Admiralty-Office, September 1.

LETTERS from the Right Honorable Lord Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Fleet in the Mediterranean, to Mr. Stephens, of which the following are Extracts, were last Night received at this Office.

[DUPLICATE.]

Victory, Martello Bay, August 5, 1794.

MY Letter of the 15th of June would inform you, that having forced the French Ships on the 11th, which sailed from Toulon on the 5th, to seek their Safety within the Shoals in the Bay of Gourjean, and under the Protection of the Batteries of the Islands of St. Honora and St. Margaretta, and on Cape Gape; that I had left Vice-Admiral Hotham to watch them; and that I was returning to Corfica, to join Lieutenant-General Stuart for the Reduction of Calvi, which I have the Honor to acquaint you is now, I believe, on the Point of surrendering to the Arms of His Majesty.

Upon my Junction with Vice-Admiral Hotham off this Port on the 9th, I detached Captain Nelson in the Agamemnon to Bastia, with Orders to embark the Troops, and proceed with them to Martello Bay, where Lieutenant-General Stuart embarked on the 15th; and expressing a Wish to proceed to the Attack of Calvi immediately, Captain Nelson complied with it, and on the 19th all the Troops were landed, under the Direction of Captain Cooke, in a small Cove, about Three Miles from Calvi.

I anchored in Martello Bay on the 19th; and so soon as I had embarked the Ordnance and other Stores the General had desired, which the boisterous Weather for some Days prevented, and had forced the Agamemnon and several of the Transports from their Anchors; but His Majesty's smaller Ships, and the rest of the Transports, which were close under the Land, and had not Room to get under Sail, very fortunately rode the Gale out, without an Accident to either, the Wind not blowing Home to the Shore with so much Violence.

On the 26th I sailed; having previously sent Captain Hallowell and Captain Serocold, (who were eager Volunteers for the Service, as were also the Lieutenants Ferriers and Morgan) with as many able Seamen as the Victory could then spare, to assist in dragging up the Ordnance, and serving the Batteries.

The Journal I herewith transmit from Captain Nelson, who had the Command of the Seamen, will shew the daily Occurrences of the Siege, and whose unremitting Zeal and Exertion I cannot sufficiently express, or of that of Captain Hallowell, who took it by turns to command in the Advanced Battery Twenty-four Hours at a Time; and I flatter myself they, as well as the other Officers and Seamen, will have full Justice done them by the General; it is therefore unnecessary for me to say more upon the Subject: But I have to lament, and which I do most sincerely, the Loss of a very able and valuable Officer, Captain Serocold, who was killed by a Grape Shot, whilst getting the last Gun in its Place, soon after the Enemy had discovered our Battery. The King has not a more meritorious young Captain in His Majesty's Navy: He commanded the Floating Battery, which was burnt by red-hot Shot, before Bastia, and afterwards served, with infinite Reputation, at the Batteries on Shore. Independent of my Regard and Esteem for him, I feel his Loss to be a Public one.

Much Credit is due to the Captains Wolfeley, Hood, Sir Charles Hamilton, Sir Harry Burrard, Cunningham, Macnamara and Robinson, for their Vigilance in keeping Succours out, by a steady Perseverance in preserving their respective Stations, under manifest Difficulties; and I ought not to omit to mention my Tribute of Praise to Mr. Gibson, commanding the Fox hired Cutter, of whom all the Captains speak in the handsomest Manner for his Diligence and punctual Obedience to Orders. For near Two Months they did not receive at Calvi any Intelligence from the Continent, until the Night of the 29th, when Four Boats got in, the Port not being then so well and closely guarded, having been obliged to send off Three Frigates to Naples and other Places for Stores, which the General pressed for, and the Night's being dark.

On the 27th I arrived off Calvi, and have kept close off the Port ever since, in order to receive the

Wants

[Price Nine-pence.]

Wants of the Army every Morning, having stationed a Frigate at Anchor off Cape Revalata, and another off Point D'España. I have landed from this Ship Seven of her Lower Deck Guns; and, from Time to Time, all Requisitions, for various other Stores as well as for Men, the General has made, have been complied with, under great Inconvenience; that the Operations of the Army should not stand still.

On the 29th of last Month I had the Honor of a Visit from General Stuart, who brought Letters that had passed between him and the Commandant of the French Troops relative to a Truce for Twenty-five Days, which appearing to be inadmissible, in the Afternoon of the 30th of July our Batteries were opened; and on the Morning of the 1st Instant the White Flag was displayed on the Citadel, under the National one, and the Firing ceased.

Victory, off Calvi, August 9, 1794.

I Herewith have the Honor to transmit, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Duplicates of my Dispatches of the 5th, from Martello Bay.

I sailed on the 7th, and got off here the next Morning; and herewith transmit a Copy of Captain Nelson's Journal from the 28th of last Month to the 8th of the present one; also the Copy of a Letter I have received from him, highly creditable to Lieutenant Harrison, a Transport Agent, as well as to Mr. William Harrington, Master of the Willington, and the Transport's Men, who were all anxiously eager, either to serve on Shore or on Board His Majesty's Ships.

I have ordered Captain Wolfeley to take Possession of the Melpomene and Mignonne Frigates, the former is one of the finest ever built in France, carries Forty Guns; the other only Thirty-two; and I have received an Account from the Consul at Zante, that His Majesty's Frigates which I sent into the Levant, under the Command of Captain Montgomery, have taken the Sibelle, Twin Sister to the Melpomene.

Captain Cunningham, who has cruized with infinite Diligence, Zeal and Perseverance under many Difficulties, for Three Months past, off Calvi, is charged with my Dispatches, is competent to give any Information their Lordships may wish to have; and I beg to recommend him as an Officer of great Merit, and highly deserving any Favor that can be shewn him.

Victory, off Calvi, August 10, 1794.

HAVING received from Lieutenant-General Stuart the Articles of Capitulation* he made with Casabianca, the Commandant of the French Troops at Calvi, I have the Honor herewith to transmit a Copy thereof.

* Printed in the London Gazette Extraordinary of this Morning.

Extract of a Letter from Sir John Borlase Warren, K. B. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Flora, to Mr. Stephens, dated Falmouth, August 29, 1794.

I BEG you will inform their Lordships that I put to Sea, with His Majesty's Squadron under my Command on the 7th Instant, and on the 14th in the Evening stood to the Northward, to obtain Information of a French Squadron of Frigates that were supposed to be cruising to the Westward, and Northward of Scilly; but not having seen them I stretched over towards the Penmarks, and on the 23d, at Four A. M. I discovered one of the Enemy's Frigates, made the Signal for a general Chace, and continued the Pursuit until Four P. M. when His Majesty's Ship Diamond, in Company with the Artois, Santa Margaritta and Diana, engaged and run her on Shore near the Penmark Rocks, where they left her on Beam Ends, disabled and irrecoverably lost. I understand, from the Report from the several Officers, that she was La Felicité, of 40 Guns, upon a Cruize, and had left Brest Six Days.

Having seen Two Ship Corvettes to Windward of Point De Ras, I gave Chace, in Company with His Majesty's Ship Arethusa, when the Enemy stood into the Bay D'Hodierne, and anchored off the Gamelle Rocks: Perceiving my Intention of closing with them, they got under Weigh, and run aground under Cover of Three Batteries. The Two Ships continued engaging till a Quarter after Six P. M. when the Corvettes Masts went by the Board, and the Crews got on Shore.

I immediately ordered our Boats manned and armed, with Directions to put themselves under Sir Edward Pellew's Orders, and to set the Enemy's Ships on Fire, or otherwise destroy them; which Service was fully performed, he having represented to me that there were from 20 to 30 killed and wounded in the Alert, and a greater Number in L'Espion; and that it was impossible to remove the Wounded to the Two Frigates, as many of them must have suffered in so doing: For the Sake of Humanity I judged it proper to let them remain, as the Enemy's Vessels were bilged and scuttled, the Rocks appearing through their Bottoms; and it being impossible to get them off, it would have occasioned much Delay; being then only Nine Leagues from Brest, I therefore brought away 52 Prisoners, and stood to Sea.

I have great Pleasure in saying, that the Destruction of the French Vessels was obtained with very trifling Loss, as will be seen in the Margin*, and that every Effort was made by the Officers and Men in the different Ships, in the Execution of their Duty, which was performed with the utmost Alacrity, and will, I trust, meet with their Lordships Approbation.

I beg Leave to add, that the Squadron on the 27th Instant recaptured the Queen, of London, from Jamaica; also the Mary, a Brig from New Orleans, bound to London, laden with Furs, Indigo, &c. &c.
