

Regiment, now assembled at Marygat, under the Command of Captain Bell and Captain Buchanan, together with about Twenty Inhabitants of this District, as well as some from Capeferre, to move this Evening, with the utmost Dispatch, to your Relief; as they will, if possible, be all mounted, I expect they will be with you Tomorrow Morning.

This Force will be supported by Three Companies of Light Infantry, likewise mounted, who will march from Trois Rivières this Evening at Five o'Clock, and will not be long after the first Reinforcement.

A Quantity of Ammunition went through this Place an Hour ago for you. I expect more will soon follow. The Colonel is sorry he had no Intimation from you of your Situation, as, if he had, he might have taken Measures for your Relief.

I have the Honor of being,

S I R,

Your most obedient Servant,

(Signed)

R. S. Donken,

Acting Major of Brigade.

Lieutenant-Colonel Drummond.

Point à Pitre, Guadaoupe, June 13, 1794.

I Have some Force already at the Town and Battery of Petit Bourgh, and shall make a Landing on the Side of Fort Fleur d'Épée and Point à Pitre in a Day or Two; and I hope to regain our Conquest before any Length of Time can elapse, as every Effort will be made to accomplish it speedily.

Pointe à Pitre, Guadaoupe, June 14, 1794.

THE Enemy having crossed the Mouth of the Harbour from the Town of Point à Pitre, and encamped at the Post of St. Jean or Gabaree, the opposite Point, I judged it a favourable Opportunity of attacking them, which was done accordingly at Eleven o'Clock last Night, under the Command of Brigadier-General Dundas, who executed this Service with such Spirit and good Conduct as to kill a considerable Number of them, and the others fled in the utmost Conflernation, took to the Water to swim across the Harbour, in which Situation they were fired on, and many more killed. Brevet Major Ross, of the 31st Regiment, who was with the Light Infantry, behaved with great Gallantry and good Conduct on this Occasion, as he has done on every other. The Enemy's Camp, Colours, Baggage, &c. with one Piece of Cannon, fell into our Hands, but no Prisoners that I have yet heard of; a Party was however in pursuit of those who had not thrown themselves into the Water, and fled with equal Precipitation by Land. A Serjeant, Corporal, and Eight Privates of our Light Infantry, are wounded, but not one killed. This Report is just brought to me by Captain Ogle, one of my Aide-de-Camps, who was present.

In Justice to the Legislature of St. Christopher's, with President Stanley at their Head, and that of Antigua, with President Byam at their Head, I have to report the most laudable Exertions in them to raise Seamen for the Navy on this Service, nor have they been unsuccessful.
