Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 21, to Tuesday February 24, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th of February, 1795.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains and Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Twenty-eighth Day of this instant February; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Twenty-eighth Day of this instant February, to the Thirtieth Day of April next inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Whitehall, February 13, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, at about Eleven o'Clock in the Night of the 7th of December, 1794, a Barn called Sunwool Barn, situate at Haysbott in the County of Suffex, belonging to Mr.

Mr. John Newman, of Cocking, was discovered to be on Fire, and totally consumed, with a Quantity of Corn therein, and there are very strong Reasons to suspect that the said Barn was maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Barn abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Richard Cobden, Bailiff of the Borough of Midhurst.

And, as a yet farther Encouragement, an additional Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is also hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery (except as aforesaid) to be paid on the abovementioned Conviction, by the Sea Fire Insurance-Office.

Th. Watts, Secretary.

General Post-Office, January 24, 1795.

IN Consequence of the present Interruption to the Correspondence between this Country and Holland, a Communication will be immediately opened by His Majesty's Packet-Boats between Yarmouth and the Elbe, and the Mails will be made up and dispatched from this Office every Tuesday and Friday Night as usual; and as the Letters to and from all Parts of Europe, except Spain and Portugal, will now be sent through this Channel, it is necessary to inform the Public, that from this Time, the Postage of all Letters to Holland or Flanders, must be paid before-hand, the same as to Hamburgh, at all Parts of Germany, and the North of Europe, at the Rate of One Shilling each single Letter, Two Shillings double, Three Shillings treble, and Four Shillings the Ounce, without which they cannot be forwarded; and the same Rates are to be paid for all Letters from those Countries.

Besides the foregoing Rates of Foreign Postage, it will be necessary, as usual, to pay at the Office in Great Britain or Ireland, where such Letters are put on, the full Post to London.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Anth. Todd, Sec.
