BY Dispatches received from Lieutenant-Colonel James Grant, Commanding Officer at Cape Nicolas Mole in the Island of St. Domingo, dated the 21st of October, it appears, that the Town and Port of Leogane, in the same Island, had fallen into the Hands of the Forces of the Convention, aided by a numerous Corps of revolted Negroes:

Lord Chamberlain's Office, November 27.

WHEREAS it is supposed that several Persons, who have heretofore been appointed Gentlemen of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Chamber in Ordinary, may, since the last Return in 1784, be dead, or removed from their Places of Residence; That it may appear to the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household who of them are remaining alive, his Lordship is pleased to direct that all such, who wish to retain the Privileges of their Place, do, on or before the 15th Day of January, 1795; transmit to John Calvert, jun. Esq; Secretary to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's, an Account of their present Places of Residence.

Admiralty-Office, November 28, 1794.

WHEREAS several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are unemployed, have omitted to send to this Office the Places of their Residence; It is the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that such Lieutenants, as come within the above Description, do forthwith transmit to this Office the Places of their respective Residence; and that those, who are not able to serve, do, at the same Time, transmit a Certificate of the Nature of their Inability.

Admiralty-Office, December 10, 1794.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been received at this Office, that the Ship Fly, whereof Thomas Keith was Master, bound from Malaga to Greenock, was, on the 28th of last Month, in a hard Gale of Wind, driven on Shore upon Longrock in the Port of Penzance; and there stranded.
