DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, have been received from General Walmoden and Lieutenant-General Harcourt, by His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and transmitted by his Royal Highness to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Head-Quarters, Arnheim, January 1, 1795.

S I R,

I Have the Honour to lay before your Royal Highness the Report of the Success of the Attack made on the Enemy on the 30th Ult. by Major-General David Dundas.

The Corps destined for this Expedition consisted of Ten Battalions of British Infantry, under Major-General Lord Cathcart, Major-General Gordon, and Lieutenant-Colonel M'Kenzie; Six Squadrons of Light Cavalry, and One Hundred and Fifty Hussars, under Major-General Sir Robert Lawrie; of the Loyal Emigrés; and of Four Battalions and Four Squadrons of Hessians, under Major-General de Wurmb.

It was divided into Three Columns. The Left Column to attack by the Dyke, the Center to attack in such a Manner as to keep the Church of Wardenburg upon its Left Wing, and the Right Column, consisting of Four British Battalions and the Rohan Hussars, to keep their Left Wing appuyé to the Vliet, to turn Tuyl, and to attack it in the Rear.

Major-General Lord Cathcart found the Road by which his Column was to march so impracticable, that, being obliged to make a great Detour, he could not come up in Time; and Major-General Dundas finding, at his Arrival near Wardenburg, that the Enemy had abandoned it during the Night, he thought it advisable to push on with the other Two Columns, and to begin the Attack immediately upon Tuyl.

This was executed with such Gallantry and Spirit by the Troops that, notwithstanding the natural Strength of this Post, the Abbatis of Fruit-Trees that were made, the Batteries of the Town of Bommel which flanked the Approach, and the considerable Number of Men who defended it, it was soon carried, and the Enemy driven across the River (every where passable on the Ice) with considerable Loss of Men and of Four Pieces of Cannon.

General Dundas speaks in the highest Terms of Commendation of the spirited Conduct both of the Officers and Men during the Execution of the several Duties which fell to their Lot, as likewise the Patience and Perseverance they shewed by undergoing immense Fatigues and Hardships, increased by the Cold and the Severity of the Season.

I annex the Return of our Loss, which is not very great considering the Circumstances.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
