Whitehall, August 19.

ON Friday last, at Four o'Clock in the Morning, Their Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses Prince Ernest and the Princesses, set out from Windsor, and arrived at Gloucester House, Weymouth, at about Half an Hour past Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, in perfect Health.

Horse-Guards, Whitehall, August 19.

A Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, was Yesterday received from General Sir Charles Grey, K. B. by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

S I R,

Berville Camp, opposite Pointe à Petre, Guadeloupe, July 8, 1794.

IN my Dispatch of the 13th Ultimo I had the Honour to acquaint you of my Intention to land on the Side of Fort Fleur d'Épée, and try to regain Grand Terre, so soon as what Force could be drawn from the other Islands should be collected; accordingly, having been joined by most Part of it, I ordered Brigadier-General Symes to make a Landing, with the Grenadiers under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Fisher, and the Light Infantry under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Gomm, which was effected, without Loss or Opposition, early in the Morning of the 19th Ultimo, at Ance Canot, under Cover of Two Frigates, the Solebay, Captain Kelly, and the Winchelsea, Captain Lord Garlies, the Enemy retiring; and the same Troops moved on to Gozier, and took Possession of it in the Afternoon, which the Enemy abandoned, burning some Houses. As the Enemy had Possession of a Situation that commanded the Road to Fort Fleur d'Épée, I detached Three Companies of Grenadiers and Three Companies of Light Infantry, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Fisher, who marched, at Twelve o'Clock in the Night between the 25th and 26th Ultimo, by a circuitous and most difficult Path, coming on the Back of the Enemy at Six o'Clock the next Morning, who fled. One of their Sentries fell into his Hands, and he took Possession of that and Two other commanding Heights. Having sent Two Amuzettes to that Detachment the same Day, the Enemy made an Attack upon the Escort when mounting the Hill on which Lieutenant-Colonel Fisher's Detachment was posted, who attacked and repulsed them.

The Enemy continuing in Possession of a Chain of high and woody Grounds, with difficult Passes between our Post and Morne Mascot, the Remainder of the Grenadiers and Light Infantry, with Captain Robertson's Battalion of Seamen, were pushed forward to the same Post, and on the 27th Ultimo the Enemy were attacked on all Sides by Brigadier-General Symes, with the Grenadiers and Light Infantry, completely routed driven down to Morne Mascot, where they again made Resistance, but being charged with Bayonets they fled into Fort Fleur d'Épée. Having collected considerable Force from the Town of Point à Petre and the Neighbourhood, arming Blacks, Mulattoes and all Colours, they advanced in great Numbers the same Afternoon, under Cover of their Guns from Fort Fleur d'Épée, which so completely raked the Top of the Hill, that the Grenadiers could hardly appear on it, until the Enemy were also there, and attacked that Part of Morne Mascot where Lieutenant-Colonel Fisher was posted with the Grenadiers, when an obstinate Engagement took Place, which lasted for some Time, the Front being within a few Yards of each other, and the Enemy's Number very superior; but the Grenadiers forced them down the Hill again with great Slaughter. The 29th following, the Enemy, having collected a still greater Force, cloathing Mulattoes and Blacks in the National Uniform, to the Amount of 1500 Men, again attacked the same Post; and at this Time they had a Field Piece on the Right, which enfiladed the Grenadiers, in Addition to their Guns in Front, which fired Round and Grape from the Fort. Having observed the Enemy making a Movement towards the Rear of the Grenadiers, to take Possession of a House and strong Ground, which the 2d Battalion of Light Infantry, under Major Ross, was then ordered to occupy, but having some Distance to go, Four Companies of Grenadiers were detached under Major Irving from the Post on Mascot, before the Engagement commenced, who seized the Post in the Rear, lest the Enemy might get there before our Light Infantry, which had, however, reduced our Force on Mascot at the Time of it's being attacked; but Major Ross, with the 2d Light Infantry, reaching the Post in the Rear soon after Major Irving, the latter instantly returned to Mascot with the Four Companies of Grenadiers, and having rejoined when the Engagement had lasted for some Time, the Enemy were charged with Bayonets, and driven from the Height with still greater Slaughter than on their former Attack. During the first Day's Engagement Lieutenant-Colonel Filher was struck with Grape Shot, occasioning Contusions only, and on the last his Horse was killed under him. During this Time Major Ross, with the 2d Light Infantry, was also engaged with the Enemy, and repulsed them with Loss on their Side. The rainy Season being already set in, and this being the last Month for acting before the Hurricane Season, at the same Time that the Troops were exposed alternately to heavy Rains and a vertical Sun, together with the Circumstances of the great Slaughter recently suffered by the Enemy in the Two Attacks they made on Morne Mascot, determined me to make an Effort for finishing the Campaign at once; and I concerted Measures accordingly, ordering Brigadier General Symes to march in the Evening of the 1st Instant from Morne Mascot, with the 1st Battalion of Grenadiers, the 1st and 2d Battalions of Light Infantry, and the 1st Battalion of Seamen, commanded by Captain Robertson, who attacked the Town of Point à Petre before Day of the 2d Instant; but being misled by our Guides, the Troops entered the Town at the Part where they were most exposed to the Enemy's Cannon and small Arms, and where it was not possible to scale the Walls of the Fort; in consequence of which they suffered considerably from Round and Grape Shot, together with small Arms fired from the Houses, &c. and a Retreat became unavoidable, the more so, as the Troops are entirely worn out by Fatigue and the Climate, so as to be quite exhausted, and totally incapable of further Exertion at present. It gives me great Concern to add, that Brigadier-General Symes was wounded; Lieutenant-Colonel Gomm (an excellent Officer) and some other meritorious Officers were killed on this Attack; as was also Captain Robertson of the Navy, a valuable Officer, and a great Loss to the Service. Enclosed is Brigadier-General Symes's Report, accounting for the Failure of that Enterprize. I had every Thing in Readiness at the Post of Morne Mascot for an Attack upon Fort Fleur d'Épée, by Storm, with the 2d Battalion of Grenadiers, 65th Regiment, Six Companies of Grande Terre, and the 2d Battalion of Seamen, commanded by Captain Sawyer; waiting, as concerted, until I should hear whether Brigadier-General Symes, with his Division, succeeded, or had taken Post near the Town of Point à Petre; but his Failure obliged me to relinquish the meditated Attack upon Fort Fleur d'Épée, by laying me under the Necessity of detaching the 2d Battalion of Grenadiers, to cover the Retreat of Brigadier-General Symes's Division.

The Season for Action in the Field being past, and the Troops debilitated by the Fatigue of a long Campaign and the Climate, so as to become unable for further Contest, without Shelter from the scorching Heat of a vertical Sun, or the heavy Rains now so frequent, there remained no Choice but to retreat, and I brought the Troops, with every Thing we had at Morne Mascot, back to Gozier, on the Night of the 2d Instant, detaching the 2d Battalion of Light Infantry and Loyalists, by Petit Bourge, to Berville, &c. on the 3d following, to secure Bassé Terre; and embarking the Remainder of the Troops during the ensuing Night.

I have now occupied the Ground with my whole Force between St. John's Pointe and Bay Mahault, having erected Batteries with Twenty-four Pounders, and Mortar Batteries, at Pointe Saron and Pointe St. John, opposite to the Town of Pointe à Petre and the Shipping, both of which I shall endeavour to destroy; and which Situation gives perfect Security to Bassé Terre.

As the Harbour is also perfectly blocked up by the Admiral, the Enemy must suffer every Distress.

I transmit a Return of our Killed and Wounded.

I have appointed Colonel Colin Graham, of the 21st Regiment, Brigadier-General, and to command the Troops in Bassé Terre, Guadeloupe, of which I hope His Majesty will approve.

When the Intelligence was received that Grand Terre had been retaken by the French, Lieutenant-Colonels Coote and Craddock were both at St. Christopher's, so far on their Way to England, for the Recovery of their Health, having had my Leave of Absence after the Close of our first Campaign; and although they were most dangerously ill of a Fever, from which they were then only recovering, they rejoined me, and have been very essentially useful and serviceable on this Occasion, when Officers were so much wanted, and especially Officers of their Merit and Ability.

Lieutenant-Colonel Coote will have the Honor to deliver this Dispatch, an Officer of infinite Merit, who returns Home for the Re-establishment of his Health; and he is well qualified to give you any further Information that may be required.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES GREY.

P. S. I cannot sufficiently acknowledge the great Assistance I have received from every Officer and Seaman in the Navy. The Unanimity which has prevailed between them and the Army upon this, as upon every other Occasion during the Course of the Campaign, could not be exceeded; nor can I omit once more to express my warmest Approbation of the gallant Zeal and good Conduct of every Officer and Soldier of this brave Army, who have, through a Campaign in the worst of Climates, endured Hardships unparralleled.

S I R, Gozier, July 2, 1794.

IN Obedience to your Commands, I marched at Eight o'Clock Yesterday Evening from the Heights of Maficot, with the 1st Battalion of Light Infantry, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Gomm, the 2d commanded by Major Rofs, the Battalion of Grenadiers, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Fisher, and the 1st Battalion of Seamen, commanded by Captain Robertson of the Veteran, to attack the Enemy at Pointe à Petre; and if we could approach it undiscovered to possess ourselves of the Morne de Gouvernement, which commands the Town, and which they had taken much Pains to strengthen; or, if that was not found practicable, to destroy the Provisions which had been landed from the Ships and deposited there.

The Troops marched with the utmost Silence through deep Ravines, in Hopes of reaching the Enemy undiscovered; but our Guides, whether from Ignorance, or the Darkness of the Night, led us in Front to those Posts of the Enemy, which it had been proposed to pass by, and which they assured was practicable: To effect our Purpose by Surprise became therefore impossible.

At Four o'Clock in the Morning we approached the Out-Posts of the Enemy, which were attacked and driven in by Major Rofs and the 2d Battalion of Light Infantry, with that Gallantry and good Conduct, which, in the Course of the Campaign, has so often distinguished that Officer and Corps, which entered the Town under a heavy Fire from Morne de Gouvernement, and cleared the Streets with their Bayonets.

The Morne de Gouvernement was to have been attacked by this Battalion; but the Noise of our Approach had permitted them so strongly to reinforce it, joined with the extreme Difficulty of Access, which admits only Two to approach in Front, rendered the Success of attacking it highly impossible.

To destroy the Stores, in which the Provisions were lodged, we were then to direct our Efforts, which I have no Doubt would have been attended with the most complete Success, the Town being at this Time in our Possession, and Lieutenant-Colonel Gomm, Captain Robertson of the Veteran, and Captain Burnett, Assistant Quarter-Master-General, being charged with the Execution of it; when, by a Fatality as unforeseen as impossible to guard against, we were prevented from completing what carried so fair an Appearance of Success.

Our Troops, to whom you have so strictly enjoined, in Night Attacks, never to fire, who have uniformly succeeded so often by a strict Observance to that Rule, and who, till this Moment, had not in the Course of the Night fired a Shot, most unfortunately began to load and fire upon each other, nor could all the Efforts of their Officers put a Stop to it.

I was at this Time disabled by a severe Wound in the Right Arm, and much bruised by my Horse, killed at the same Time, and falling upon me. Finding it impossible, under these Circumstances, to complete the Destruction of the Enemy's Stores, which we had begun to effect, the Troops were ordered to leave the Town, and form on the Heights at the Post of Caille; from whence in approaching we had driven the Enemy, and taken Two Pieces of Cannon: At this Post, while the Troops advanced into the Town, a Reserve of Four Companies of Grenadiers with Eighty Seamen had been placed.

As the Enemy made every Effort to harass us in our Return, it became necessary to occupy with Care the Ground by which it could be most effectually prevented: In this Disposition of the Troops, I received the most essential and judicious Assistance from Lieutenant-Colonel Fisher and Major Rofs, who, though wounded, continued with the Troops, and rendered the most essential Services. The Zeal and Gallantry shown by all the Officers who composed the Corps could not have been exceeded.

It is with extreme Concern I inform you that our Loss has been considerable; and with infinite Regret I find that Lieutenant-Colonel Gomm, and Captain Robertson of the Veteran, both eminently distinguished for their Gallantry and good Conduct, are unfortunately of that Number.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) RICHARD SYMES,
Brigadier-General.

Admiralty-Office, August 19, 1794.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir John Jervis, K. B. to Mr. Stephens, dated off Pointe à Pitre, Guadeloupe, July 6, 1794.

SINCE my Letter of the 13th Ultimo, by the Dashwood Packet, every Effort has been made to collect a Body of Troops from the different Islands, to enable the General to make a Descent on Grande Terre. The Veteran arrived on the 17th of June with with Two Flank Companies from St. Vincent's, and Four from St. Lucia, and Two Battalions of Seamen, under the Command of Captain Lewis Robertson of the Veteran, and Captain Charles Sawyer of the Vanguard, were attached to the Army. These Two Ships, with the Solebay and Winchelsea, were ordered up to l'Ance à Canot, between this Road and St. Ann's, under the Command of Rear-Admiral Thompson, that Bay being judged a more safe Place to debark at, (both on Account of the Surf and the Face of the Country which surrounds it) than the Bay of Gosier, and the Event justified the Measure; for, by the able Conduct of the Rear-Admiral, the Captains and Officers under his Command, the whole Corps was landed early on the Morning of the 19th, without the Loss of a Man, and took Post at Gosier the same Evening, where the Solebay, Winchelsea, and Assurance were placed to furnish Water and other Supplies to the Camp. The Red-bridge returned from St. Christopher's, with the Two Companies of the 22d; and, on the 26th, having received Intelligence that a French Frigate, with Three Transports, had been seen off François in Grande Terre, I detached the Solebay and Winchelsea in quest of them; and, if the Intelligence should prove unfounded, to cruise off Port Louis, and endeavor to intercept a Partizan of the Name of Paschall, who, I had Reason to believe, was fitting out Vessels at St. Bartholomew to bring over a Number of desperate Brigands, who had fled from this Island on our taking Possession of it. On the same Day a Schooner I had sent up to Martinique arrived with Two Companies of Grenadiers from Marin Bay, and was followed, the next Day, by a Third Company in a small Sloop. From the Day of Debarkation the Boats of the Squadron were constantly employed in landing Artillery and Stores, and supplying the Troops with Provisions and Water during the Day, and rowing Guard at Night. Three more Gun-Boats had arrived from Martinique, and were incessantly employed in battering the Forts at Pointe à Pitre, and the Fort of La Fleur d'Épée. The unsuccessful Attempt on the Town, on the 2d Instant, will be described by the General. I have only to observe that every possible Exertion was made, by the Army and Navy, that the debilitated State of the Officers and Men would admit of. It is but Justice to them to declare, that they were quite exhausted by the unparalleled Services of Fatigue and Fire they had gone through, for such a Length of Time, in the worst Climate. Upon the 3d, the General, having communicated to me the Propriety of withdrawing the Artillery, Stores and Troops from Grande Terre, and reinforcing the Posts in Basse Terre, Dispositions were immediately made, and, on the Night of the 5th, the Embarkation was completed without the Loss of a Man, under the Direction of Rear-Admiral Thompson. The Fate of Captain Lewis Robertson, who had distinguished himself highly, fills my Mind with the deepest Regret: He had long been a Child of Misfortune, although he possessed Talents to merit every Success and Prosperity; and, as I am informed, he has left a Widow and infant Family unprovided for; I beg Leave to recommend them to the Protection and good Offices of their Lordships to obtain a suitable Provision, which will be a great Encouragement to Officers in similar Circumstances to emulate so great an Example.

Enclosed is an Account of the Killed and Wounded in the Naval Battalion, since their Landing on Grande Terre:
