

St. James's, April 21.

The following Address having been transmitted by the Earl of Leven to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Fife, convened at Cupar upon the 14th Day of April, 1795 Years.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Fife, beg Leave to embrace the earliest Opportunity of offering to your Majesty our warmest and most affectionate Congratulations upon the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick, distinguished by her Virtues and amiable Accomplishments.

It is our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, that the Felicity of the Prince and Princess of Wales may be uninterrupted and of long Duration; and that this joyful and auspicious Union may prove the happy Mean of encreasing the domestic Comfort of your august Family, and of transmitting to latest Ages the Blessings enjoyed by these Kingdoms under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment.

John Cook, Moderator.

Carlton-House, April 21.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will have a Levee on Monday the 27th Instant, at Half an Hour past Two o'Clock, instead of Saturday the 25th.

Adjutant-General's Office, April 13.

IF is Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of York's Order, that all absent Officers, without Distinction, belonging to Corps on Foreign Stations, as well as to those at Home, do proceed to join them, without Loss of Time; such only excepted as are attending their Duty in Parliament, or are employed on the Recruiting Service.

By Command of Field Marshal,

His Royal Highness the Duke of York,

WM. FAWCETT, Adj. Gen.

Admiral's Office, April 8, 1795.

WHEREAS several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy, now unemployed, have omitted to give Information to this Office of the Places of their Residence, notwithstanding the Notice inserted in the London Gazette in the Months of November and December last; It is the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that such Lieutenants do, within the Space of Six Weeks from this Date, or sooner if possible, transmit to this Office the Information required, and that such of them as are incapable, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, of further Service, do at the same Time transmit an Affidavit, from a qualified Surgeon, of such Inability, specifying therein the Cause or Causes thereof, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call for the further Services of such Lieutenants.

In case the same Disregard should be paid to this as hath been shewn to the former Notice, it is their Lordships Intention to mark their Disapprobation of the Conduct of such Officers in the strongest Manner, by striking their Names off the List of Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy.

Evan Nepean.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, April 16, 1795.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give Notice, that Proposals will be received by the Comptrollers of Army Accounts from any Person or Persons willing to supply either or all of the following Articles, viz.
