WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to amend an Act made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and He and They is and are thereby authorized, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, at any Time when the General Average Price of any Sort of Corn or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, taken as in the said Acts passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, is directed, shall appear to be at or above the Price at or above which Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour of the same Sort is allowed by Law to be imported from Ireland or the Province of Quebec, or the other British Colonies and Plantations in North America, at the first Low Duties specified in the Table marked E. in the said Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from England and Scotland respectively, as the Case may be, of any such Sort of Corn or other Articles mentioned in the said Acts;

and in like Manner, at any Time when the Average Price of any Sort of Corn or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, taken as in the said Acts passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, is directed, shall appear to be at or above the Price at or above which Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour of the same Sort is allowed by Law to be imported from any other Foreign Country at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E. to permit generally the Importation into England or Scotland respectively, as the Case may be, or the taking out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, of any such Sort of Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, and no other; and in the like Manner to recall such Prohibition or Permission, if Circumstances shall appear so to require: Provided always, that as often as the Importation of any Sort of Corn, Meal or Flour, on the Low Duties, shall be permitted by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, such Permission shall continue in Force for the Space of Three Months at least from the Date of the Order in Council made for that Purpose.

And whereas, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, was pleased, by His Order in Council bearing Date the 28th of August, 1793, to prohibit (under the Provisions, Regulations and Exceptions therein mentioned and referred to) until the 30th of November then ensuing, the Exportation from any of the Ports of that Part of Great Britain called England of any Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof; and in like Manner to prohibit the Exportation from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland of any Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Bread or Biscuit made thereof; and also to declare and order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of November then ensuing, it should be lawful to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats, or Oatmeal; and also to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Barley, Pease, Oats and Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the Twenty-seventh Day of November, 1793, and by another Order dated the Twenty-sixth Day of February, 1794, and by a Third Order in Council, dated the Eighteenth Day of June, 1794, the Prohibitions and Permissions in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, contained, with respect to certain of the said Articles, were to continue and remain in Force until the First Day of October, 1794, in the Manner in the said Three last mentioned Orders respectively prescribed and directed.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Week ended the Twentieth Day of September, 1794, that the General Average Prices of Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, in that Part of Great Britain called England, are above the Prices at which Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and every Provision respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, shall be, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in Force until the First Day of February, 1795.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Month immediately preceding the Fifteenth Day of September, 1794, that the General Average Price of Oats, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is above the Price at which Foreign Oats are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Oats from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, shall be, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in Force until the First Day of February, 1795.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats or Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other, and every Provision and Regulation respecting the said Importation in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, contained, shall be, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in Force until the said First Day of February, 1795.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Governor Simcoe to Mr. Secretary Dundas, dated Navyhall, August 30, 1794.

I Take an Opportunity of sending this Dispatch by Means of Mr. Hammond, to whom I lose no Time in giving Information of the important Event, that Mr. Wayne, with the Army of the United States, penetrated to the Fort at the Miamis, which he summoned to surrender; and upon Major Campbell's Refusal, at present, appears to have retreated.

It is impossible to express the Sense I entertain of Major Campbell's most wise, firm and temperate Conduct in his very peculiar and difficult Situation: Such Notice as the Military Part of it highly deserves, I presume will be offered to you by Lord Dorchester, who must be fully competent to judge of its Merit; but I should do Justice to myself if I did not state to you, Sir, my humble and earnest Hope that the Conduct of this Gentleman, which in Substance may have prevented the greatest Miseries to the Province under my Government, and who, in his Manner and Language, has, in a very trying Situation, most nobly supported the National Character, will recommend him to your Attention, and be found worthy of His Majesty's Approbation.

Admiralty-Office, October 3, 1794.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 7th Day of November next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
