Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 5, to Saturday August 9, 1794.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th of August, 1794,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of this instant August, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Second Day of October next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th of August, 1794,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Henry Cavendish, commonly called Marquis of Titchfield, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th of August, 1794,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in many of His Majesty's Vice-Admiralty Courts in the West Indies, Sentences of Condemnation have passed against Ships and Goods belonging to the Subjects of the United States of America; and whereas, from Ignorance of the Rules respecting the Times of Appealing, or from Inability to find the Security required, or from other just and reasonable Impediments, the Claimants have been prevented from duly entering and prosecuting their Appeals from the said Sentences: And whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty, on their Behalf, that they are desirous of entering and prosecuting the same; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Parties shall be admitted to their respective Appeals, notwithstanding the ordinary Times for entering and prosecuting the same may have elapsed, provided the same are entered and prosecuted within a reasonable Time, to be approved by the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Causes.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th of August, 1794,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under
