Admiralty-Office, April 8, 1795.

WHEREAS several Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy, now unemployed, have omitted to give Information to this Office of the Places of their Residence, notwithstanding the Notice inserted in the London Gazette in the Months of November and December last; It is the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that such Lieutenants do, within the Space of Six Weeks from this Date, or sooner if possible, transmit to this Office the Information required, and that such of them as are incapable, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, of further Service, do at the same Time transmit an Affidavit, from a qualified Surgeon, of such Inability, specifying therein the Cause or Causes thereof, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call for the further Services of such Lieutenants.

In case the same Disregard should be paid to this as hath been shewn to the former Notice, it is their Lordships Intention to mark their Disapprobation of the Conduct of such Officers in the Strongest Manner, by striking their Names off the List of Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy. Evan Nepean.

Whitehall, April 18, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that between Two and Three o'Clock on Tuesday Morning the 7th Instant, Two or more Persons made a most daring Attempt to force open the Windows of the Dwelling-House of Joseph Pocklington, Esq; of Muskham, near Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, and that they had (without any Provocation) fired upon John Bliton, a Servant belonging to the said House, who immediately returned the Fire, and killed or severely wounded One of the said Persons.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually fired the said Gun) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, the following Rewards are hereby offered, viz.

By Mr. Brough, of Newark, Treasurer to the Association for the Prosecution of Offenders for Offences committed in the County of Nottingham	£ s. d.
By J. Pocklington, Esq; of Muskham aforesaid	10 10 0
And by John Bliton, of ditto	84 0 0
	10 10 0

making together the Sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS; which Sum will be paid to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

N. B. If any stout Man, about Five Feet Eight Inches high, dressed in a Waterman's deep-coloured Jacket, and wearing a round Hat, has, since Tuesday the 7th Instant, applied for Relief for WOUNDS IN THE BREAST to any Surgeon, such Gentleman is earnestly requested to communicate the Circumstance to the Magistrate nearest the Place of his Residence, that such Means may be used as shall appear the most likely to lead to the Apprehension of the said Offenders.
