By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS John Lord Elphinstone was duly elected and returned to be One of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of Great Britain, and is since deceased: In order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his Room, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Twenty-third Day of October next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of Great Britain, in the room of the said John Lord Elphinstone, deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law.) And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name; are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election.

Given at Our Court at Weymouth, the Ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, in the Thirty-fourth Year of Our Reign.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
September 13, 1794.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in the next Session of Parliament Application will be made to the Honorable House of Commons for Leave to bring in a Bill for making a Cut or Canal, for the Purpose of Navigation, from the New River running from Bourn to Boston, commonly called the Forty Foot, up and along a Drain, lying and being in or between the Parishes of Horbling and Billingborough, in the Division of Kesteven, in the County of Lincoln, to a Bridge across the Turnpike Road in the said Two Parishes; and to erect Locks and Stanches, and make Haling Paths.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Sessions, for obtaining an Act for widening, deepening, straitening, and enlarging the Haven extending from the Town and Port of Great Grimsby, in the County of Lincoln, to the River Humber, and which said Haven runs wholly through the Parish of Great Grimsby aforesaid; also for widening, deepening, and enlarging a certain Drain, extending from the Beck or Creek called Freshney (which divides the Parishes of Great Coates and Little Coates, in the said County of Lincoln) through or between certain Lands and Grounds lying in the several Parishes of Little Coates and Great Grimsby aforesaid, to the said Haven; and for turning into the said Drain the Water of the said Beck or Creek called Freshney, and banking or stopping up the same Beck or Creek, in order to convey from thence the said Water into the Haven aforesaid, for the Improvement and Preservation of the Navigation thereof: Or for altogether, or in Part, altering the Course and Direction, as well of the said Drain, and making one other Cut or Cuts through and across the Lands and Grounds lying in the said several Parishes of Little Coates and Great Grimsby aforesaid, or either of them, for the Purposes aforesaid, as for so altering the Course and Direction of the said Haven, and bringing the same through or across any other the Lands and Grounds, lying within the said Parish of Great Grimsby, to the River Humber aforesaid; and for erecting Locks, Sluices, and Staunches, and making Haling Paths.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in the next Session of Parliament, Application will be made to the Honorable House of Common for Leave to bring in a Bill for making a Cut or Canal, for the Purpose of Navigation, from the New River running from Bourn to Boston, commonly called the Forty Foot, up and along a Drain, lying and being in or between the Parishes of Horbling and Billingborough, in the Division of Kesteven, in the County of Lincoln, to a Bridge across the Turnpike Road in the said Two Parishes, and from thence through Lands in Billingborough aforesaid, and Birthorp and Falkingham, in the said County, to or near the Town of Falkingham aforesaid; and to erect Locks and Staunches, and making Haling Paths.

Burton upon Trent, Sept. 8, 1794.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament the next Session, for Leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act for extending the present Navigation of the River Trent, by and from the Town of Burton upon Trent, in the County of Stafford, to join the Coventry Canal, at Fradley Heath, in the Parish of Alrewas, in the said County of Stafford; and which Extension is intended to be carried, partly by improving a Branch of the River Trent, and partly by a Canal; and will be carried or go in, to, or through the several Parishes, Townships, or Places of Burton upon Trent, Bond-End, otherwise Burton-Extra, Branton, Tatenhill, Newbold, Barton under Needwood, Wichnor, Alrewas, and Fradley, and Part of Fradley Heath, lying within the several Townships of Alrewas, Fradley, and Orgrave, in the Parish of Alrewas aforesaid, all which said Parishes, Townships, or Places are situate within the said County of Stafford.

Hopkins and Fowler, Solicitors.

Leicester, September 10, 1794.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for an Act to amend an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for making and maintaining a Navigation from the Town of Leicester, to communicate with the River Nen in or near the Town of Northampton, and also a certain collateral Cut from the said Navigation;" and for altering the Line of the said Canal, as directed to be made by the said Act, from a certain Piece of Land in the Parish of Gumley, in the County of Leicester, described on the Map or Plan of the said Canal, authenticated by the Right Honorable the Speaker of the House of Commons, pursuant to the said Act, by the No. 159, to a certain other Piece of Land in the Parish of Great Bowden, in the said County of Leicester, described in the said Map or Plan by the No. 202, which altered Line will pass through or into the several Parishes of Gumley, Foxton and Great Bowden, all in the said County of Leicester; and also for altering the Line of the said Canal, as directed to be made by the said Act, from a certain other Piece of Land in the Parish of Saddington, in the said County of Leicester, described in the said authenticated Map or Plan by the No. 134, to a certain other Piece of Land in the Parish of Smeeton Westerby, in the said County of Leicester, described in the said authenticated Map or Plan by the No. 139; which last mentioned altered Line will pass through or into the several Parishes of Saddington and Smeeton Westerby aforesaid, in the said County of Leicester.

Navy-Office, June 6, 1794.

WHEREAS Samuel Travers, Esq; long since deceased, by his last Will and Testament, bearing Date the 16th of July, 1724, after giving several pecuniary Legacies, devised the Residue of his Real and Personal Estates to his Executors therein named, upon Trust that they should, out of the Rents and Profits thereof, settl an Annuity of Sixty Pounds, to be paid to each of Seven Gentlemen, to be added to the Poor Knights of Windsor, and that a Building might be erected or purchased, in or near the Castle of Windsor, for an Habitation for the said Seven Gentlemen, who were to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English Men of War: And the said Testator desired that the Gentlemen so to be incorporated might be single Men, without Children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious and devout Life, to be removed if they gave Reason of Scandal, and that he would have them live in a Collegiate Manner, in order whereunto he would have Twenty-six Pounds per Annum deducted out of their several Allowances to keep a constant Table.

And whereas the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath, by Letter dated the 1st of last Month, signified to the Commissioners of the Navy His Majesty's Pleasure, that they should, pursuant to the said Will, and a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in that Behalf, choose such a Number of superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of the Royal Navy as they should think proper, and return the Names of such Officers to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the Manner directed by the said Will, for the Purpose of carrying the same into Effect: The said Commissioners of the Navy do therefore hereby give Notice to such Lieutenants, as are desirous of accepting Appointments, under the abovementioned Provisions and Regulations, to make their Appearance at this Office on Wednesday the 1st Day of October next, and to bring with them Certificates and other Testimonials, to shew that they come within the Meaning of the said Will. And such Lieutenants as by Reason of their Residence being distant from this Office are not able to attend in Person, are desired to send a State of their Case, and the Testimonials abovementioned, on the said Day, in order that the said Commissioners may select a List of Twenty one qualified Objects, to be to be by them transmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty, whereout their Lordships may choose Fourteen to be submitted to His Majesty, in order that, out of such reduced Number, His Majesty may be graciously pleased to nominate Seven, to be the Persons first appointed Poor Knights under the said Will.
