Westminster, July 11, 1794.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE State of Publick Business enables Me now to close this Session of Parliament ; in doing which I have again to acknowledge that Assiduity and Zeal for the Interests of My People, of which you had before given Me so many Proofs, and which have been so particularly manifested in the present Year.

I am persuaded that you entertain too just a Sense of the Nature and Importance of the Contest in which We are engaged, to suffer your Zeal to be abated, or your Perseverance shaken, by the recent Successes of the Enemy in the Netherlands.

In a Moment which so strongly calls for Energy and Vigour, it is peculiarly gratifying to Me to reflect on the uniform Skill and Bravery of My Fleets and Armies, the undaunted Spirit and unwearied Exertions of My Officers and Troops in every Situation, and the general Publick Spirit of My People, which have never, at any Period, been more conspicuous.

I have observed, with the highest Satisfaction, the rapid and valuable Acquisitions made in the East and West Indies, the successful Operations which have been carried on in the Mediterranean, and the brilliant and decisive Victory obtained by My Fleet under the Command of Earl Howe, an Event which must ever be remembered as one of the most glorious in the Naval History of this Country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you My warmest Thanks for the Cheerfulness and Liberality with which you have granted the large Supplies which were necessary for the Service of the Year, and for the Maintenance of a Cause equally important to the Security and Happiness of every Class of My Subjects.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I feel it incumbent upon Me particularly to acknowledge your Diligence in the Investigation of the Designs which had been formed against the Government and Constitution of these Kingdoms, and to thank you for the Confidence you have reposed in Me on this Occasion. It will be a principal Object of My Attention to make a vigorous and prudent Use of the additional Powers vested in Me for the Protection and Security of My People ; and relying, as I do, with the utmost Confidence, on the uniform Loyalty and Publick Spirit of the great Body of My Subjects, I have no Doubt of speedily and effectually repressing every Attempt to disturb the Publick Peace, and of defeating the wicked Designs which have been in Agitation.

It must not, however, be forgotten, that these Designs against our Domestic Happiness are essentially connected with the System now prevailing in France, of which the Principles and Spirit are irreconcilably hostile to all regular and established Government : And that we are therefore called upon, by every Consideration of Our own internal Safety, to continue Our Efforts in Conjunction with My Allies, and to persevere with increased Vigour and Exertion in a Contest, from the successful Termination of which which We can alone expect to establish, on a solid and permanent Foundation, the future Security and Tranquillity either of this Country, or of the other Nations of Europe.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of August next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th of July, 1794,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable William Earl Fitzwilliam was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council; and was also by His Majesty declared Lord President of the Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable George John Earl Spencer was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Windham to be His Majesty's Secretary at War.

The King has been pleased to appoint Alexander Duke of Gordon, Knight of the Most Ancient Order of the Thistle, Keeper of His Majesty's Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be made use of in Scotland, in the Place of the Great Seal of Scotland.

Whitehall, July 12.

The following Address has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, High Steward of the Town of Kingston upon Hull: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingston upon Hull.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations on the late splendid Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Earl Howe. Confiding in your Majesty's wonted Anxiety to promote the Welfare and Happiness of your People, we cannot conceal the flattering Hope we entertain that the decisive Superiority of the British Navy, evinced by this auspicious Event, together with the valuable and important Acquisition of Territory, derived from the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the East and West Indies, will prove the Means of accelerating an honourable and lasting Peace.

Sensible as we are of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under a Form of Government which has so long been the Envy and Admiration of the World, we cannot refrain from gratefully acknowledging your Majesty's paternal Care, in the Means you have adopted to avert the Danger which threatened the Destruction of our admirable Constitution, and the utter Subversion of all Law and Order; to defend and to preserve Constitution in its genuine Purity, as established at the glorious Revolution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty we will most zealously co-operate in such Measures as shall be dictated by the Wisdom and Energy which distinguish your Majesty's Councils.

Given under our Common Seal this 1st Day of July, in the Thirty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Whitehall, July 12.

The King has been pleased to grant to Obadiah Legrew, of Bloomsbury Square in the County of Middlesex, Esq; and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and use the Surname of Hesse, in Addition to that of Legrew, and to bear the Arms of Hesse alone, out of Respect to his Grandfather Solomon Hesse, of Norton Falgate in the County of Middlesex, Esq; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in his College of Arms.

Naples, June 17.

On the 13th Ultimo, at Ten o'Clock at Night, all Naples was sensible of the Shock of an Earthquake, with an horizontal Motion, which lasted about Thirty Seconds. On Sunday last the 15th, about the same Hour, the Earthquake was repeated, which was followed by a violent Eruption of Mount Vesuvius. The Mountain opened in Two Places, towards the Center of it's Line, when Columns of black Smoke, mixed with liquid inflamed Matter, issued from each Mouth; soon after other Mouths were opened, and in a Line towards the Sea. The Explosions from all these Mouths, louder than Thunder, mixed with sharp Reports, as from the heaviest Pieces of Artillery, accompanied by a hollow subterraneous Rumour, like that of the Sea in a Storm, caused all the Houses to shake to their very Foundations. The Lavas gushing from these Mouths, after having run Four Miles in a few Hours, destroyed the greatest Part of the Town of Torre del Greco, about a Mile from Portici, and made a considerable Progress into the Sea, where it formed a Promontory about Ten Feet above it's Surface, and near a Quarter of a Mile broad, having heated the Water to such a Degree that a Hand could not be borne in it at the Distance of 100 Yards from the Lava.

It cannot yet be ascertained how many Lives have been lost in that City. Many Families are missing, but whether they have escaped, or are buried under the Ruins of their Houses, is not known. Naples is covered with Ashes, and every Object is obscured as in a thick Fog; but Vesuvius, though not visible, continues very turbulent, and more Mischiefs may be expected, although the Lavas are all stopped at this Moment. The Head of St. Januarius was carried in Procession Yesterday, and opposed to the Mountain by the Cardinal Archbishop of Naples, attended by many Thousands of the Inhabitants of this City.

Downing-Street, July 10, 1794.

Whereas it has been represented to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that in the Night of the 18th Ultimo, about Eleven o'Clock, a Lugger of about Thirty Tons Burthen, laden with Spirits and Tobacco, appeared off Sizewell, on the Coast of Suffolk; that being hailed, and required to shorten Sail by the Boat belonging to His Majesty's Excise Cutter the Lively, the said Lugger discharged a Volley of Musquetry into the said Boat, and continued to engage her with Small Arms for about Ten Minutes, when Two Men were wounded; that, upon the Boat returning with more Men, the said Lugger was found on Shore on Sizewell Beach, and immediately renewed the Firing, continued it for some Time, and wounded another Man; and that the Crew of the Lugger afterwards kept up a constant Fire on His Majesty's Cutter till about One o'Clock, when they quitted the said Lugger, and set her on Fire.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons under whose Direction or Conduct this Act of Violence and Felony has been committed, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders, who shall discover his, her or their Accomplices therein, (except the Master or Commander on Board the said Lugger) so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Master or Commander of the said Lugger; and also a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Mate or Second in Command of the said Lugger, to be paid by the Commissioners of the Excise on Conviction.

Whitehall, July 10, 1794.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a threatening incendiary Letter, of which a Copy is subjoined, was, on the 6th of July instant, sent by the Post from Lichfield, in Staffordshire, to William Tennant, Esq; of Aston Hall, near Lichfield aforesaid:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HENRY DUNDAS.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said William Tennant, Esq; hereby offers a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted) to be paid, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,
 With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, established in Ireland in the Years 1773, 1775 and 1777, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Midsummer last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lushington and Boldero, Bankers, No. 30, Cornhill, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 15th Instant to the 18th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon, until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 22d ditto to the 25th ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 29th ditto to the 1st of August, both Days inclusive, and from the 5th of August to the 8th ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of the Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class: And as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lushington and Boldero.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who, by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

By Order,

WM. CARR, Secretary.
