

Before we withdraw from your Royal Presence, we feel it our indispensable Duty to return your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks for your truly Royal and patriotic Establishment and Patronage of the most laudable and beneficial Institution ever set on Foot in any Nation for human Happiness, in Conjunction with the other Two august Branches of the Legislature; we mean the National Board of Agriculture, whereby, we trust, these Kingdoms will be raised to a still greater unexampled Pitch of Opulence, Power and Prosperity, and the Names and Memories of it's Royal and noble Founders immortalized.

We do now most humbly and finally presume to express another most ardent and important Wish and Desire to our most gracious and beloved Monarch, in which, we are persuaded, all Ranks of People in your Majesty's Dominions, and perhaps all Europe, will most heartily concur, that the happy Æra we now have the high Honour joyfully to felicitate your Majesties upon, may be productive of the like great, important and beneficial Consequences to these Kingdoms, and the whole habitable Globe, as those which occurred upon your Majesty's happy and auspicious Union with your Royal and Illustrious Consort; and that your paternal Wishes, coincident with those of your People, may be fully and speedily gratified, by your holding out the Olive Branch, and giving now, as you did then, the inestimable Blessings of Peace to the contending Nations of Europe, and other Climes, consistent with the Honour and Dignity of your Imperial Crown of these Realms, and the unalienable Religious and Civil Rights of the People, whereby your Majesty's great and amiable Character would be enrolled in the Annals of National History, and transmitted down to the latest Posterity with still greater Eclat, Justice and Veneration.

Given under our Hands at the City of Durham, the 25th. of April, 1795, and desired to be presented to the Throne by Sir William Appleby.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder and Town-Clerk of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder and Town Clerk of the ancient and loyal Borough of New Windsor, in Common Council assembled, humbly request Permission to approach your Majesty's Presence with our warmest Congratulations on the auspicious Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Ever grateful for the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's gracious Protection and Government, and particularly for the Advantages which this Town enjoys through your Majesty's Royal Residence among us, we most heartily rejoice in every Event which is productive of Happiness to your Majesty; and our most sincere and ardent Prayer is, that this happy Union with a Princess, blessed with every Endowment to adorn her exalted Station, will give the most permanent Felicity to your Majesty, and every Branch of your Majesty's illustrious Family.

Signed by Order of Court,
R. Rimington, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcastle upon Tyne, humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our warmest Congratulations on the auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Highness the Princess of Brunswick; an Event which, whilst it increases the domestic Happiness of your Majesty, will, we trust, give additional Security to that glorious Succession, under which have been so happily preserved to your Majesty's Dominions the invaluable Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty.

May the Health and Prosperity of your Majesty be prolonged to the latest Period of human Life! And may your Majesty always experience the most dutiful Affection in your Royal Family, and in all your Subjects the grateful Attachment and willing Obedience of a free and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Corporation this 25th Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Francis Johnson, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport in the Isle of Wight, most humbly intreat your Majesty's Permission to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your Subjects has been evident on all Occasions; and your Majesty's approving this Alliance for His Royal Highness with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick confirms the Regard which your Majesty has always shewn for the Support of the Protestant Interest and the Liberties of Europe; and is a fresh Instance of your Majesty's indulgent Concern for the present and future Prosperity of your People.

We, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, cannot but sensibly feel, and at the same Time lament, the disagreeable Necessity imposed upon your Majesty of contending for the peaceable Possession of the general Rights and Liberties of Europe, and sincerely hope that your Majesty's Efforts may finally be crowned with Success.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most dutiful and affectionate Regard to your Royal Person, of our zealous Endeavours, in our Sphere, for the Support of your Majesty's Government; and that we esteem ourselves under the highest Obligation to do all in our Power, that your Majesty's Reign may be
