AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of January, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to amend an Act made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and He and They is and are thereby authorized, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, at any Time when the General Average Price of any Sort of Corn or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, taken as in the said Acts, passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, is directed, shall appear to be at or above the Price at or above which

Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour of the same Sort is allowed by Law to be imported from Ireland or the Province of Quebec, or the other British Colonies and Plantations in North America, at the first Low Duties specified in the Table marked E. in the said Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from England and Scotland respectively, as the Case may be, of any such Sort of Corn or other Articles mentioned in the said Acts; and in like Manner, at any Time when the Average Price of any Sort of Corn or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, taken as in the said Acts, passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, is directed, shall appear to be at or above the Price at or above which Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour of the same Sort is allowed by Law to be imported from any other Foreign Country at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E. to permit generally the Importation into England or Scotland respectively, as the Case may be, or the taking out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, of any such Sort of Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, and no other; and in the like Manner to recall such Prohibition or Permission, if Circumstances shall appear so to require: Provided always, that as often as the Importation of any Sort of Corn, Meal or Flour, on the Low Duties, shall be permitted by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, such Permission shall continue in Force for the Space of Three Months at least from the Date of the Order in Council made for that Purpose.

And whereas, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, was pleased, by His Order in Council bearing Date the 28th of August, 1793, to prohibit (under the Provisions, Regulations and Exceptions therein mentioned and referred to) until the 30th of November then ensuing, the Exportation from any of the Ports of that Part of Great Britain called England of any Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof; and in like Manner to prohibit the Exportation from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland of any Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Bread or Biscuit made thereof; and also to declare and order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of November then ensuing, it should be lawful to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any

Foreign

Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats, or Oatmeal; and also to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to take out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, any Foreign Barley, Pease, Oats and Oatmeal, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other; which Order has, by several subsequent Orders, been since revived and continued, and is now to remain in Force until the 1st Day of February, 1795.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Week ended the Third Day of January, 1795, that the General Average Prices of Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, in that Part of Great Britain called England, are above the Prices at which Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, or Oats, or any Meal, Flour, Malt, Bread or Biscuit made thereof, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, and every Provision respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, shall be and continue in Force until the Third Day of June, 1795.

And whereas it appears, from the Returns received in the Month immediately preceding the Fifteenth Day of January, 1795, that the General Average Price of Barley, Beer and Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, is above the Price at which Foreign Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, are allowed by Law to be imported at the first Low Duty specified in the said Table marked E.; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Prohibition to export Barley, Beer and Bigg, Oats and Oatmeal, from any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and every Provision, Regulation and Exception respecting the said Prohibition in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, shall be, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in Force until the Third Day of June, 1795.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Permission to import into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England, any Foreign Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Oats or Oatmeal, and into any Port or Place in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, any Foreign Barley or Oats, and to take the same out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, on Payment of the second Low Duty only, mentioned in the said Table marked E. and no other, and every Provision and Regulation respecting the said Importation, in the said Order of the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1793, contained, shall be, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in Force until the said Third Day of June, 1795.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

St. James's, January 28.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, Knt. Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach the Throne with renewed Professions of firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty and Royal Family, and full Determination to support our most excellent Constitution in Church and State, against all such Attempts as have lately been made to subvert it.

With the deepest Concern we have beheld, that notwithstanding the uniform Bravery manifested throughout your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, the Objects of the just and necessary War in which this Country is engaged have not yet been accomplished.

But at the same Time, with the steadiest Confidence on the God of all Victory, we rely for the final Success of your Majesty's Arms to secure to these Kingdoms the permanent Enjoyment of social Order, Freedom, and every other Blessing which we experience under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and the glorious Constitution as established at the Revolution.

Your Majesty's uniform and benevolent Concern for the Interests of your People will go before our Wishes, that your Majesty will employ every Means which shall be most proper to defend this Country against its Foreign and Domestic Enemies, and to restore to us the Blessings of Peace whenever it can be done consistently with the Honor and Dignity of the State, and with that permanent Security which is above all Things important to the Maintenance of our Trade, Commerce, and Prosperity.

Your Majesty may be assured of the warm and uniform Support of your faithful Citizens of London in your Majesty's Exertions towards this desirable End; convinced as we are that on this Event alone depends the Existence of all good Government, Security, Law and Religion.

Signed by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Receive with the greatest Pleasure this Mark of your Attachment to My Person and Family, and to the Constitution of the Kingdom, as by Law established.

The Assurances expressed by My loyal City of London, to support My Exertions in the present just and necessary War, for the permanent Security and Honour of My People, cannot but be highly satisfactory to Me.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, January 29.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint Thursday the 29th of January for the Ceremony of the Publick Entry and Publick Audience of His Excellency Yussuf Adjiah Effendi, Ambassador from the Sublime Porte, the Earl of Jersey (the Conducting Earl appointed by His Majesty) and Sir Clement Cottrell Dorner, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies, proceeded in one of His Majesty's Coaches, with Six Horses, attended by Six Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber in others of the Royal Coaches, to the Royal College at Chelsea, the Place from whence His Majesty had thought fit that the Procession should begin, where Field-Marshal Sir George Howard, K. B. the Governor, not only allotted the Grand Apartment for the Use of the Ambassador, on this Occasion, and provided an elegant Cold Collation for his Entertainment; but in further Compliment to the Ambassador, repaired to the College early in the Morning, to be ready to receive the Ambassador in Person.

About Ten o'Clock the Ambassador and his Suite arrived at the Royal College at Chelsea, in His Excellency's own Coaches, where the Royal Standard was displayed, and His Excellency was received with all Military Honours.

Alighting from his Carriage, His Excellency was met by William Bulkeley, Esq; Major of the Royal College, and others the Military Officers belonging to the Establishment, and conducted to the Grand Apartment, where Field-Marshal Sir George Howard, K. B. the Governor, made a short Speech to His Excellency suitable to the Occasion.

At a Quarter after Ten o'Clock the Conducting Earl and the Master of the Ceremonies arrived at the College, when the Earl of Jersey made His Majesty's Compliment to the Ambassador, and the Company sat down to Breakfast; and about Eleven the Procession to St. James's began in the following Order:

A leading Coach of His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester, with Six Horses.

The Ambassador's Coach, with Six Horses, in which went Three of the principal Persons belonging to His Excellency's Suite.

Several Coaches of the Nobility, each drawn by Six Horses, closed the Procession.

In this Order the Procession moved on from Chelsea College to the Gate of St. James's Park adjoining the Queen's House, and proceeded up Constitution Hill, along Piccadilly and St. James's-Street, to the Palace, where His Excellency arrived at Half past Twelve, and, alighting at the Palace Gate, was received by Hugh Boscawen, Esq; the Knight Marshal, (having his Baton of Office in his Hand) and the Marshal of the Ceremonies.

The Foot Guards on Duty were drawn up in the Court Yard, and their Officers saluted the Ambassador as he passed on to the Little Council Chamber; where Notice being given by one of His Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers that His Majesty was ready, the Procession moved forward to the Audience in the Great Council Chamber, (where, on each Side, were ranged the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners) the Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber going before the Conducting Earl, and the principal Persons of the Ambassador's Suite before His Excellency, the Conducting Earl being on the Ambassador's Right Hand, and the Master of the Ceremonies on his Left. His Excellency was received at the Door of the Guard Chamber, in the Absence of the Earl of Aylesford, Captain of the Yeomen of the Guard, by James Roberts, Esq; Lieutenant of the Yeomen of the Guard, who conducted the Ambassador to the Door of the Privy Chamber, where His Excellency was received by Viscount Palmouth, Captain of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, who conducted His Excellency to the Door of the Great Council Chamber.

At the Door of the Great Council Chamber His Excellency was received by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, who taking the Right Hand of the Ambassador, and the Earl of Jersey, with Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, taking the Left, His Excellency, dressed in his Habit of Ceremony, and wearing the Turban called Cobrossani, (which is only worn by the Ministers of the Sublime Porte) was conducted up to the Throne, making Three profound Reverences, which His Majesty was pleased to return in the usual Manner.

The Ambassador then made a short Speech to His Majesty, which was interpreted to His Majesty by Signor Perfianni; and His Majesty was pleased to answer the same in English, His Majesty's Answer being interpreted in the Turkish Language by Mr. Lufignan, His Majesty's Interpreter.

The Ambassador, in the Course of his Harangue to His Majesty, took from the Secretary of the Embassy his Letter of Credence, and kissing the same, presented it to His Majesty, who immediately delivered it to Lord Grenville; and, after His Majesty's Reply to the Ambassador, he presented to His Majesty the Secretary of the Embassy, and the principal Persons of his Suite, all of whom were received most graciously by His Majesty.

The Ambassador then retired, making again Three Reverences to His Majesty as he withdrew from the Audience, and was reconducted with the same Ceremony to the Little Council Chamber, to rest himself till Her Majesty was ready to receive him; of which Notice being given by One of Her Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers, the Ambassador proceeded to the Queen's Apartments, and was received at the Door of Her Majesty's Guard Chamber by William Price, Esq; Her Majesty's Vice-Chamberlain, and at the Door of the Room of Audience by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and so conducted up to Her Majesty by the Earl of Morton, William Price, Esq; and Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer.

The Ambassador, after his Audience of the Queen, went to the Drawing-Room to pay his Court to Their Majesties; and having previously desired that the Royal Coaches might not be kept waiting to carry him back to his own House, returned Home after the Drawing-Room in his own Coach.

Whitehall, January 31.

His Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue may resume his ancient Family Name of Jervoise, and bear the Arms of Jervoise, in Compliance with the last Will and Testament of his late Brother, Tritram Huddleston Jervoise, of Herriard in the County of Southampton, and of Britford aforesaid, Esq; deceased; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in his College of Arms.

Dublin Castle, January 22, 1795.

THIS Day the Parliament having met according to Prorogation, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Thomas Hasky, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency made the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IN Obedience to His Majesty's Commands, I resort to your Councils, at a Period, which, in a peculiar Manner, calls for the Wisdom and Energy of Parliament.

His Majesty's Determination is fixed. As long as he is supported by his faithful Subjects, he never will be wanting to them or to himself. His Majesty has no Interest but that of his People; no Views but for their Happiness; no Object but their general Safety.

The uniform Tenor of your Conduct has demonstrated that you will not only be desirous, but zealous to second and emulate the Magnanimity of a Sovereign, formed to lead a Nation, that has ever been as firm to assert its Liberties, as affectionately devoted to a Government which maintains its own Authority for the sole Purpose of supporting those Liberties. As you are thus cordially attached to that Sovereign, and to the Constitution which it is his Glory to protect, I have to announce to you, with true Satisfaction, what you will hear with equal Pleasure, the intended Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Carolina Amelia Elizabeth, Daughter of His Most Illustrious Highness the Duke of Brunswick and Lunenburgh, a Princess of that illustrious House to whose mild and constitutional Sway these Kingdoms are highly indebted for the Blessings they enjoy: This Marriage promises the Perpetuation of the same Blessings under the same House.

I have it also in Command to inform you, that His Majesty has concluded a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation with the United States of America, in which it has been His Majesty's Object to remove, as far as possible, all Grounds of Jealousy and Misunderstanding, and to improve an Intercourse beneficial to both States. As soon as the Ratification of this Treaty shall have been exchanged, and I shall have received a Copy of it, I will direct it to be laid before you, in order that you may consider if it will be necessary to make any Provisions for carrying into Effect a Treaty, in which the Commerce of this Kingdom is so materially and extensively interested.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed the Estimates for the Public Service, and the State of the Public Accounts, to be laid before you.

His Majesty has that assured Confidence, grounded on a long and uniform Experience of your Loyalty, and your Zeal for his Service and the Good of your Country, that I think it unnecessary to press you in any particular Manner to make a Provision adequate to the present awful Situation of Affairs.

It is with Pleasure I acquaint you, that the Provision will, in some Degree, be facilitated by the Circumstance, that during the Existence of such a War as the present, the Public Revenue, together with the Commerce of the Kingdom, has kept up, and has been even augmented: Advantages which are due to the Care and Vigilance of our Sovereign, in the general Protection provided by him for all his Subjects.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I earnestly recommend to you a Continuance of the laudable Pains you have constantly taken to cultivate all your domestic Advantages in Commerce, in Manufacture, and in such Public Works as have appeared directed to promote those important Objects. These are the true Foundations of all Public Revenue and Public Strength. Your Endeavours have had their Fruit. The great Staple Manufacture of this Kingdom has increased beyond the most sanguine Expectations: An Advantage principally owing to the constant Superintendance and wise Provisions of the Parliament of Ireland; and next to those to the assured liberal and most merited Encouragement which it receives in the rich and extensive Market of Great Britain; a Circumstance tending to cement the Union and to perfect the Harmony which happily subsists, and, I trust, will subsist for ever, between the Two Kingdoms.

Attached as you are to the general Cause of Religion, Learning and Civilization, I have to recommend to your Consideration the State of Education in this Kingdom, which, in some Parts, will admit of Improvement, in others may require some new Arrangement. Considerable Advantages have been already derived under the wise Regulations of Parliament, from the Protestant Charter Schools, and these will, as usual, claim your Attention: But as these Advantages have been but partial, and as Circumstances have made other Considerations, connected with this important Subject, highly necessary, it is hoped that your Wisdom will order every Thing relating to it in the Manner most beneficial, and the best adapted to the Occasions of the several Descriptions of Men, which compose His Majesty's faithful Subjects of Ireland.

We are engaged in an arduous Contest. The Time calls not only for great Fortitude, and an unusual Share of Public Spirit, but for much Constancy and Perseverance. You are engaged with a Power which, under the ancient Forms of its internal Arrangement, was always highly formidable to the neighbouring Nations. Lately this Power has assumed a new Shape: But with the same Ambition, with much more extensive and systematic Designs, far more effective, and, without Comparison, more dreadful in the certain Consequences of its eventual Success, it threatens nothing less than the entire Subversion of the Liberty and Independence of every State in Europe. An Enemy to them all, it is actuated with a peculiar Animosity against these Kingdoms, not only as the natural Protection of the Balance of Power in Europe, but also because, by the Possession of a legal, humane and rational Freedom, we seem to reproach that false and spurious Liberty, which, in Reality, is an ignominious Servitude, tending to extinguish all good Arts, to generate nothing but Impiety, Crime, Disorder and ferocious Manners, and to end in Wretchedness and general Desolation.

To guard his People from the Enterprises of this dangerous and malignant Power, and for the Protection of all civilized Society against the Inroads of Anarchy, His Majesty has availed himself of every rational Aid, Foreign and Domestic: He has called upon the Skill, Courage and Experience of all his Subjects, wheresoever dispersed: And you must be duly sensible, in such a Crisis as the present, which rarely occurs in the Course of Human Affairs, of the Advantage of His Majesty's thus endeavouring to profit of the united Strength and Zeal of every Description of his Subjects.

I have to assure you of His Majesty's most cheerful Concurrence in every Measure which your Wisdom and comprehensive Patriotism shall point out for this salutary Purpose.

On my Part you shall find me, from Principle and from Inclination, thoroughly disposed to concur with His Majesty's paternal Wishes, and with the wise Measures of his Parliament. On a cordial Affection to the Whole of Ireland, and on a Conduct suitable to that Sentiment, I wish to found my own personal Estimation and my Reputation in the Execution of the great Trust committed, by the most beneficent of Sovereigns, to my Care.

Madrid, January 7.

The Mail, arrived Yesterday from America, brought the Account of a Conspiracy having been discovered at Mexico, towards the End of August last.

The Plot, by which it was designed to murder the Vice-Roy and his Family, to take Possession of the Royal and Arch-Episcopal Palaces, the Mint, Inquisition, and other public Buildings, and the principal private Houses, and to set Fire to and deliver over the City to the Plunder of the Populace, and discontented Indians of some neighbouring Towns, was conducted by Two Frenchmen, who had succeeded in seducing several Spanish Inhabitants to their Interest, and were to be assisted in the Execution of their Plan by a Number of their Countrymen, who, contrary to the general Practice of this Government, had been suffered to remain in Mexico after the Commencement of the War.

Nearly about the same Time a similar Explosion was to have taken Place at Santa Fe, the Capital of the New Kingdom of Granada, in all its Circumstances similar to the preceding, but it was likewise prevented by Discovery, the very Day before it was to happen.
