Extract of a Letter from Captain Sir J. B. Warren, Bart. of His Majesty's Ship La Pomone, dated off Falmouth, April 24, 1795, to Evan Nepean, Esq;

UNtil the 15th Instant nothing material occurred; when a Sail having been discovered in the N. E. the Ile de Rhé bearing E. N. E. Five Leagues, I made the Signal for a general Chace, and at Half past Eight, A. M. the Artois brought her to. She proved to be Le Jean Bart, Ship Corvette, of 26 Guns and 187 Men.

On the 16th, having seen several Sail a-head, gave Chace with the Squadron, and at Four, P. M. Belleisle bearing N. Eight Leagues distant, came up with the Rear of a Convoy. A Corvette Brig, passing us to Leeward, exchanged a few Shot, which carried away her Studding-Sails. Finding it impracticable to pursue her, she running close in Shore, I stood after the rest, and at Five, P. M. brought to a Brig and a Sloop, which, being in Ballast, were set on Fire. The Galatea also, after exchanging a few Shot brought to a Ship-Corvette a-head, which proved to be L'Expedition, of 16 Guns and 120 Men, formerly a Packet in our Service.

The Artois also captured Two Sloops laden with Fish. The rest of the Convoy, with a Frigate, standing in between the Rocks, for Hedié and Quiberon Bay, escaped.

Extract of a Letter from the same, dated April 25.

IN Addition to the List of Vessels taken and destroyed by the Squadron under my Command, Captain Nagle, of the Artois, acquaints me, that, on the Evening we fell in with the last Convoy off Belleisle, he chased a Ship and Brig upon the Rocks near the Island of Hedié, and that they were lost thereon.
