

The King was attended by the Great Officers, in the same Manner in which His Majesty went to the Chapel; and Her Majesty, and the Princesses in the Order before mentioned.

The Procession, at the Return, filed off in the Privy Chamber. Their Majesties, the Bridegroom and Bride; with the rest of the Royal Family, and the Great Officers, proceeded into the Levee Chamber, where the Registry of the Marriage was attested with the usual Formalities; after which the Procession continued into the Lesser Drawing-Room; and Their Majesties, with the Bridegroom and Bride, and the rest of the Royal Family, passed into the Great Council Chamber; where the Great Officers, Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, paid their Compliments on the Occasion.

The Evening concluded with very splendid Illuminations, and other public Demonstrations of Joy, throughout London and Westminster.
