AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of April, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers, appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April, to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of April, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Baronet, to be Lieutenant of the County of Denbigh, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Carlton-House, April 25.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will have a Levee at Half an Hour past Two o'Clock, on Monday the 27th Instant, and on Saturday the 9th of May.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales will have a Drawing-Room at Two o'Clock, on Wednesday the 6th of May, instead of Wednesday the 29th Instant.

Carlton House, April 23, 1795.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London waited upon His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and being introduced to His Royal Highness by the Earl of Cholmondeley, Sir John William Rose, the Recorder, read their Compliments of Congratulation as follows:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your recent Marriage with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

It is with extreme Pleasure and Gratification that we behold your Royal Highness so impressed with Affection towards His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, as to form the present happy Alliance with a Princess, illustrious in Rank, and possessing every engaging Quality of the Heart suited to the important Station which she fills, and calculated to remunerate with conjugal Felicity the high Honor of your Royal Highness's Affection and Choice.

The Prospect by this illustrious Event of perpetuating the Virtues of your Royal House to Posterity, who shall know, equally with ourselves, how to value the mild Monarchy so admirably interwoven with our most excellent Constitution, forms a material Part of our Happiness.

Depending, as good Subjects ever must, on the Virtues of the Royal Breast, as essential to the Splendor of a Throne and the Prosperity of a People, it is Matter of great Consolation to us to reflect upon the invaluable Example of your Royal Father, which, confirming the many graceful and amiable Qualifications of your own Mind, cannot but complete the Royal Character, and, in the Fulness of Time, must make your future People happy.
