Whitehall, March 23, 1795.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 21st of February last an anonymous threatening Letter was received by Mr. Itherwood, of Old Windsor in the County of Berks; and that upon the 28th of the same Month another anonymous threatening Letter was received by Mr. James Webb, sen. of Sheet-Street, Windsor, in the said County, of which the following are Copies.

"If you do not desist from sending your hired Banditti of the Webbs, Sawyers, Gerrards, Cantrells, and Scaundrells to interrupt the legal Business of the Parish of New Windsor, means will be taken to burn your House and Vermin."

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letters abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letters) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Henry Itherwood.

Whitehall, March 16, 1795.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Ten o'Clock in the Night of Thursday the 5th of January last, a Dwelling-House of Henry

Kirkpatrick, situate in Hanover-Street, in Liverpool in the County of Lancaster, was discovered to be on Fire in Four several Parts of the Stair-Case, and in other Parts of the said Dwelling-House: And whereas a Quantity of Hemp was at the same Time found to be on Fire in a Brick Warehouse adjoining the said Dwelling-House, but separated therefrom by a Party Wall: And whereas there is great Reason to suspect that the said Dwelling-House and Warehouse were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown:

For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, His Majesty has been pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and brought to Conviction.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one of the Offenders, by the Secretary of the Phoenix Fire Office.

Thomas Worley, Sec.
