Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 3. to Tuesday January 6, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of December, 1794.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant December; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant December, to the Twenty-eighth Day of February, 1795, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 2, 1795.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be no Drawing-Room at St. James's till Monday the 19th Instant.

[Price Nine-pence.]

House Guards, January 6.

By Dispatches received from General Wallmoden and Lieutenant-General Harcourt, dated Arnheim, December 29, 1794, it appears, that on the 27th the Enemy, consisting of about 16,000 Men, made a successful Attack on the Bommel Waert, and the Fort St. André, from which the Dutch Forces were obliged to retreat to the Lines between Gorcum and Cuylenberg, which they now occupy; and that the Enemy on the same Evening crossed the Waal, and took Position at Thuil, Wetleren and Wartenberg.

Whitehall, January 6.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Andrew Ramsay, of Hatchford, in the Parish of Cobham in the County of Surrey, Esq; late Governor of Bombay in the East Indies, his Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue may assume and take the Surname and bear the Arms of Karr of Kippilaw, in Addition to his present Surname and Arms of Ramsay, in compliance with a Deed of Tailzie, by his maternal Uncle, John Karr of Kippilaw, in the Shire of Roxburgh in North Britain, Esq; deceased; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Commission and Declaration be registered in his College of Arms.
