

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 19, to Tuesday July 22, 1794.

Whitehall, July 22.

THE Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, has been received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas from the Right Honorable Sir Gilbert Elliot, Bart. dated Corté, the 21st of June, 1794.

S I R,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that the Union of Corsica to the Crown of Great Britain is finally and formally concluded; and it is with the most sincere Satisfaction that I find myself enabled to assure you, that no National Act was ever sanctioned by a more unanimous Proceeding on the Part of those who were authorized to do it, or by a more universal Approbation, amounting, I may say, to Enthusiasm, on the Part of the People.

I have already had the Honor of transmitting to you a Copy of the Letter addressed by his Excellency My Lord Hood and myself to his Excellency General Paoli, dated the 21st of April. I have the Honor to inclose To-day a Copy of the Circular Letter, addressed by General Paoli to his Countrymen, referring to that which he had received from us, an Italian Translation of which was annexed.

Letters of Convocation were soon after issued for the Assembly of the General Consult to be held at Corté on Sunday the 8th of June, and were so framed as to procure the most general Representation known in this Island, every Community, which is the smallest Territorial Division, having sent it's Representative, and the State of Property being such, that although none but Landholders were Electors, every Man, almost without Exception, has voted.

The Letters of Convocation set forth the Occasion of their being called together; and the Minutes of Election in every Community expressed the general Nature of the Measure to which the Deputies were authorized to consent, specifying distinctly the Union of Corsica with Great Britain, and the Tender of the Crown to His Majesty.

I have the Honor to inclose Copies of these Proceedings.

The Deputies met at Corté in sufficient Numbers to constitute the Assembly, on Tuesday the 10th of June. Some Days were employed in verifying their Powers, and determining controverted Elections; after which they chose General Paoli as their President, and Mr. Pozzodi Bargo and Mr. Muselli their Secretaries.

On Saturday the 14th Instant General Paoli opened the Assembly by an excellent and eloquent Speech, stating concisely the principal Events which had occurred, and the principal Measures adopted by himself since the Separation of the last General Consult in May, 1793, the Occasion of their present Convocation, and the leading Points on which their Deliberations should turn.

The Assembly voted unanimously their Thanks to General Paoli, and a full and entire Approbation of all he had done, by virtue of the Powers formerly vested in him by the General Consult of 1793.

They then, 1st, declared unanimously the Separation of Corsica from France:

And 2dly, with the same Unanimity, and with the strongest Demonstrations of universal Satisfaction and Joy, voted the Union of Corsica to the Crown of Great Britain.

A Committee was then appointed to prepare the Articles of Union, and to consider the proper Mode of tendering the Crown to His Majesty.

It was declared that all who came should have Voices; and, in Fact, several Persons of Character and Talents, who were not even Members of the Assembly, were admitted to the Deliberations, and took a Share in the Discussions of the Committee.

The Articles underwent in the Committee a very full, free and intelligent Discussion; such as would have done Honour to any Assembly of Publick Men in any Country, and such as stamped the Result with the Sanction of a deliberate and informed, as well as a free and independent Assent.

The Report was voted with Unanimity in the Committee.

It was presented to the Assembly on Thursday the 17th, and on that and the following Day was opened, and most ably as well as fully expounded to them by Mr. Pozzo de Bargo. It was adopted with Unanimity, and with universal Applause; and Two Copies of the Act of Union were signed by every Member of the Consult.

On Thursday the 19th of June I received a Deputation from the Assembly, presenting to me a Copy of the Act of Union, and inviting me to return with them, that the Crown might be tendered to His Majesty by the Assembly itself, in the most solemn and authentic Form.

I accompanied the Deputation; and, in Presence of the Assembly, received from the President, his Excellency General Paoli, in the Name of the People, the Tender of the Crown and Sovereignty of Corsica to His Majesty.

His Excellency's Address to me is contained in the Minutes.

After addressing the Assembly in a Manner which appeared to me suitable to the Occasion, I pronounced, in His Majesty's Name, the Acceptation of the Crown, according to the Articles contained in the Act of Union.

I then took, in His Majesty's Name, the Oath prescribed, "to maintain the Liberties of Corsica, according to the Constitution and the Laws."

The President then took and administered to the Assembly the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity; after which I signed and sealed the Acceptation annexed to both Copies of the Act of Union, one of which I have now the Honour to transmit.

The Day following (Yesterday) Te Deum was sung in the Cathedral, accompanied by the Discharge of Artillery; and Prayers were offered up for His Majesty, by the Name of George the Third, King of Great Britain and Corsica. In the Evening the Town was illuminated, and the People demonstrated their Loyalty and Joy by every Means in their Power.

The Assembly has voted, this Day, an Address to His Majesty, expressive of their Gratitude, Loyalty and Attachment; and have deputed Four respectable Gentlemen to present it to His Majesty in London.

I cannot conclude this Dispatch without offering my very humble Congratulations on the fortunate Termination of this important and interesting Affair, at once advantageous, as I trust, to the Contracting Parties, honorable to His Majesty, and gratifying, in every View, to his Royal Feelings, as well as to those of his British Subjects.

The true Foundation and Basis of this Transaction has rested on the Confidence inspired by His Majesty's princely Virtues, and the exalted Reputation enjoyed throughout the World by the British Nation for every honorable and generous Quality. The People of Corsica have, on one Hand, done Homage to those Virtues, by confiding and tendering, even solicitously, the Sovereignty of their Country to His Majesty; they have, on the other Hand, heightened the Value of that Confidence, by evincing that it comes from Men who have rejected, with Horror, the poisonous and counterfeit Liberty of France, without being ignorant or careless of a well-ordered and constitutional Freedom.

His Majesty has acquired a Crown; those who bestow it have acquired Liberty. The British Nation has extended it's political and commercial Sphere by the Accession of Corsica: Corsica has added new Securities to her ancient Possessions, and has opened fresh Fields of Prosperity and Wealth, by her liberal Incorporation with a vast and powerful Empire.

This Dispatch will be delivered to you by Mr. Petriconi, a young Gentleman of this Country, who has served with Distinction throughout the War, under the Orders of General Paoli, and particularly in the Sieges of Bastia and St. Fiorenzo.

I beg Leave to refer to him for any Particulars which I may have omitted, and to recommend him to the Honor of your Attention during his Residence in England.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GENERAL PAOLI to his COUNTRYMEN.

Furiani, May 1, 1794.

Most dearly beloved Countrymen,

THE unabated Confidence with which you have honoured me, and the Solicitude I have ever had to promote your Interests and to ensure your Liberty, prescribe to me the Obligation of stating to you the present Situation of Public Affairs.

You remember how many cruel and treacherous Arrangements were made by the Three Commissioners of the French Convention who were sent over to our Island; and in what Manner they attempted to concentrate the Powers of Government in a small Number of their Satellites, destined to be the Instruments of those Violences and Cruelties, which were to be exercised against all well-meaning Persons, and against the Nation at large.

The unjust Decree which ordered my Arrest, and my Transfer to the Bar of the Assembly, was the first Attempt directed by them against your Liberty. You unanimously declared yourselves, and humbly remonstrated against an Act designed to facilitate the Execution of your Enemy's Plots: Finally, you, in a General Assembly, declared your Indignation at this Act of Injustice; and you adopted, at that Moment, such Resolutions as were consistent with your Dignity and with the Public Welfare.

I accepted, as a distinguishing Proof of your Confidence, the Commission you were pleased to confer upon me, for providing, in those critical Circumstances, for the Maintenance of your Safety and Liberty: Anxious that you should not be exposed to any Danger, unless Indignation and Necessity commanded you to resist, I tried every Means which Prudence and Moderation suggested to me at that Time; but neither your just Reclamations, nor my Innocence, were sufficient to recall to Sentiments of Rectitude and Humanity a violent and sanguinary Faction, irritated by the noble Resistance you had made, and resolved to accomplish your Destruction; for which Purpose the Subversion of the Government was ordered, and the Members of it proscribed, conjointly with many other zealous Patriots: The Nation was declared in a State of Rebellion; Orders were given to reduce it by Force of Arms, and to treat it with the bloody Rigour of Revolutionary Laws.

Roused by these Causes; by the endless Succession of Destruction and Ruin, which characterizes the Conduct of those Persons who exercise the Powers of Government in France, and by the Destruction of all Religion and of every Form of Worship, enforced and proclaimed among the People with unexampled Impiety, every Corsican felt the Necessity of separating from the French, and of guarding against the poisonous Influence of their Errors.

The Acts of Hostility committed by the French, and those Corsican Traitors who had taken Refuge in the Garrisons of Calvi, St. Fiorenzo and Bastia, compelled us to repel them by Force of Arms. I have seen, with infinite Satisfaction, during the Course of a whole Year, that your ancient Bravery and Attachment to your Country were not in the least diminished. In various Encounters the Enemy have been defeated, although numerous and supported by Artillery: You have treated the Prisoners, taken in the Heat of Battle, with Generosity; whilst the Enemy have, in cold Blood, massacred our Prisoners, who were so unfortunate as to fall into their Hands: In all these Agitations we have kept ourselves united, and exempt from the Horrors of Licentiousness and Anarchy; a happy Prefage of your future Fate, and an irrefragable Proof that you are deserving of true Liberty, and that you will know how to preserve it unswayed by Licentiousness and Dissentions.

In such a State of Things, a becoming Diffidence made me, nevertheless, apprehend that the Enemy would increase in Force, and attempt to carry into Execution the destructive Plans they had formed against you: Under these Circumstances I felt the Necessity of Foreign Assistance; and, in Conformity to your general Wishes, and to the public Opinion and universal Expectation, I had Recourse to the King, and to the generous and powerful Nation, which had, on other Occasions, protected the Remains of our Liberty; a Measure dictated by the public Safety, and which I took only when every conciliatory Offer had been obstinately rejected, and every Hope of obtaining Moderation or Justice from the French Convention was extinct.

His Britannick Majesty's Arms have made their Appearance in your Support: His Ships and Troops are employed with you to drive from our Country the common Enemy, and the Blood of Britons and Corsicans is conjointly shed for the Liberty of this Island. Our Enterprize has already been crowned with happy Events, and draws near to a fortunate Completion.

This pleasing Aspect of Affairs has determined me to turn my Thoughts to the most efficacious Means of establishing a permanent Freedom, and of securing our Island from the various Events which, till this Moment, have kept us in Agitation.

The Protection of the King of Great Britain, and a political Union with the British Nation, of which the Prosperity and Power, uninterrupted for Ages, are to the Universe Proofs of the Excellency of it's Government, have appeared to me to accord with the Happiness and Safety of Corsica. The universal Opinion on this Head, evinced by the unreserved Inclination you have shewn, and strengthened by your Gratitude for Benefits received, appears fortunately to concur with mine. I have therefore made the proper Overtures to His Majesty the King of Great Britain, with a View to establish this desirable Union.

With a Satisfaction never to be erased from my Mind, I now behold our Wishes anticipated, and our Hopes realized: The Memorial which has been transmitted to me by their Excellencies, the Admiral commanding the Fleet, and the Minister Plenipotentiary of His Majesty, affords us the Opportunity of establishing this Union in the Manner best adapted to the Benefit of both Nations, and to the Honour of His Majesty. I cannot better make known to you their Excellencies Sentiments, than by a faithful Translation of their Memorial.

The Nature of the present Address does not permit me to enlarge upon the Benefits of this Union, which tends to conciliate the most extensive Political and Civil Liberty with personal Security. You are convinced of these Truths, and will regulate your Conduct accordingly: I nevertheless avail myself of this Opportunity to declare to you, that, in taking the English Constitution for your Model, you will proceed upon the most solid Principles that Philology, Policy, and Experience, have ever been known to combine for the Happiness of a great People, reserving to yourselves the Power of adapting them to your own peculiar Situation, Customs, and Religion, without being exposed, hereafter, to the Venality of a Traitor, or to the Ambition of a powerful Usurper.

A Matter of such Importance ought nevertheless to be discussed, and agreed to by you, in a General Assembly, at which I entreat you to assist by your Deputies, on Sunday the 8th of the ensuing Month of June, in the City of Corté. The provisional Government will then suggest to you the Form and Mode of the Elections.

I beseech you to impress yourselves with the great Importance of the Affairs on which you have to determine; and, on that Account, let it be your Care to select Persons of Zeal and acknowledged Probity; and, as much as may be in your Power, reputable Heads of Families, interested in good Government and the Prosperity of the Country. Let Moderation and Propriety of Conduct prevail in your Assemblies, that no Person among you may have the Mortification to remark any Disorder in the most happy Moment which has occurred in the Course of our Revolutions, and in passing the most important Act of Civil Society. In the mean Time, let every Man suggest whatever he may conceive most useful to the Country, in order to communicate his Opinion to the Nation, legally represented and assembled.

Corsica is now justly regarded by Foreign Powers as a Free Nation; her Resolutions will, I hope, be suitable to her Situation, and dictated by Wisdom and by a Love for the Publick Good.

With respect to myself, my dearly beloved Countrymen, after having devoted every Moment of my Life to your Happiness, I shall esteem myself the happiest of Mankind, if, through the Means I have derived from your Confidence, I can obtain, for our Country, the Opportunity of forming a free and lasting Government, and of preserving to Corsica, it's Name, it's Unity, and it's Independence, whilst the Names of the Heroes who have spilt their Blood in it's Support and Defence, will be, for future Generations, Objects of noble Emulation and grateful Remembrance.

(Signed)

PASQUALE DE PAOLI.

Copy of a Letter from their Excellencies Lord Hood and Sir Gilbert Elliot, Bart. to General Paoli.

SIR, Victory, Bastia Roads, April 21, 1794.

YOUR Excellency having been pleased to represent to us, on Behalf of the Corsican Nation, that the intolerable and perfidious Tyranny of the French Convention having driven that brave People to take up Arms in their own Defence; they were determined to shake off altogether the unjust Dominion of France, and to assert the Right of a Free and Independent Nation; but being sensible that their own Efforts might be insufficient to contend with France, or other powerful Nations, who might undertake hostile Attempts against them; and confiding implicitly in the Magnanimity and Princely Virtues of His Britannick Majesty, and in the Bravery and Generosity of his People; they were desirous of forming a perpetual Union with the British Nation, under the mild and equitable Government of His Majesty and his Successors, for the better Protection, and for the perpetual Security and Preservation of their Independence and Liberties: And your Excellency having, on these Considerations, solicited, in the Name of the People of Corsica, His Majesty's present Assistance, and His Royal Protection in Time to come, we took the same into our most serious Consideration; and knowing His Majesty's gracious and affectionate Disposition towards the Corsican Nation, and his Readiness to contribute in every Way, which is consistent with Justice and the Interests of his Subjects, to the Happiness of that brave People; and being invested with sufficient Powers for that Purpose, we determined to comply with your Request, and have accordingly furnished the Aid of His Majesty's Naval and Military Forces in the Mediterranean, towards expelling the common Enemy from the Island of Corsica.

We

We have since been honoured with more special Powers and Authority to concert with your Excellency and the People of Corsica, and finally to conclude, on His Majesty's Behalf, the particular Form and Mode of Relation which shall take Place between the Two Nations.

It is with the most lively Satisfaction we acquaint your Excellency, that we have it in Command from His Majesty to assent, on his Part, to such a System as will cement the Union of our Two Nations under a Common Sovereign, and, at the same Time, secure for ever the Independence of Corsica, and the Preservation of her ancient Constitution, Laws and Religion.

With whatever Satisfaction His Majesty has graciously assented to Propositions, which promise, perhaps for the first Time, not only to afford to this Island the present Blessings of Tranquillity and Peace, and a sudden Increase of Prosperity and Wealth, but also to establish it's National Independence and Happiness on a secure and lasting Foundation; His Majesty is, however, determined to conclude nothing without the general and free Consent of the People of Corsica.

We therefore request your Excellency to take the proper Steps for submitting these important Matters to their Judgment; and as the small Number of the Enemy, at present invested by the British and Corsican Troops, and which must soon either be destroyed or yield to superior Force, can no longer give any Uneasiness to this Country, but the Freedom and Deliverance of Corsica is in Effect accomplished, we beg Leave to submit to your Excellency, whether it may not be desirable to take the earliest Measures for terminating these interesting Concerns, and for adding a formal Sanction to that Union, which is already established in the Hearts of all our Countrymen.

We have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) HOOD.
GILBERT ELLIOT.

*His Excellency General Paoli,

TRANSLATION.

The General Council charged with the Provisional Government of Corsica, to the Municipal Officers, Curates of Parishes, and their Fellow Countrymen.

Beloved Countrymen,

THE God of Armies, Protector of the most just Cause, has favoured your Efforts.

The audacious Army, whose Fury and Violence was excited by the impious Faction which proposed to itself to abolish all Order, Customs and Religion in Europe, will shortly be removed from our Territories.

To secure a more speedy Success, Providence has given you the Support of a powerful Nation, accustomed to respect Laws, and a legitimate Power, which has generously assisted you to extricate yourselves from the tyrannical Anarchy of the present Republic of France.

That Nation, and it's King, offer you the Advantages of a lasting Union and constant Protection.

The happy Influence of our glorious Countryman, General de Paoli, added to the Resources of his Genius, and excited by the Dangers of his own Country, have accelerated this happy Event; in short, brave Corsicans, We are free.

By our Constancy, Firmness, and Courage, we have acquired the Enjoyment of the Advantages we inherit from our Ancestors, Liberty and Religion.

However, it would be but little to have regained this noble Succession, if our Efforts and Prudence were unable to secure it for ever.

To insure the Success of those Efforts, and to direct our Prudence, a perfect Union is necessary; our general Resolutions must be formed with a View to our present Situation and our future Expectations.

The Corsicans must therefore prescribe the Form of Administration and Government they chuse to adopt, enunciate, or approve of; and the Principles on which it is to be established, or on which their Legislation is to be fixed.

Finally, Beloved Countrymen, the most important Object is, a speedy Union of the People, and the last Act of the Provisional Administration you adopted, ordains us to support the paternal and patriotic Intentions of General de Paoli.

In this Invitation we can give you but a faint Idea of the important Functions you will confide to your Representatives in the next Assembly; however, you no Doubt know the indispensable Necessity of adopting Measures for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity and of a Form of Government adapted to our Customs, Powers, and Situation, and finally to the various Relations that will hereafter be established between Corsicans; the English Nation and their King feel, even more than others, the Necessity that such Deputies should be appointed among our Countrymen as shall have given evident Proofs of their Patriotism, and of their Desire to act with a Zeal adequate to the Nature and Importance of their Mission, for establishing and securing by the new Order of Things, not only for the present, but in future, public Felicity. This last Consideration, in case you are sensible of it, will, we are in Hopes, determine you to prefer one of the most respectable Heads of Family in each of your respective Communities, as a Representative on such solemn and important Occasions in Council.

In this Union, which will form the most memorable Crisis of our Annals, the Objects must be treated with that Form and Order due to the Dignity of the Representatives of a Free People.

The ancient Assemblies of our Nation, at the Time of the glorious Government of it's deserving General, were only composed of One Deputy from each Community. Finding it necessary to avoid the Inconvenience of repeated Elections, we have thought it expedient in this Circumstance to invite you to adopt this ancient Custom, chiefly on reflecting, that as Harvest is approaching, the Absence of Chiefs from their Families, added to the Expences of the Journey, and Time spent in the Election, would be of Prejudice to their Affairs and Domestic Interests; the People will therefore establish Constitutionally the Number of it's Representatives for the successive Reunions.

The zealous and good Citizens will, however, be enabled to lay before the Council their Knowledge of all important Subjects, which will be taken into Consideration and discussed accordingly, but they will have no Part in it's Deliberations.

The General Council therefore invites all Communities of Corsica to assemble on Sunday the First of June, each to appoint, according to the Form of Election hereunto annexed, it's Representative at the General Council, and the General Assembly of the Clergy to take Place on the Sunday following, the 8th of June.

The Municipal Officers and Parishes of the respective Communities, are charged with the Publication and Distribution of both General Paoli's Circular and this.

Corté, May 9, 1794.

For the General Council of the Government.

Signed,

[A great Number of Names.]

TRANSLATION.

Speech made in the General Assembly of Corsica, on the Acceptation of the Crown and Constitution of that Island, by his Excellency Sir Gilbert Elliot.

GENTLEMEN,

IN availing myself, for the first Time, in the Midst of the Corsican Nation, of the Privilege of calling you Brothers and Fellow Citizens, a Reflection, which will naturally occur to every one, excites in me the most heartfelt Satisfaction; independent of the reciprocal political Advantages which we may derive from so close a Connection, I f.e. on the present Occasion. every Thing that can render it more preci us and more estimable by the Sentiments of Confidence and of Affection, the first and pure Principles of our Union, which they will for ever continue to cement and consolidate.

This remarkable Truth, which it is impossible to overlook, cannot be mentioned without a strong Emotion of Sensibility and Joy. Our Two Nations have, for a long Period, been distinguished by a reciprocal and remarkable Esteem. Without anticipating the happy End to which this instinctive Partiality, this sympathetic Attraction, may some Day lead us, we have given to each other Instances of Confidence on every Occasion, yet no Relations have hitherto subsisted between us, except those of reciprocal and voluntary good Offices. Our Minds have been prepared by Providence for the Fate which awaited us; and the Divine Goodness, intending our Union, has ordained that it should be anticipated and brought about (if I may so express myself,) by a Similarity of Character, and by a Conformity of Views and Principle, and, above all, by a pleasing Exchange of friendly Services.

This sacred Compact, which I received from your Hands, is not a cold and interested Agreement between two Parties who meet by Accident, and form a Contract founded on the Impulse of the Moment, or on a selfish and temporary Policy.—No; the Event of this happy Day is only the Completion of Wishes we had previously formed; To-day our Hands are joined, but our Hearts have long been united, and our Motto should be Amici & non di ventura.

However seducing this Prospect of our Happiness may appear, I trust (and it is important for us to know it, as we assuredly do) that it does not depend on Sentiment alone; but that it rests on the solid Basis of the true Interests and permanent Felicity of the Two Nations.

I will not mention to you the Interests of Great Britain upon this Occasion; not that they are of little Consequence, but being of a Nature purely political, the Subject would be too cold, too dry, for this important Day. Besides, it is not necessary on this Occasion to appreciate them in Detail. I shall confine myself to this Remark, that every possible Advantage, which Great Britain could have in View from her Union with Corsica, is essentially attached to your political and absolute Independence of every European Power, and that these Advantages are not only compatible with your Interests, but cannot for the most Part exist, and still less flourish, but in Proportion to your Prosperity.

On your Part, what is necessary to render you a happy People? I will tell you in two Words—Liberty at Home, and Security Abroad.

Your Liberty will not be exposed to any Encroachments from a Monarch, who by his own Experience and the Example of his Ancestors for several Generations, is persuaded that the Liberty and the Prosperity of his People is the only Foundation of the Power, the Glory, and the Splendor of the Throne. A King who has ever governed according to the Laws, and whose Sceptre is at once strengthened by the Privileges and embellished by the Happiness of his Subjects: Here I might expatiate on the august Virtues of that Monarch whom you have chosen for your own; but they are known to all his Subjects: You will therefore become acquainted with them by a happy and certain Experience, and this Testimony will be far more faithful than my weak Voice.

It would not, however, be right that your Liberty should depend solely on the personal Virtues of the Monarch. You have therefore been careful to ensure it by the wise Constitution and fundamental Laws of our Union, which, in my Opinion, constitute so essential a Part of the Act you present to me this Day, that I could not (without violating the Confidence reposed in me by my Sovereign,) agree to a System which might have degenerated into Tyranny; a Condition equally unfavourable to the Happiness of him who exercises it, and of those who endure it.

If His Majesty, therefore, accepts the Crown which you have agreed to offer him, it is because he is determined to protect, and never to enslave those from whom he receives it; and, above all, because it is given, and not seized upon by Violence.

For external Security, you wanted nothing but the constant and active Alliance of a Maritime Power: This Act ensures it to you; and whilst you enjoy at Home Peace and Tranquillity, which the Enemy will no longer be able to interrupt, you will share with us the Treasures of Trade, and the Sovereignty of the Seas.

From this Day therefore you are quiet and free. To preserve these Blessings, you have only to preserve your ancient Virtues, Courage, and the sacred Love of your Country.—These are the native Virtues of your Soil; they will be enriched by those which accompany our Union, and which you will derive from our Industry, from our long Experience, (that true Source of political Wisdom) and from our Love of Liberty, at once enthusiastic and enlightened. I speak of that Liberty which has for it's Object to maintain your Civil Rights, and the Happiness of the People; not to serve Ambition and Vice: That Liberty, which is inseparable from Religion, Order, Respect for the Laws, and a sacred Regard for Property, the first Principles of every human Society; that Liberty which abhors every Kind of Despotism and especially that most terrible of all Despotism, which arises from the unrestrained Violence of the human Passions. Such are the Virtues which belong both to you and to us; on their happy Mixture and Influence on each other depends the Prosperity of Corsica. Immediate Liberty, and a progressive and encreasing Prosperity: Such is the Text; to which I hope and venture to predict that our Behaviour to each other, and our common Destinies will always prove a faithful and a satisfactory Illustration.

Whitehall, July 21.

The following Address has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, Close and Neighbourhood, happy in every Opportunity of testifying our Affection and Zeal to your Majesty's Person and Government, most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the very signal Victory obtained over the French Fleet on the 1st of June by the British Navy under the Command of Admiral Earl Howe.

We embrace this Opportunity likewise to congratulate your Majesty on the Conquests which have been made by the Fleet and Army in the West Indies, under the Command of Sir John Jervis and Sir Charles Grey.

We ardently invoke that Providence which disposes your Royal Breast to promote and secure the Welfare and Happiness of all your Subjects, that these brilliant Successes of your Majesty's Arms may be the Means of checking the violent and sanguinary Measures of the Enemy, and of restoring to all the Belligerent Powers the Blessings of Peace, and that your Majesty may very long enjoy the Affections of a free, great and loyal People.
