserve to us the Life of our Gracious Sovereign, and continue to the Inhabitants of this happy Island the Blessings of Liberty, of Prosperity, and of Safety, 'till Kingdoms themselves shall perish, and 'till Time shall be no more!
