

until the Third Day of June, 1795, or until such Time as His Majesty shall think fit to revoke this present Order, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of or from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, or load or lay on board, or cause or procure to be loaded or laid on board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported or carried out of any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, any Wheat, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof.

His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from England of any Foreign Wheat that shall have been imported, and shall be warehoused in Manner and on the Conditions mentioned in the said Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, nor to prevent the carrying Coastwise (except as is hereinafter excepted) or carrying out, or the Exportation of Wheat, or the other Articles as aforesaid, from England, for any of the Purposes mentioned in either of the said Two Acts, in like Manner, and in the same Proportions and Quantities, and from and to the same Ports and Places, as is by said Acts allowed, at such Times as Wheat or the other Articles before mentioned are prohibited to be exported, by reason of the Price of Wheat being at or above the Price mentioned in Table B. in the said Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, contained, subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations and Restrictions, Forfeitures and Penalties, as are in either of the said Two Acts, or by any other Act now in Force, in any such Case, required and imposed; nor to prohibit the Exportation of such Wheat or other Articles as aforesaid, which shall have been entered Outwards, and shall have been actually shipped or laden on board, or so much thereof, expressed in such Entry, as shall have been so shipped or laden on board, at the Time of the Date of this present Order, in the same Manner as if this Prohibition to export had not been made.

Provided, nevertheless, that any such Wheat or other Articles as aforesaid shall not be permitted to be carried Coastwise, or to be otherwise carried from any Port from which the Exportation thereof is not, at the Time of shipping the same, allowed by Law, and be landed and unshipped at any other Port in Great Britain from which the same may then be legally exported.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order until the Third Day of June, 1795, it shall be lawful to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any Foreign Wheat, Wheat-Meal or Flour, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
