Whitehall, June 28.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was this Morning received from His Royal Highness the Duke of York by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

COLONEL Craig had set out upon his Journey to England; but unfortunately, upon his Arrival at Oudenarde, he found that the Enemy had obliged General Clairfayt to retire in some Confusion to Ghent; and that the Communication between that Place and Oudenarde, unless by a great Detour, was entirely cut off. Thinking that it was necessary I should have this Information as soon as possible, he returned in the Night.

This Movement of the Enemy, by forcing General Clairfayt to retire, and bringing them nearer to the Banks of the Scheldt, rendered the Position before Tournay, which, since the Departure of the Prince Cobourg, had always been hazardous, no longer tenable; and I therefore quitted it this Day, leaving only a Garrison in the Town, and marched, with all the British and Part of the Hessian Troops, to this Place, in order to be in Readiness to support Oudenarde, which was menaced, and actually summoned this Day.

I am, &c.

FREDERICK.

P. S. Enclosed I send Copy of the Articles of Capitulation of the Garrison of Ypres.

*Right Hon. Henry Dundas,
Esq. &c. &c.*
