

Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgements which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity to Us and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as condemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. Our Will is therefore, and We charge, That this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published, and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourteenth Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, in the Thirty-fifth Year of Our Reign.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the 16th Instant, was pleased to direct, That all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes and Effects whatsoever, coming directly from any of the Ports of the United Provinces to any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in the Vessels of any Country, and navigated in any Manner, should be permitted, until further Order, to be landed, and secured in Warehouses, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and of the Proprietors, at the Risk and Expence of the said Proprietors, there to remain in safe Custody, for the Benefit of the Proprietors thereof, until due Provision shall be made by Law to enable such Proprietors to re-export, or otherwise dispose of the same: And whereas it is judged expedient further to extend the Benefit of the said Order:

His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes and Effects whatsoever, belonging to any of the Subjects or Inhabitants of the United Provinces, or belonging to any Subject of His Majesty, or to any Subject of any Country in Amity with His Majesty, coming from any Part of Europe, Asia, Africa or America, in Amity with His Majesty, in Vessels belonging to any Subject or Inhabitant of the United Provinces, or to any Subject of His Majesty, or of any Country in Amity with His Majesty, and bound to any Port of the United Provinces, may, until further Order, be permitted to be landed in any Port of this Kingdom, and may be secured in Warehouses, for the Benefit of the Proprietors thereof, in the same Manner as was directed in the above mentioned Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the 16th of this instant January. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
