AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th of February, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision for a limited Time without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, That from and after the passing of the said Act, and until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are thereby authorized, with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, whatever may be the general Average Price of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats or Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, from Time to Time, when and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from England and Scotland respectively of any British or Foreign Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof, and to permit generally the Importation into England or Scotland respectively of any Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also the taking out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, of any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and in like Manner to recal such Prohibition or Permission, either in Part or in the Whole, if Circumstances shall appear so to require, any Thing in an Act, passed in the 31st Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and another Act passed in the 33d Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the aforesaid Act, or in any other Act, or Part of any Act, to the contrary notwithstanding, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisions therein mentioned, and herein after contained.

His Majesty thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, has thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order, until the 30th Day of September next, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load or lay on Board any Ship or other Vessel with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof.

His

[Price Twenty-two Pence Halfpenny.]

His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from this Kingdom of any Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour that shall have been imported and warehoused in the Manner and on the Conditions mentioned in the before mentioned Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and shall not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, nor to prevent the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, from this Kingdom, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Two Acts, passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, in like Manner, and in the same Proportions and Quantities, and from and to the same Ports and Places, as is allowed by the said Two Acts passed in the 31st and 33d Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, at such Times as any of the several Sorts of Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, are prohibited to be exported, in consequence of the Provisions contained in the said Two Acts, subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations and Restrictions, Forfeitures and Penalties, as are by the said Two Acts, or by either of them, in any such Case, required or imposed.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the Date of this present Order, until the 30th Day of September next, it shall be lawful to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel, belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of February, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board a Representation from the Right Honorable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the Consideration of all Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, dated the 29th of last Month, in the Words following, viz.

" May it please your Majesty,

" THE Lords of the Committee being of Opinion
" that it may be advisable for your Majesty to allow the Importation into the Island of Newfoundland of Bread, Flour and Indian Corn, from any of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, for the Supply of the Inhabitants and Fishermen of the said Island, for the ensuing Season only, in like Manner as your Majesty has been pleased to permit such Importation for the Six preceding Years; their Lordships humbly take Leave to lay herewith before your Majesty the Draught of an Order proper to be issued by your Majesty in Council, and a Warrant, under your Majesty's Sign Manual, to the Governor of Newfoundland, for the Purpose above mentioned."

His Majesty, having taken the same into Consideration, was pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed, and also of the Draught of the Order in Council, and of the Warrant to the Governor of Newfoundland, for the respective Purposes therein mentioned.

And His Majesty doth hereby order, that his Grace the Duke of Portland, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do prepare the said Warrant (Copy whereof is hereunto annexed) to the Governor of Newfoundland, for His Majesty's Royal Signature.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in North America and in the West India Islands, and the Countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said Subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from Time to Time, to authorize, or by Warrant or Warrants, under His Sign Manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the Time being to authorize, in case of Necessity, the Importation into Newfoundland of Bread, Flour, Indian Corn, and Live Stock, from any of the Territories belonging to the United States, for the Supply of the Inhabitants and Fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing Season only; provided always, that such Bread, Flour, Indian Corn, and Live Stock, so authorized to be imported into the said Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant Warrant or Warrants, respectively, and except by British Subjects and in British-built Ships owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law.

It is Our Royal Will and Pleasure, and We do, by virtue of the Power vested in Us by the said Act, hereby empower you to authorize, in case of Necessity, the Importation into Newfoundland of Bread, Flour, and Indian Corn, from any of the Territories belonging to the said United States of America, for the Supply of the Inhabitants and Fishermen of Our Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing Season only; provided that such Bread, Flour, and Indian Corn so authorized to be imported into Our Island of Newfoundland shall not be imported except by British Subjects and in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; provided also that such Ships as aforesaid shall clear out from some of the Ports of the said Island for any of the said United States, and shall be duly licensed for that Purpose by you, or such other Person or Persons as shall, by an Instrument under your Hand and Seal, be authorized to license the same.

And We do hereby order and direct that such Licences so to be granted by you, or by any Person or Persons duly authorized as aforesaid, shall be of the like Nature, as near as the Circumstances will admit, with those which are directed to be granted to Ships clearing out from Great Britain, by an Act passed in the 25th Year of Our Reign, intituled, "An Act for confining, for a limited Time, the Trade between the Ports of the United States of America and His Majesty's Subjects of the Island of Newfoundland, to Bread, Flour and Live Stock, to be imported in none but British-built Ships, actually belonging to British Subjects, and navigated according to Law, clearing out from the Ports of His Majesty's European Dominions, and furnished with a Licence according to the Form hereunto annexed."

And We do hereby strictly charge and command you, that, in granting of such Licences as aforesaid, especial Care be taken to prevent all contraband and fraudulent Trade between the Inhabitants and Fishermen of Our said Island of Newfoundland, and the People belonging to the Territories of the United States of America.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th of February, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, That, in consequence of the Progress of the French Arms in the United

Provinces, the Payment of Bills of Exchange drawn or negotiated in the said Provinces may be deemed unlawful, by virtue of the Provisions contained in an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for preventing Money or Effects in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposable by Persons resident in France, being applied to the Use of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, and for preserving the Property thereof for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof," and in an Act, passed in the same Session, intituled, "An Act for more effectually preserving Money or Effects, in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposable by Persons resident in France, for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof," unless His Majesty shall license the Payment of such Bills, in pursuance of the Powers given by the said several Acts: His Majesty, taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That it shall be lawful for any Person, residing or being in Great Britain, to pay any Bill, drawn or indorsed in any Part of the said United Provinces, and sent from the said Provinces on or before the Sixteenth Day of January last; provided such Bill shall have been made payable at no greater Distance of Time than Three Months from the Date thereof, or Three Months from Sight thereof; provided also, that all and every Person and Persons, who shall take the Benefit of such Licence hereby granted, shall so take the same, upon Condition, that in case of any Proceeding, Criminal or Civil, under the Provisions of the said Acts of Parliament, or either of them, for any Thing alleged to have been done contrary thereto, any Question shall arise, whether the Thing so done was authorized by the Licence hereby given, the Proof that such Thing was done under the particular Circumstances, and according to the special Terms and Conditions required by this Order, shall lie on the Persons claiming the Benefit of such Licence.

A Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, dated Deventer, January 21, 1795, has been received from the Honorable Lieutenant-General Harcourt by His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and communicated by His Royal Highness to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint your Royal Highness of the Arrival of the Army in their Cantonments on the Banks of the Yffel on the 18th Instant, though not without some Loss, as some of the Traineurs, unable to support the Fatigues of the March and the extreme Severity of the Weather, were left behind, and have probably fallen into the Hands of the Enemy.

It is a Matter of no small Satisfaction to acquaint your Royal Highness, that we have not only saved all the Ordnance and most of the other Stores deposited at Arnheim, but that we have burnt all the Vessels containing Forage and Stores upon the Leck, and have destroyed most of the Ammunition contained in Fifteen Ordnance Vessels at Rotterdam.

Horfe Guards, February 14, 1795.

A Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from General the Honorable Sir John Vaughan, K. B. by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Martinico, December 18, 1794.

S I R,

THE Evacuation of Fort Matilda, Guadaloupe, was an Event to be expected; the Position of the Place is weak, the Ground rising inland immediately from the Glacis. The Work, which has been added at different Times, is irregular, presents a narrow Front to the strong Ground to the Eastward, and has been constructed with bad Masonry.

Under these Circumstances, Lieutenant-General Prescott, with a small Garrison, protracted the Siege from the 14th of October to the 10th of December. Early in December the Enemy's Batteries were increased so as greatly to exceed the Artillery of the Garrison. Their Fire on the 6th Instant dismounted all our Guns upon the Cavalier, which is the highest and most commanding Part of the Fort; the Curtain, from thence to the next Bastion near the Town, and the Faces and Flanks of that Bastion in many Places, threatened to fall into the Ditch; the Number of Killed and Wounded was proportional to the Effect made upon the Work; and the Place became no longer tenable.

On the Night of the 10th Instant, Lieutenant-General Prescott having previously arranged the Order and Time of Retreat with Rear-Admiral Thompson, the whole Garrison was embarked without Loss.

I have the Honor to inclose to you the Lieutenant-General's Account of the Siege and Evacuation, by which you will be fully informed of all the attending Circumstances.

Lieutenant-General Prescott reports, that it has been greatly owing to the ready Assistance afforded to the Garrison by Vice-Admiral Sir John Jervis, and since by Rear-Admiral Thompson, that he was enabled so long to resist the Efforts of the Enemy.

He also gives the highest Encomiums to Captain Bowen, of His Majesty's Ship the Terpsichore, who superintended the Embarkation, and by whose able Disposition of the Boats every Thing was managed with the most perfect Order and Regularity; unfortunately he was severely wounded, but we hope not in such a Manner as to endanger his Life.

Of the Conduct of all the Officers and Men, the Lieutenant-General makes a most favourable Report, expressive of his entire Satisfaction of their Behaviour during the Whole of the Siege.

I beg to express to you my Approbation of the Conduct of Lieutenant-General Prescott in the Defence of Fort Matilda: It has been judicious in a high Degree; and throughout the whole Transaction he has shewn the greatest Judgment and Resolution.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

JOHN VAUGHAN.

*Right Hon. Henry Dundas,

On Board His Majesty's Ship Vanguard, at Sea, December 11, 1794.

S I R,

THE Evacuation of Fort Matilda in Guadaloupe, the Defence of which devolved upon me, having unavoidably taken Place, I find it necessary to give you a particular Account thereof.

To enter into a minute Detail of the Siege, which commenced on the 14th of October, and terminated by evacuating it on the 10th of December, would not only too much occupy your Time, but might be deemed equally unnecessary. It may be sufficient to remark, that, on entering the Fort, I found it totally out of Repair, the Materials composing the Wall-Work thereof being of the worst Kind, and having apparently but little Lime to cement them properly. By the Middle of last Month the Works were very much injured by the daily and frequent heavy Fire of the Enemy, and almost all the Carriages of our Guns rendered useless. These were in general in a very decayed State, but even the new ones for the Brass Mortars, that were made during the Siege, gave Way, from the almost incessant Fire we kept up; so that, upon the Whole, what from the Nature of our Defences, and the small Number of our Garrison, we were in a very unfit Situation to resist the very vigorous Exertions of our Enemy, who began to prepare additional Forces about the 20th of last Month, but who, from a Number of Causes, and especially from heavy and continued Rains, could not open their new Batteries until the 6th of this Month. On that Day they began to fire from Twenty-three Pieces of Cannon, Four of which were Thirty-six Pounders, and the Rest Twenty-four, and from Eight Mortars, Two of Thirteen Inch and Two of Ten. The Fire was very heavy, and continued all Day and Night, and by it all the Guns on the Gallion Bastion were dismounted, and the Bastion itself a Heap of Ruins. Every Day after this grew worse until the 9th; on the Evening of which Day I went into the Ditch, accompanied by the Engineer, when we were both but too well convinced of the tottering State of the Works from the Gallion along the Curtain, and indeed the Whole, from the East to the North-East. I could not hesitate a Moment about the Necessity of evacuating the Fort. I therefore sent off immediately my First Aid-de-Camp, Captain Thomas, to Rear-Admiral Thompson, who commanded the Detachment of the Squadron left for our Protection, to acquaint him with the Necessity there was of evacuating the Fort the next Evening, and to request that he would have Boats ready to take off the Garrison by Seven o'Clock. I kept this my Design a profound Secret until Half past Six o'Clock of the Evening of the 10th, when I arranged the March of the Garrison.

One Company of the 21st Regiment occupied the Ramparts, whilst the Light Infantry of that Regiment were posted on the Right Flank on the Beach which led to the Town, and the third remaining Company of that Regiment, under the Command of Captain Mackay, a most confidential Officer, was posted along the Gallion River to cover our Left. The Fifteenth took Post along the circular Battery towards the Sea, and to the Barrier near the Town, which was quite open to the Enemy, and which Position was necessary to protect the Sally Port we marched through to reach the Shore. The Enemy from the Waterside, near the Town, fired some Small Arms soon after our Men began to embark, but were checked by the Light Company of the Twenty-first Regiment, under the Command of Lieutenant Patterson, a steady gallant Officer, as well as by a Boat from the Terpichore Frigate, into which Captain Bowen, who inspected and regulated the Embarkation, had, as unexpectedly as judiciously, put a Gun, and by the Fire of which I imagine the Enemy were very much surprised; at the same Time all possible Aid was given from the Ramparts, by such Guns as bore on the Town, and on that particular Spot where the Enemy fired from. The Embarkation continued, with little or no Interruption, and was happily completed about Ten o'Clock at Night, without its being discovered by the Enemy, who continued firing as usual on the Fort till Two or Three o'Clock in the Morning of the 11th, as we could plainly perceive from the Ships. My Satisfaction was great at having thus preserved my brave Garrison to their King and Country, and was embittered only by finding that Captain Bowen, of the Terpichore, was badly wounded in the Face by a Musket Ball, when bringing off the last of the Men. A most active, intelligent, and brave Officer, to whom I am under the highest Obligations, for his constant and unremitted Exertions to serve the Garrison during the whole Progress of the Siege.

I cannot help acknowledging the great Obligations I lie under to Sir John Jervis for the many and essential Services which he rendered me and my Garrison while he continued in the Command, and which were always offered with the utmost Alacrity, and performed with equal Diligence. My best Thanks are also due to Rear-Admiral Thompson, acting under the Orders of Vice-Admiral Caldwell, and in short to all the Officers of His Majesty's Navy who assisted in the Protection of the Fort, and who conducted the Evacuation in the most masterly Manner, as has been evinced by its Promptitude and Success.

During the whole Progress of this long and painful Siege the Officers and Men under my Command conducted themselves in such a Manner as to deserve my warmest Praise, bearing their Hardships with the utmost Patience and Fortitude, and performing their Duty with the utmost Alacrity. The Conduct of the whole Garrison was such as to entitle them to my best

Thanks, and I cannot particularize the Behaviour of any one Officer without doing an Injury to the Rest. Captain Thomas, of the 28th Regiment, and Captain Beckwith of the 56th, my Aides-de-Camp, distinguished themselves by their Zeal and Activity, and were truly aiding through this long Service. I cannot, however, omit mentioning Mr. Grant, Collector of Basseterre, Guadalupe, who commanded a few Volunteers, and whose Conduct during the whole Siege was such as did him the highest Honour,

I have the Honour to be,

S I R,

Your most obedient humble Servant,
(Signed) ROB. PRESCOTT.

Admiralty-Office, February 14, 1795.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Caldwell, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Mr. Stephens, Secretary of the Admiralty, dated on Board the Majestic, off Martinique, January 3, 1795.

THE Ganges and Montagu arrived at Fort Royal the 29th of November last.

On the 30th of October, being then about Thirty Leagues to the Westward of Cape Finisterre, they fell in with and captured the Jacobin, a Ship of War, in the Service of the French Government, carrying Twenty-four Twelve-Pounders, and Two Hundred and Twenty Men, and brought her with them to this Island. She had been Nine Days from Brest, and taken nothing.

The Zebra returned to Fort Royal on the 4th of December, with the Carmagnols French Schooner, of Ten Guns and Thirty-five Men, which she took off St. Lucia the 30th of November; and Captain Faulkner, of the Blanche, informs me of his having chased an armed Schooner on Shore near Port Louis, Guadeloupe, which he afterwards got off, and found she was laden with Gunpowder, and sent her to St. John's, Antigua. The Crew effected their Escape. And, by his Letter of the 31st of December, he acquaints me of his having, the Day before, chased a large Schooner into the Bay of Delcada, where she anchored close under a Battery and a long Range of Musquetry on the Shore; and that, from the Annoyance such Vessels have rendered the Trade, he thought it expedient to anchor, to silence the Battery and bring the Schooner out, which, after some little Time, he effected by the Crew of the Schooner abandoning her, and the Musquetry from the Shore not giving further Molestation. By the Papers found on Board, she was a National Corvette, commanded by a Lieutenant de Vaisseaux, senior Officer of a Detachment from Pointe à Pitre. The Blanche has suffered but little in her Hull, Masts, or Rigging. A Midshipman and One Man were killed, and Five wounded. The Enemy at the Battery and on Board the Schooner suffered considerably. Captain Riou, of the Beaulieu, also informs me, by Letter of the 2d Instant, of his having captured a fast-sailing Sloop, of Ten Guns and Forty-one Men, commanded by an Ensign de Vaisseaux, and carried her into Barbadoes. She failed from Pointe à Pitre in Company with Three other Privateers.

Extract of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Caldwell to Mr. Stephens, dated off Martinique, January 3, 1795.

I Have the Honour to inclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copies of Rear-Admiral Thompson's and Lieutenant-General Prescott's Letters, giving an Account of the Evacuation of Fort Matilda, Guadeloupe, which was happily effected with infinitely less Loss than could have been expected, by the able and judicious Arrangement made by the Lieutenant-General and Rear-Admiral; executed by Captain Bowen of the Terpsichore, with uncommon Judgment; too much Praise cannot be given him, meriting every Thing that can be said of a gallant, active, diligent, good Officer.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Thompson to Vice-Admiral Caldwell, dated on Board the Vanguard, off Guadeloupe, December 11, 1794.

S I R,

YESTERDAY Morning Captain Bowen, of his Majesty's Ship Terpsichore, accompanied by Captain Thomas, Aid-du-Camp to Lieutenant-General Prescott, brought me a Letter from the General, saying that he had held out at Fort Matilda as long as possible (indeed from the Ships we could perceive that the Walls of the Fort were much shattered, and many of the Guns dismounted) and requested that I would make an Arrangement for taking off the Troops, who would be ready at the Waterside by Seven o'Clock that Evening. On my mentioning to Captain Bowen that it would be necessary an Officer of Rank should conduct the Embarkation; he, in a very handsome Manner, offered to undertake the Service, provided I thought him equal to it. Knowing his Abilities, I accepted his Offer with Pleasure, and he performed it very much to my Satisfaction, bringing the whole Garrison off without any Loss on their Part; unfortunately, in rowing along Shore to enquire after an Out-Picket, (which there was some Doubt about, but which had been called in and was embarked) Captain Bowen received a bad Wound in the Face. A Mate and one Man were killed in the Alarm's Launch, in consequence of her being thrown on the Beach by the Surf. This was all the Loss we sustained, although the Enemy kept up a smart Fire of Musquetry, and from some of their Batteries. Two Men from the 60th deserted on being ordered to the Waterside, who, it is thought, gave the Enemy Information of our Intentions. Considering the short Notice, every Thing succeeded beyond my Expectations, and I felt myself much obliged to all concerned, Officers and Men; but Captain Bowen I beg Leave particularly to recommend on the present Occasion, and for his Exertions during the whole Siege, of which I have no Doubt but Lieutenant-General Prescott can bear ample Testimony.

We are now employed arranging the Troops, in order to send them for the Protection of the different Islands. When that is finished, I shall make the best of my Way to join you at Martinique. I have the Honour to be, &c.

C. THOMPSON.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant-General Prescott to Vice-Admiral Caldwell, dated on Board the Vanguard, at Sea, Dec. 11, 1794.

S I R,

I Cannot suffer the Evacuation of Fort Matilda, in Guadeloupe, to pass over (the Defence of which was committed to me) without acquainting you with the very gallant and truly meritorious Conduct of Captain Bowen, of the Terpsichore. This Ship was, by Sir John Jervis, particularly allotted to the Protection of the Fort by Sea, and performed that Duty, from the Commencement of the Siege thereof on the 14th of October, to the Day of its Evacuation, in a Manner that beggars all Description, to the 10th Instant, at Night. The Conduct of Captain Bowen in performing this Duty was above all Praise; his Vigilance was unremitted in covering the various Supplies of Men, Ammunition, Provisions, &c. which we had Need of during a Siege of Two Months, and received, without Loss, from his Attention and Zeal. He required but to be made acquainted with our Wants, to administer all in his Power to our Relief, and his Conduct, on this trying Occasion, has made such Impression on my Mind in his Favour, as Time cannot obliterate; and I am persuaded that the whole Garrison entertain the same Sense of his Services that I do.

I trust that the Wound which he has received in taking off the last of the Garrison in his own Boat, will not prove mortal, as thereby the King would lose a most gallant and truly deserving Officer.

I had no Acquaintance with Captain Bowen until the Commencement of this Siege, and, therefore, I trust that my thus taking the Liberty of addressing you respecting him, can be ascribed to no other Motive than the true one, an anxious Desire to pay that Tribute of Applause which is so justly due to Merit such as his.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROBERT PRESCOTT.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Caldwell to Mr. Stephens, dated off Martinique, the 11th of January, 1795.

FOR the Information of my Lords Commissioner of the Admiralty, I enclose Two Copies of Letters received from Lieutenant Watkins, of the Blanche, with Minutes of Mr. Milne, her Second Lieutenant, who came to me Express, giving an Account of their taking the French Frigate La Pique, of 38 Guns, and 360 Men, after an Action of Five Hours, as brilliant and decided as ever happened; nor can too much Praise and Commendation be given to all the Officers and Ship's Company. Their Lordships will see by the Minutes, the judicious Manner in which the Blanche laid the Enemy on Board, and twice lashed her Bow-sprit to the Blanche's Capstern, and, when the former's Main and Mizen Masts fell, she paid off before the Wind, and towed the Enemy; when the Stern Ports, not being large enough, they blew the upper Transom Beam away to admit the Guns to run out, and fired into her Bows for Three Hours. The Marines, under Lieutenant Richardson, keeping so well directed and constant a Fire, that not a Man could appear upon her Fore-castle until she struck, when the Second Lieutenant and Ten Men swam on Board, and took Possession of her.

Captain Faulknor was unfortunately killed after Two Hours Action, by which His Majesty has lost an Officer as truly meritorious as the Navy of England ever had.

P. S. It appears, by a recent Account, there were many more than 360 Men on Board La Pique; One Hundred and Seventy-four are brought here, One Hundred and Ten wounded, and landed at the Saints, Seventy-six found dead on Board when she was taken Possession of: It is probable some were thrown overboard during the Action, and it is known Numbers fell with her Three Masts, and were drowned.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Frederick Watkins, First Lieutenant of His Majesty's Ship Blanche, to Vice-Admiral Caldwell, dated Isle de Saints, 5th of January, 1795.

S I R,

I Take the earliest Opportunity of informing you of my Arrival here in His Majesty's Ship Blanche, with La Pique, a Frigate of 38 Guns, belonging to the National Convention of France, which Captain Faulknor brought to Action at a Quarter past Twelve A. M. Mariagalante bearing East Half South, Three Miles.

It is with the utmost Regret I have to inform you that he fell in the Action. In him His Majesty lost a brave and gallant Officer, which I most sincerely lament, as must every one who knew his Merit.

I cannot sufficiently express my Thanks to Lieutenants Milne and Prickett, also the other Officers and Ship's Company, for their cool determined Bravery on the Occasion; and am happy to add that she struck her Colours at a Quarter past Five A. M.

From the best Information I have been able to obtain the Enemy had 360 Men on Board when we brought her to Action, and I have great Reason to suppose her Loss to be about 76 killed and 110 wounded.

Inclosed I have the Honour of sending you the Return of Killed and Wounded on Board His Majesty's Ship Blanche.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

FREDERICK WATKINS,
First Lieutenant.

Copy of another Letter from Lieutenant Watkins to Vice-Admiral Caldwell, dated Isle de Saints, January 6, 1795.

S I R,

THE Officer who delivers this to you is Lieutenant David Milne, Second of His Majesty's Ship Blanche. I think it my Duty to inform you, that his Conduct during the Action with La Pique is deserving

SEVERAL Persons whose Names are thereunto subscribed, being Freemen and Citizens of the City of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland, and having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, that on the 3d Day of March in the Year 1791, a Select Committee of this House, appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of John Christian Curwen and Wilfon Braddyll, and also of another Petition on the Part of and subscribed by several other Persons, Freemen and Citizens of the City of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland, and having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said City of Carlisle, reported to the House their final Determination on the Merits of those Petitions, and did at the same Time also report to the House, that it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the said Petitions did, in Part, depend upon the Right of Election for the said City; and that thereupon the said Committee had required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the said John Christian Curwen and Wilfon Braddyll, and also for the said other Petitioners, the Freemen and Citizens of the said City of Carlisle, having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Petitioners state the Right of Election to be in the Freemen of the City of Carlisle, duly admitted and sworn Freemen of the said City, and deriving their Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman, resident during such Apprenticeship within the said City, or by Election of the Mayor and Common Council of the said City, with the Consent and Approbation of certain Persons called the Fours, otherwise the Fours of the Election of each of the Eight Guilds or Occupations within the said City, as Representatives of the whole Commonalty of the said City; they also state, that no Person is entitled to be admitted a Freeman of the said City, who has not been previously admitted a Brother of one of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the said City." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, James Clarke Satterthwaite and Edward Knubley, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state the Right of Election to be in the Freemen of the City of Carlisle, who acquire a Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by serving an Apprenticeship during Seven Years to a Freeman, or by Election of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Capital Citizens of the said City; they also state, that it is not necessary, in order to become a Freeman of the said City, to have been previously admitted a Brother of one of the Eight Guilds or Occupations within the said City." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners the said Select Committee determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members the said Select Committee determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle, determined, "That the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, is in the Freemen of the said City, duly admitted and sworn Freemen of the said City, having been previously admitted Brethren of one of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the said City, and deriving their Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman, resident during such Apprenticeship within the said City, and in no others." And that on or about the 12th Day of January last past, Thomas Wilfon Morley, James Paine, Robert Murray, Edward Wastell, John Richardson, Robert Yarker, Thomas Wyley, John White, Richard Rowland, Joseph Yeoward, Ralph Elliott, and Joseph Brownrigg, presented their Petition to the House, in order to prevent the said Judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive in all subsequent Elections of Members of Parliament for the said City, thereby stating they were not satisfied with the said Resolution, and were desirous of being admitted Parties to oppose such Right of Election, and to have the Benefit of the Statute in that Case made and provided, and praying the House to take the Premises into Consideration, and to grant them such Relief therein as the House should think fit; and that the Petitioners insist, that the Right of Election, which hath been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, and in Favour of which the said Select Committee so reported as aforesaid, is the ancient and true Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle; and therefore praying that they may be admitted as Parties to defend such Right of Election, so reported to the House as aforesaid, according to the Form of the said Statute; and that they may have such further and other Relief as to the House shall seem meet, and as the Nature of their Case may require. I do hereby give Notice that the House has appointed Thursday the Twenty-sixth Day of February instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, to take the said Petition into Consideration, at the same Time that the Petition of Thomas Wilfon Morley, James Paine, Robert Murray, Edward Wastell, John Richardson, Robert Yarker, Thomas Wyley, John White, Richard Rowland, Joseph Yeoward, Ralph Elliott, and Joseph Brownrigg, Citizens of the City of Carlisle, is ordered to be taken into Consideration. Given under my Hand, the Thirtieth Day of February, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five.

General Post-Office, February 7, 1795.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in consequence of an Application from several Merchants of London, the Mails of Letters made up at this Office for Holland on the 13th, 15th and 20th of January last, are detained by Warrant of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, until His Majesty's further Order; and that an Application will be immediately made to Parliament to authorize the Post-Master-General to return such of the said Letters as shall be applied for by the Writers thereof, or by any Persons duly authorized to make such Application in their Behalf. As soon as the Mode of such Application shall be settled by Act of Parliament, due Notice will be given thereof from this Office.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, January 24, 1795.

IN Consequence of the present Interruption to the Correspondence between this Country and Holland, a Communication will be immediately opened by His Majesty's Packet-Boats between Farnmouth and the Elbe, and the Mails will be made up and dispatched from this Office every Tuesday and Friday Night as usual; and as the Letters to and from all Parts of Europe, except Spain and Portugal, will now be sent through this Channel, it is necessary to inform the Public, that from this Time, the Postage of all Letters to Holland or Flanders, must be paid before-hand, the same as to Hamburg, at all Parts of Germany, and the North of Europe, at the Rate of One Shilling each single Letter, Two Shillings double, Three Shillings treble, and Four Shillings the Ounce, without which they cannot be forwarded; and the same Rates are to be paid for all Letters from those Countries.

Besides the foregoing Rates of Foreign Postage, it will be necessary, as usual, to pay at the Office in Great Britain or Ireland, where such Letters are put in, the full Port to London.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anth. Todd, Sec.
