Horse Guards, December 13.

BY Dispatches received from General Sir Charles Grey, K. B. dated Martinique, the 16th, 19th, and 24th of October, it appears, that the Enemy from Point à Pitre, in the Island of Guadaloupe; made a Landing at Goyave and Lamentin on the same Island, on the 27th of September, and proceeded to attack the Camp of Berville, under the Command of Brigadier-General Graham, who defended this Position, with the utmost Gallantry and Spirit, until the 6th of October, when, finding his Provisions nearly exhausted, and that he was cut off from all Communication with the Shipping, and without Hopes of Relief, he was obliged to surrender, his Force being reduced to 125 Ranks and File fit for Duty.

By this unfortunate Event the Whole of the Island of Guadaloupe, except Fort Matilda, where Lieutenant-General Precott commands, fell into the Hands of the Enemy.

The following are the Terms of Capitulation granted by the Enemy to Brigadier-General Graham.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION for the Post of Berville, and it's Dependencies.

Article I.

THAT, in Consideration of the gallant Defence the Garrison has made, they shall be allowed the Honors of War.

Answer. Granted.

Art. II. That the Inhabitants of the Island now co-operating with the Army, whether White or Free People of Colour, being British Subjects, having taken the Oaths of Allegiance to His Britannic Majesty, shall be considered and treated as such.

Answer. Not admissible: But a Covered Boat shall be allowed to the General, which shall be held sacred.

Art. III. That the Troops, and such of the Inhabitants as do not wish to become Subjects of the French Republic, shall be sent to Great Britain, as soon as Transports can be provided for that Purpose.

Answer. The Troops shall be sent to England as soon as Transports are ready: But as to the Inhabitants, it is answered in Article II.

Art. IV. That the Baggage of the Officers and Inhabitants in Camp shall be allowed to them.

Answer. The Troops shall be allowed their Baggage.

Art. V. That the Sick and Wounded, who cannot be sent on Board Transports, shall be allowed British Surgeons to attend them.

Answer. Agreed to.

Art. VI. That the Ordnance and Stores of every Denomination shall be given up in their present State.

Answer. Agreed to.

Art. VII. If any Difficulties in settling the above shall happen hereafter, they shall be amicably adjusted by the respective Commanders.

Answer. Admitted.
